Gen. O. O. Howard:

Very dear sir:

I shall perhaps be difficult for you to recall Dr. Nichols of the Fort Sam Houston, one who delighted to have you at his table at his home. It will be more difficult to recall his sister who needed your personal times at the hospital and the pleasure assisting you with your cond... Those who were members of the Board of Visitors were such public-spirited men of genuine zeal. I love & think of Ross Army. Dr. Denton and the rest of Hamilton's Party lost theirelloworld and sincerely mourn. The last letter came devoid of end. Read dear Dr. Dickole land for all you wrote to me, of course, he wants me. The noblest works... of God—and mine and to another hand and to another hand I—so worded as did for my country the work she accomplished. More than 30 years have since built it—renewed it—and disciplined this her effort—over 2,000,000—

just enough to make her a model wonderful beacon light in history.
For she was born in Maine at Hampden near Bangor and the

My Dear General;—

Your welcome letter of the 28th is at hand. I had already written to the Principal at Harrow to keep right on if possible making the best school they could and I made one or two changes in the teachers, i.e. changing them around so as bring about the best possible results. I do not think that Mr. Bowman should be asked to modify the terms he has placed before those offending pupils. They knew he was on trial and they thought that they could get Mr. Weaver back if they could make a failure of the present administration. If we had a plenty of money I could put a man of more teaching experience in Harrow, but remember that under the hopes held out by the A.W.A. he and his wife entered the work for 20.00 each per month and she is an experienced of high culture, capable in the North of earning a splendid salary if she were single. Where we used to have superficial work in the higher grades we are now having thoroughness and all the advanced pupils appreciate the fact. Two of our young men from Grant-Lee, Misses Overton and Grayson, scholars you possibly may remember, always speak in glowing terms of this Christian minister and his wife. Her sister is giving her services at present, as teacher in the intermediate department.

I did not know till the other day that Mr. Weaver was a Baptist. This accounts in part for the attitude of the Baptists at the Gap. Denominationalism has never entered into my thought in this field. I have tried to find consecrated Christians and I think I have succeeded beyond what might have been expected. I should have recommended Mr. Weaver for Harrow this last year had there been money in sight, but both Mr. Myers and Mr. Nager would have opposed him. As it is it cost s no more to pay all the teachers there now than what we paid him alone. Now I am not proud of cheapness but you know that it was a necessity.

Later;—Yours of the 27 th is just at hand. I see that you have sent Mr. Fairchild to interview Mr. Nettleton et al. I think Mr. Nettleton has gone to California for his health. I know that he would gladly unify the interests there.
My Dear General:

Your welcome notice of the 88th 2nd. P.A. I had 8y.

Reference to your President to keep your place to 8 receipt of your letter, the 88th, I now submit to you, the 8 changes to the instructions.

I have enclosed here along with your letter for your information.

I feel that your help and guidance are necessary.

I am looking forward to your 8 aid.

if he were not so entangled with Dr. Lansing and Mr. Myers. He is, however, the man who has furnished the money and he is a good man who can be trusted and his wife is a woman of remarkable common sense.

I am not so anxious for us to control that property as I am to keep our givers from being confused. The man who sold to them Harrogate Inn told me that he never would have sold it had he not thought the L.M.U. was purchasing it. I do not doubt our ability to get the needed money to carry on this work when once things are entirely "cleaned up" as Sr. Pearsons would say. If I need to stay this way any length of time I will send for my slides and see what I can do to raise funds.

When once this arrow matter is settled and I think likely it is by this time, I can trust the teachers there to carry on the work till the Spring opens. We need machinery etc. for our Mechanical department and I can get it better in New England than elsewhere. Write me at Providence next for I fear it will be too cold for Mrs. Larry here. I am glad to say that I found my property all right here, just as we left it three years ago, not run down at all, no glass broken though next door to the public school. So different from the vandalism I have left behind.

I taught and preached here 13 years ago and it is very pleasant to meet with my "Boys" most of whom are leaders in business now. I shall hope to see you before many days when we can confer further.

Yours Fraternally.

