Dear Col. Howard.

Yours of the 16th from Topeka.
Kansas at hand. I hope your efforts in Kansas will do much good. I wish at this moment that I was in K. But they keep urging me out from the Gap. and I am afraid I have arrived too early & accomplish much. I have no letter heads and no new circulars, their press was out of order at the Gap.

The meeting here on Nov. 8th in your honor, ought to be of great help to the University if properly managed, It would be very fitting to make you a donation of $500.000. for the University.

Col. Adams is out of the city just now. Will probably return Monday or Tuesday. I am ready to do what I can. Have made some calls, and expect to make more.

Sincerely Yours E. Hainchild.

Dear Sir:-

OCT 25 1900

Your letter of the 19th to General Hubbard, regarding an offer for the Mount Pleasant property in Omaha, was received this morning. There is nobody here who can decide that matter for the General and I shall be obliged to send it to him for his decision. He is expected back here about the 21st of November, but this letter will reach him before that time, and it is possible that he may - if the matter can remain open so long - leave the matter until his return, or possibly he may write you from abroad.

I was delighted

We were at Stuttgart

I cannot but believe

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

Dear Brother

I was sorry not to meet you at Mohawk this year. I wrote Harry from there in relation to a letter he had written to Me.

Many, many kind inquiries were made for you & the hope expressed that you would be there.

This morning's Tribune has quite a full announcement of the proposed banquet in your honor - Hon. Darwin R. Jones said he was in the Committee and that I should have an invitation. It is not probable I can come back here so soon - but I would like feel honored & pleased to receive the invitation - I hope Gen. Whittier will be here. He read a good paper at Mohawk on the mention and commemoration of the Presidents of U.S. relating to the Indians - beginning with Geo. Washington - Lincoln's was remarkable for its Christian spirit and religious bearing.

I enclose copy of our paper (one page) showing the plain mention we made of your political attitude & work in this campaign - in connection with announcement of your articles -

So you see there was no chance of mistake or misleading in regard to it. I have ^{again} inserted that or something similar, since I believe -

Do you remember or can you ascertain whether you forwarded Mrs.
Wilson's additional application (under the law of 1890) for pension? I thought I sent it to you for that purpose but we have not heard from it -

Respectfully

The following letter has just come to me - Rougemont, N. H.

Oct 24 1900

Oct 24 1900

My dear E. Paxon Hammond, Having seen a notice in "The Christian" of your publishing a book on "Early Conversion", I wish to tell you of my son who was led to the Lord in one of your meetings in Rougemont, when 7 years of age. He had never manifested any interest in spiritual things. To the grief of his father and myself, nothing seemed to touch his heart. He was full of life, and eager for nothing but play. He took Perry, with the others to one of your services, and to our surprise he was the first to whom you were blessed by the Holy Spirit. We saw the change. He began to read the Bible, rejoiced going to your meetings and hearing about Jesus. He has lived a consistent, Christian life. He is a constant worker for the Lord, often giving Gospel addresses in the open air. He has been the means of the conversion of others. He was admitted to the church, when a little over a year. Each of our children was led to Christ. One of his sisters is a missionary in China. We read with pleasure, the accounts of your meetings, in the "Christian". We are well known to R. C. Morgan the editor. I have long wished to write you this, but have not known your address.

Yours,

Annie S. Blahod

Dear Sir and Comrade,

Some of our radical G.O.P. papers are stating that you are making speeches in favor of the reelection of Pres. McKinley and I presume such is the fact, altho it hardly seems possible that the honored President of our Home Missionary Society could be found antagonizing the best of religious gatherings that have openly and boldly denounced his course. Such a course on your part must be damaging to the Society of which you are the head and will affect contributions seriously I fear.

