Gen. A. Q. Howard,
Dear Sir: —

Your autograph and picture received, for which I thank you very much.

I am sorry to say that I am unable ever to aid you a small contribution for the Lincoln Memorial University, although I would gladly do so, if I were able.

Again thanking you for your kindness, I remain,
Respectfully yours,

Harold G. Rugg.

Dear General:

I have taken some time to answer your kind letter, because you requested me to accept your offer. We liked your foreword of the war; we admired the way it came out; and we'd like to have your report with conclusion of the lessons of the South African campaign. But, like all other particulars, we have our price; it is now yours.

I thank you for your courtesy, General, and try to remain

Dear General Huron:

Your letter reached me as I was returning from Europe. It was too late for me to respond to its terms, and I write now to say that I wish to do all very quickly. Opportunity of the most absolute means for the Allies. What I shall be able to do will not be much in view of all that is needed. I shall be glad of the opportunity to do a little. While in New York, last winter we became interested... as the mountain's youth, and very clear speech also without tears of our being particularly interested in the Texas building for the School at Hot Springs — which is now announced.

I write. As in the spirit I endeavors to move you refer it your letter. I am certainly glad to have the news of this larger work, and so far and able to lend a hand.

My dear Gen:--

I am in receipt of your letter of June 20th. It should have been answered before, but I have been out of the city... I was very glad U.S. Grant Post concluded to give you $50.00 for the Lincoln Memorial University. I believe it is a very worthy enterprise, and I am certainly glad that you are able to give your time to it.

I am not able to do very much for this, but if the enclosed check will help with the good work, please accept it with my compliments and best wishes for the success of the University.

Sincerely yours,

NEW YORK, June 28, 1900.

Sir,

Sometime during March last I sent a pair of gold-plated Spurs to you to see if you would purchase them, they originally belonged to Robt. Alexander Dunn, a Lieutenant in the British Army, and the only Officer who was awarded a Victoria Cross in the famous Balaclava Charge. I have a collection of medals to which I bought in London (England) and being laid up in St. Luke's Hospital (New York) with an attack of Sclerotic, my funds became exhausted and I decided to part with some of my treasures. You named Relinger told me he knew you and no doubt you would purchase some of them. I let him have the Spurs with some newspaper cuttings and he said he left them at your office at 156 Fifth Avenue, New York as you were absent at the time, I have been there several times but...

My dear General Howard:

Your kind letter of the 27th inst. reached me this morning, and, regardless of the results attending your friendly efforts, I greatly appreciate the interest you have shown in the matter of a degree for Monsieur Breal. I fully understand the difficulties under which you labored, for, regardless of all that has been accomplished by the Paris branch of the Franco-American Committee, our colleges seemingly remain in ignorance of the obligations we are under to the French Universities and the Government of France. This is, of course, not due to any lack of sympathy or desire to reciprocate cordially of others, but I think merely to the size of our country and to our imperfect methods of communication with European lands. I am sure that Bowdoin College, had I been able to supply them more fully with necessary data, would have conferred the desired honor, and this especially inasmuch as the nomination was made by you, ------- which I esteem as a matter of no small honor in itself.

Believe me, therefore, when I say again that I am deeply grateful to you for your friendly services and to Bowdoin College for the attitude of friendship with which I am sure it was disposed to view the proposition that was made.

Believe me, dear General, with warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

W. L. Farber

To General O. Howard

My dear General Howard:

Your kind letter of the 29th inst. received me.

I am greatly pleased at the letter containing your friendly expression of appreciation of the interest you have shown in the matter of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. I fully understand that there are other states of mind, no reflection on yourself or on the printers, with whom I am associated, and who have failed to see the value of the printed record of the operations of our colleges. I am not so much concerned with the prejudices of the public, and the government of France and of the Indian tribes, but I think worthy of the wise advice of the President of the United States, in his injunction to the Indian tribes, that I have the honor to receive of you.

I am, therefore, certain, that I am the agent of the President of the United States, and that I am the agent of the President of the United States, and that I have the honor to receive of you.

In closing, I must say that I am in receipt of your letter, and I am very glad to learn that you have been successful in your efforts to improve the Indian schools.

Yours very truly,

Charles C. Nance

Dear Gen. Hermaud,

We have started on our trip to Europe and are expecting a day very pleasantly with Mr. Fairchild's family. Will leave Cincinnati 1 A.M. Monday, arrive at New York 6 30 A.M. Tuesday, and will sail Tuesday afternoon. Expect to see Col. Adams Tuesday morning.

Before I left home I paid out to the best possible advantage I could the $1000 that you sent me, and settled all other debts by giving notes due Sept. 1st, or on or before Sept. 1st.

If you have or receive any funds that you desire to have applied on notes before I return (about Aug 25) you may forward a check to my son, Lelon R. Eager, to whom I have given directions how to apply them on notes.

the boys on the other on the farm. as to friends until return, that is. I have paid them all some money and they have agreed to remain without any further payment until I return. I have, however, just received a letter from Dr. Barry asking if I was prepared to pay promptly his gone salary, $166.25, which he says he needs. I have written him that I had no money, but that I would write you about the matter. I did hope that he would succeed to well in gathering funds, that he could deduct from the amount received his salary and have a good sum to turn into the treasury. Mr. Fairchild's family are all well. My address until Aug 1st will be (on next sheet)

Dear Sir:-

I beg to report that everything in connection with the Re-Union is progressing nicely, and the indications are that the attendance from both armies will be quite large.

Arrangements are making for a Grand Blue and Gray Camp Fire at the Grand Opera House the night of July 19. A splendid programme will be fixed, in which the veterans of both sides will participate.

Invitations have been extended to those whose names you sent me. If there are others you would like to have invited, kindly send me their names and addresses. Formal invitations will be sent out next week.

A Special Committee will be appointed to meet you upon arrival and look after your comfort while you are here.

If at any time any suggestions should occur to you, the Committee will be delighted to receive them.

With respect, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Chairman, V.C.

DEAR SIR:

I feel to report that everything is coming along well with the preparation of programs, speeches and the Juliette Hotel. I must say that the interest from both members and guests has been large.

I am sure that the various committees have been working hard to get everything in order.

The entertainment for the evening will be provided by the Juliette Hotel.

You have been asked to prepare your speeches, and I believe that you will all do so.

A special committee will be appointed to meet you upon your arrival and take care of your needs.

If you have any suggestion, please send them to me.

I am sure that the committee will be happy to receive them.

With warmest greetings,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