How it is that an earnest christian man can uphold his nullification of law in the interest of the liquor power, causing thousands of our soldier boys to go down to drunkards graves, licensing houses of ill fame at Manila and elsewhere, making an infamous treaty with the Sultan of Sulu whereby our grand old flag floats over and protects slavery, concubinage & polygamy,

REPRESENTING NEW YORK UNDERWRITERS' AGENCY

Harvey, Ill.,

all this and much more that is revolting and almost makes the blood boil in the veins of men who gave the best years of their lives, that this country might be free, how it is that christian men can thus uphold that which they themselves have admitted is Christ worst enemy and is the greatest hindrance to missionary work, is beyond comprehension. The State Conventions of Iowa W. C. T. U in session at Iledo Iowa a few days ago declared as follows:
"Resolved that recognizing civil government by law as in accord
"with divine appointment, we deplore the defiant nullification
"of the plain law of Congress, prohibiting the open saloon in the army "(commonly called the canteen) by our Commander in Chief and we "call upon our christian brethren to rebuke this act of perfidy that "is slaying our sons and brethren, by relegating Mr. M. Kinley "to private life." I am a long resident in Iowa I know these Iowa women are among the noblest christian workers in this country; they know what the canteen is, as their sons and brethren have told them all about it, and if all the generals in the army should declare the canteen a blessing they would still know it to be a terrible curse and disgrace.
If you can find time to give me a few words of explanation
I shall be much obliged; I have admired your course as a consistent christian man and desire to do so still.
yes for righteousness. J. R. Stillman.

APPEAL OF THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE FOR THE UNITED STATES

TO ALL CHRISTIAN PEOPLE:

At the close of the last century a Concert of Prayer was observed by many Christians of both the old world and the new, and the united intercession was followed by unusual spiritual blessing. Accordingly, by more than one ecclesiastical fellowship abroad, and by some of our own Christian leaders, the wish for a similar world-wide union of prayer has been earnestly expressed, and various movements in the direction of united prayer have actually been entered upon.

These are times of both hopefulness and dread. On the one hand, there are unwonted tokens of the coming of God's Kingdom. Light is everywhere breaking forth. In realms material, intellectual, spiritual, there is onward movement. Old ignorances and superstitions and tyrannies, are breaking up. The rights and duties of the individual, the office and welfare of society, the mission of the Church, the largeness of the Kingdom itself, are better and better understood. The brotherhood of man, the Fatherhood of God, the unity in Christ of all true Christians, are taking on new meaning and new power. In spite of adverse forces, God is magnifying the witness for Himself in every land.

On the other hand, there is a perilous unrest. There is a vast questioning of truths and faiths. There is haughty self-assertion. There is a disposition to count this present world of controlling moment. The sense of the Word's inspired supremacy, of sin's fatal demerit, of God's infinite grace in Christ, of love's atoning sacrifice, of eternity's decisive awards, is far too weak. The veritable kingship of our Lord, the real sovereignty of His teaching and commands, His divine pre-eminence as the way, the truth, and the life, are far too lightly held.

Meanwhile, the world-movements sweep on. Nations are in commotion. Civilizations are in conflict. The coming century will be, in many ways, a decisive century. What then so urgent as true intercession with Him who, holding supreme control, has promised to hear and answer united prayer?

It is, therefore, recommended that the first Sunday of December be everywhere given to special consideration of the great need, and to faithful prayer for God's great blessing. It is also suggested that churches and individuals mark the advent of New Year's by watch-night prayer. Further, let all believers unitedly devote the opening week (January 6th to 13th inclusive) of the new year and the new century, to earnest intercession for one another, for the Church Universal, and for the unsaved world.

If believers unite in the prayer of faith, remembering that faith includes the life and the works, the Kingdom will gloriously advance.

SUGGESTED PROGRAMME FOR THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

(January 6th to 13th, inclusive.)

Sunday, Jan. 6th.—Appropriate sermons and services.

Monday—PRAYER for a better realization of spiritual truth and a better estimate of spiritual realities; a clearer vision of the redeeming Christ, and of the actual need and the divinely intended glory of the world which He redeemed.

Tuesday—PRAYER for a Church which, through faith in Christ, and by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, shall be wholly Christian, doing God's will and winning the world to Christ.

Wednesday—PRAYER for such Christian character and life as shall be pleasant in the home, honored in business relations, welcomed in the neighborhood, helpful in the church,—thus manifesting personal religion in its rightful attractiveness.

Thursday—PRAYER for right relations in society and the nation,—the Golden Rule prevailing between man and man, and all social and political action guided by justice and good-will.

Friday—PRAYER for all international relationships and all international action, that they may be based on the Christian principles which apply to the individual.

Saturday—PRAYER for all missionaries, and all missionary organizations, that being wholly inspired by Christian devotion and wholly guided by Christian wisdom, they may speedily and triumphantly fulfill the Saviour's last command.

Sunday, Jan. 13th.—Appropriate sermons and services.

Dear Sir,

You may remember that when you were stationed on Governor Island about ten years ago, you kindly spoke at a private meeting of our "Children's Conv." You came in uniform. The topic, or object, was "The Flag." We want you to come to us Friday, Nov. 9th ^{and} to speak about 20 minutes to the Children ^{and} their Parents at a public meeting in the audience-room of our Church. The object presented will be a bust of Lincoln - the Emancipator. As the head of the Freedom's work of our times, ^{and} in other relations as a General in the War - You saw him, knew him, studied him, ^{and} can give the Children personal reminiscences that they will enjoy. I send you sample programs. Usually - almost invariably - make these object addresses; but this is a special occasion. You will have a large audience, ^{I think} perhaps as many as 500. I want to put out special

Program^{and} Cards^{and} will need to know at once whether you will come. You will need to be at the Church at 3

I am encouraged then to write you, knowing your Christian character, your admiration of Lincoln^{and} your joy in young people. You will afford great pleasure^{and} do for a great favor.

Moreover, you will have been honored the night previous

"A BEAUTIFUL SPOT ON THE AMERICAN RHINE."

The United States Cavalry School and Academy is situated in the Hudson River Valley, among the foot-hills of the Catskill Mountains, with a fine view upon the Berkshire Mountains on the other side of the river, and cooled by the waters of the Hudson, it is justly considered one of the most beautiful spots in the valley of the "American Rhine."

"AMONG THE OAKS AND ELMS."

Surrounded by oak and elm groves, with an abundance of fresh running spring water and cool, healthful air, it is protected by the hills from the cold winds in winter and cooled during the hot summer months by mountain air.

"IN THE CATSKILL MOUNTAINS."

These mountains are justly celebrated throughout America for their healthy, invigorating air, and are only surpassed in healthfulness and beauty by the Alps of Switzerland.

WHERE WE ARE LOCATED:

The Academy is seven miles north of Kingston, or 103 miles from New York City, the center of transportation and civilization. Daily trains from Albany and from New York stop at the station within easy reach of the Academy.

HOW TO REACH US:

From New York City, both the Franklin and 42d Street Ferries connect with train at West Shore Depot. Take any West Shore train to Mount Marion station, from which a fine road leads to the Academy, only one half-mile distant. From Albany, Buffalo, Syracuse and Rochester take same road.

SURROUNDINGS AND ADVANTAGES:

In the midst of beautiful groves of elms, pines, oaks and firs, surrounded by hundreds of acres of Academy ground, the climate and the exercise alone will give to the cadets that invigorating health and physical development, that will make them endure hardship without fatigue in years to come. A healthy and strong body creates a clear and pure mind. The beautiful Plattkill stream runs through the Academy grounds, which during the winter affords an excellent spot for skating. This stream is very shallow, not more than a foot in depth, which therefore excludes any possibility of accident by drowning. The typical village of Saugerties is four miles distant.

BUILDINGS:

The handsome modern buildings, with complete practical equipments, are especially designed to add to the health, safety and comfort of the cadets. Natural light and perfect ventilation is had from all sides.

Approved sanitary plumbing throughout, perfect drainage. Heated by steam and furnaces. Lighted by electricity and gas. Provided with all up-to-date improvements. Maps, charts, models, books of reference and instruction, and everything to facilitate the work of instruction and training are liberally provided. Large and comfortable sleeping and study rooms, containing bed, bureau, book-case, desk, chairs, pictures, etc., are provided, with a view of making the cadet feel at home and in his own element.

OUR AIMS AND OBJECTS:

The United States Cavalry School and Academy, while a military school in all its essentials and an academy of instruction and training, it adds the special features of free movements and unrestricted out-door life, that gives this school the preference over the many old-style military institutes. It is a school that produces such brave, fearless men that have made Roosevelt's Rough Riders in the late Spanish-American War so famous. By skillfully combining military instruction, college training, and liberty of action, this school has solved the problem of a free and military institution. For two months in the summer time the cadet will lead a regular army life, camping out in the open, whenever permissible without imposing too many hardships and endangering the health.

He has to cook his own meals and to provide for himself under proper directions of officers and instructors. From time to time mounted details under command of officers will reconnoitre the surrounding country (the ground being the property of the Academy) and in all details lead a regular army life in camp or bivouack. During this time the cadets will be taught the elements of military reconnoitring, training, drilling, camp pitching, etc., that will make the cadet feel like combining military instruction with play. He will be taught to erect earth-works, military mining, bridge and pontoon construction, general reconnaissance, pitching and breaking tent, and all such other military tactics and engineering that are essential to the coming officer in military affairs. Just as boys of tender years have a preference to "playing soldier," in the same measure this Academy will infuse into the cadets a liking for military affairs and college instruction at the same time.

SPECIAL FEATURES:

In order to promote a cheerful and willing obedience of cadets to the necessary military orders and discipline, and at the same time promoting the health, endurance and physical development of cadets, occasionally hunting and scouting parties are arranged into the neighboring country and mountains, which will teach them field astronomy and points of the compass.

SPORTS:

The cadets are at liberty to form among themselves and select their own officers for baseball, football and other athletic sports. The Gymnasium of the Academy, with its equipments, aids the cadets in the athletic training by competent instructors.

DISCIPLINE AND FREEDOM OF ACTION COMBINED:

There are very few rules governing the conduct of the cadets. They are expected to be gentlemen at all times, in all places. Drilled and disciplined with a little more freedom as in old-style academies, they are given the freedom of action of a scouting and camping party, but are at the same time instructed in all the elements of a college education. The cadets reside in the quarters, a description of which is given under the heading of "Buildings," excepting during two months in the summer time, as heretofore stated. They must be present at the roll-calls and duties; they are not to go beyond the cadet grounds, excepting by special permission of the officers. Prompt obedience and strict regard for military duties, neatness in person and close attention to rules are fundamental requirements. Instructors, officers, and cadets form one family, rooming in the same building and sitting at the same tables. Intimate relations between officers and cadets are helpful in securing willing obedience and interesting the cadets in the life, work and recreation of the Academy. It is a great safeguard to young men and one of the chief reasons why the United States Cavalry School and Academy, in its well-conducted departments, is preferable to other military institutions.

CONTINUANCE OF INSTRUCTIONS IN CAMP:

During the above-mentioned two summer months in camp and military service the classical instruction and studies will be continued.

COURSE OF TRAINING:

Instruction in everything pertaining to military drills, rough-riding, sharp-shooting and military tactics, training and care of horses, care and preservation of saddle and appurtenances of the cavalryman, target practice with rifle and revolver, mounted and dismounted fencing, military gymnastics, practice for the trooper and the squadron, practical instruction in climbing mountains, both on foot and on horseback; practical instruction in crossing streams, theoretical and practical instruction in all branches of military signalling and reconnoitring, layout temporary field shelter, as well as pitching of permanent and temporary tents; practical instruction in military reconnaissance on foot and mounted, practical instruction in field telegraphy, on night signalling and the use of the heliograph, instruction in wireless telegraphy, practical instruction in ordnance, practical instruction in the protection and care of the wounded on the battle-field, particular instruction in first aid to the injured, special attention to and instruction in cavalry drill and regulations, including rough-riding tactics and packing and transportation of cavalry equipments, practical instructions in procuring and moving supplies for man and horse, practical instruction in scouting, privilege of military bicycle training, with special reference to the relative values and merits between horse and bicycle, special instruction of tactics and drills inaugurated and found necessary from time to time.

During the Winter months dismounted drills and instructions will be given under cover, and only at such times in the open when the health of the cadets will thereby not be endangered.

REGULAR CAVALRY EQUIPMENT:

Horse, forage, saddle, bridle, blanket, halter, nose-bag, lariat and pin, saddle-bags, bayonet and scabbard, currycomb and brush, spurs and straps, rifle and revolver, rifle ammunition, revolver ammunition, rubber poncho, shelter tent, canteen, haversack, mattress and pillow, mess, tentage, blankets and regular army rations.

All the above are provided for by the Academy for the use of the cadet. Cadets are required during the two months regular Army life in the Summer time to care for, and are instructed in the proper care and preservation of our regular cavalry equipments.

COURSES OF STUDY:

The regular courses of the school are especially designed to prepare the cadets for entrance into colleges, advanced technical schools, as well as preparing for business such cadets as do not intend to take a college course. Cadets desiring the strictly business education will receive the required instruction according to the wishes of their parents or guardians. It is therefore urged that the parents or guardians of the cadet, upon his entering the United States Cavalry School and Academy, select one of the regular courses and make their wishes known to the principal. Nothing will be left undone to comply with the wishes of the parents and the requirements of the cadet.

REPORTS:

Careful reports of deportment and progress in studies will be kept by the School and forwarded to the parents or guardian every two weeks, or as often as required.

Special reports of the health of the cadet will also be made and forwarded, thus keeping parents and guardians continually informed of what they most desire to know.

MAIL—PRIVACY:

Cadets are required to keep in constant communication with their parents or guardians, and all mail matter addressed to cadets should be addressed: "Care of United States Cavalry School and Academy, Mount Marion, N. Y."

It is expected, however, that cadets will refrain from unnecessary correspondence with parties not members of their immediate families. Such correspondence can only divert the mind of the cadet from his studies, his instructions, his drill and his training.

Dear Gen. Howard: We have at last effected a settlement with Mr. Kehr, on the following terms: To wit:

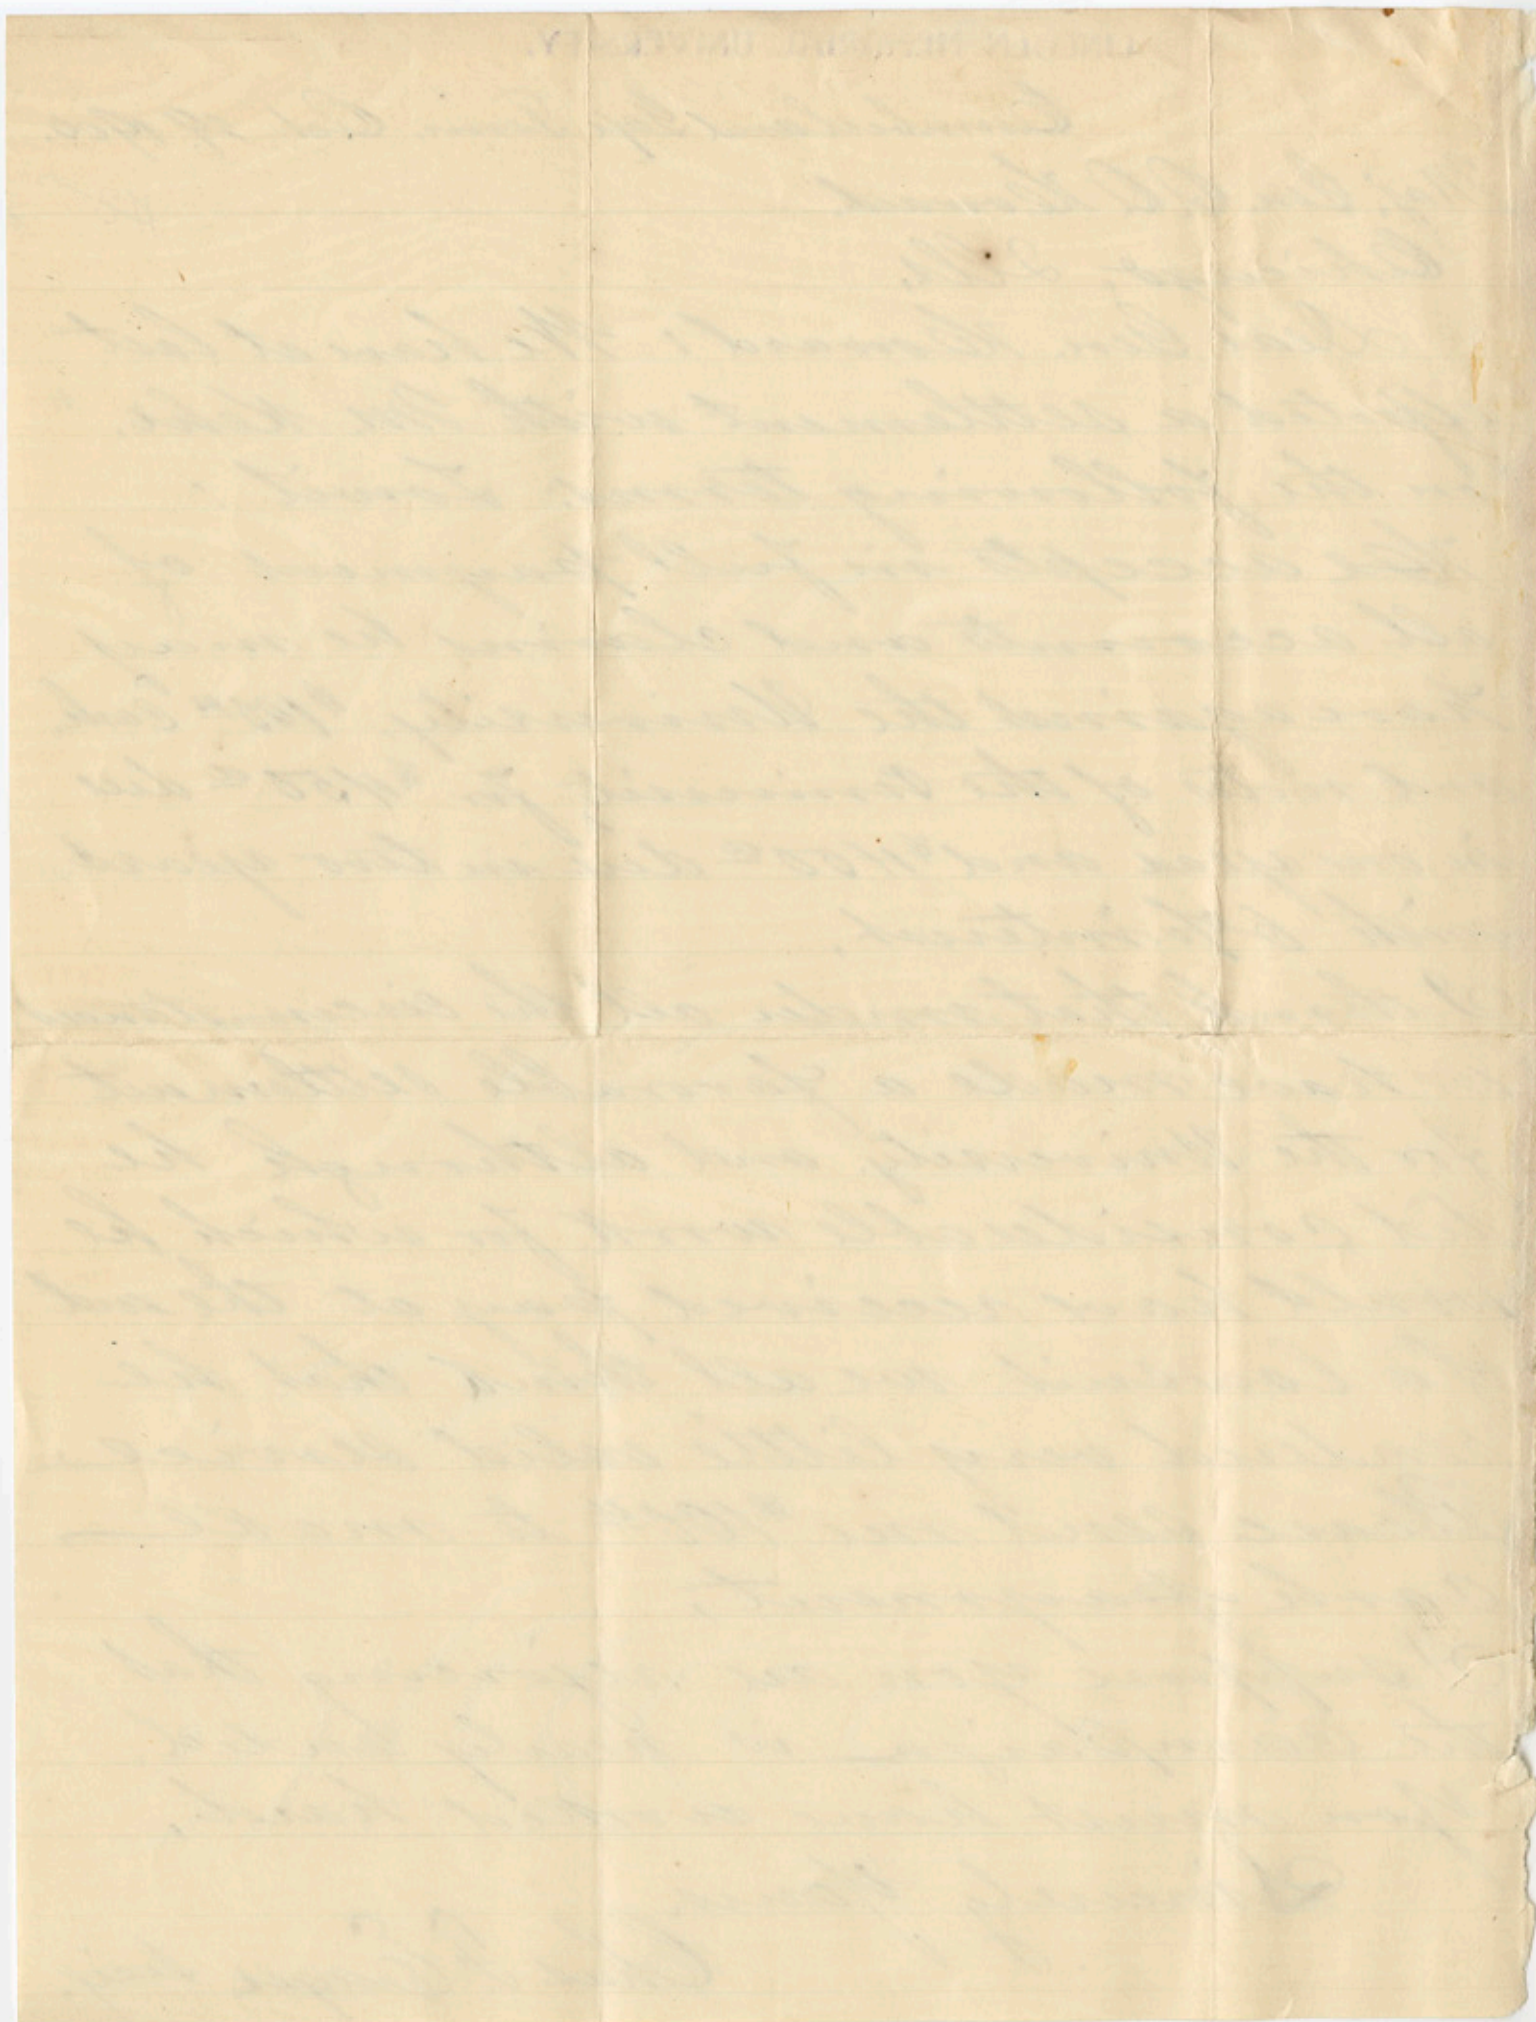

He accepts in full payment of all accounts and claims he may have against the University, $100⁰⁰ Cash, and notes of the University for $450⁰⁰ due in one year and $100⁰⁰ due in two years, with 6% interest.

I think that under all the circumstances we have made a favorable settlement for the University, and although he did considerable work for which he would have received pay at the end of a lawsuit, we all think that he rendered very little valid service. Please send me $100⁰⁰ to make cash payment.

I suppose you are rejoicing that the campaign is nearly ended. You must have worked hard.

Honored and Dear Brother

I just learned this evening that you suffered a even fall Sunday night at the depot. I sincerely hope you were not seriously hurt. Might I trouble you for just a line about it? On every hand we hear expressions of the good work you did for us. We shall never forget you.

Very Sincerely

Dear General,

Excuse my persistence. Last Saturday I wrote you, without definite address, to Burlington, Vt. I fear you may not have received my letter.

You are to be in N.Y. City, at the Waldorf-Astoria, Nov. 8. Will you stay over ^{and} speak to an audience of 500 at least, the next day, on "Lincoln, the Emancipator." Speak for 15 to 20 minutes, or longer, if you please. Personal reminiscences would be in order. You once spoke to my "Children's Hour," in uniform, ten years ago, in Bedford St. Church, this City. They were delighted. The audience will consist of ~~over~~ 300 Children. You may do great good.

Please telegraph that I may make early announcement.

Yours faithfully

3:30 - 4:30 o'clock.
Come at 3 o'clock.