Dear General

Thank you very much for your kindness. After I had written to you, I remembered that you had a nephew here and I found him. (What a magnificent man!) He very kindly lent me the booklet. Will you kindly accept the enclosed? And as soon as I possibly can, I will send something more substantial than the very best wishes and prayers for your work.

Always yours,

Dear [Name],

I trust you are well and I hope things are improving for you. I am writing to ask for your assistance. After the kind-hearted and generous donation of $500 that you made to the local charity, I have been reflecting on the impact that your generosity has had on the community. I wanted to express my gratitude for your kindness and to let you know that it is deeply appreciated.

I am currently facing some personal challenges and could use your help in finding a solution. If you have any spare time, I would be grateful if you could meet with me to discuss the situation. I believe your perspective and insights would be invaluable.

Thank you again for your generosity and support. I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Sir:

Hereewith find proof of your official record as it will appear in our forthcoming Army List. Please make any needed corrections in proof and return at once.

The Army List is compiled by Col. W. H. Powell U. S. A., and will contain the official history of every officer who has held a commission in the regular army since the foundation of the Government.

The book is now in press: the price is 2 dollars; and we will be pleased to have your name as a subscriber. You can pay for the book at your convenience at any time during the year.

Very respectfully,

L. R. Hamersly & Co.
Dear Sir:

Assessment Point: Your logic is very sound. It is clear that the best way to approach this problem is to consider all possible scenarios. Your solution is well thought out and thoroughly analyzed. I completely agree with your approach.

I would like to suggest that in the future, we should consider the potential repercussions of our decisions. This will help us to make more informed choices. Your point about the importance of thorough research is also valid. Thank you for your insights.

Yours sincerely,

Where the vacancy occurs in the office of Collector of Customs for the District of Vermont in 1901 and a new Collector is to be selected, I do not know of anybody familiar with the place. From Gen. S. G. Dick. His integrity and accuracy in accounts are well known. Count him as his friend in this appointment.
Dear Mr. Billingham:

I have just learned that there will be a vacancy in the office of Collector of Customs for the District of Vermont in 1901. Gen. S. P. Cock, who has held the office of Adjutant General, will be seriously fitted for the place, and I join him in a most cordial recommendation. With much esteem,

My beloved General:

Your very kind letter was forwarded to me by Mrs. Brooks.

How delighted I would be to have the honor of giving a poem at The Lincoln Memorial University Exercises, but I am under contract with the Central Lyceum Bureau and have been for years; they fill my time completely up from September to May except now and then an open date. At the time February 11 I am out West and could not get there. If later I find I am transferred to the East at that time, I can get off one date and come; but to come from the West would break a whole week. I will write you if

Gent. C.C. Howard,

N.Y. City, N.Y.,

My dear General and Christian Brother,—Mrs. Broad and I were delighted to receive your letter of Nov. 14th. Your warm fellowship is a constant joy to us. We were refreshed beyond measure by the delightful fellowship we had with you on the railway train as we were coming from Ft. Scott. We follow each step of your way, as we note it in the press, with constant interest. Our hearts were warm toward you and Bro. Clark on the 8th of Nov. when you had your conference with Bro. Clark. I can assure you, even if physically our ears did not burn.

I wish I knew of somebody to give you a rousing lift in the way of contributions for your noble enterprise,—the Lincoln Memorial University. We have read the pamphlet describing its object and work with heartiest interest. Indeed if I do find some ardent friend, who can help you "fight for your new Gettysburg," down there, I will promptly let you know. Just now we are caring as best we can for Kansas work in the beginnings of state self support; and are giving and working and praying for this large and hopeful work with all the devotion that we can give to it. We wish we had money to give to you ourselves, for your noble enterprise. We can and will give you our prayers and most cordial sympathy.

We shall always be delighted to have a line from you, wherever you are, and whether the letter be long or short. It makes us feel that you are close to us in Christian fellowship; and gives us information by which we may be guided in our prayers for you and your work for the Kingdom. With love from Mrs. Broad and myself. Sincerely yours,

My dear Sir:

The term of office of the present collector of customs for the District of Vermont expires in 1901. I shall be an applicant for the position, and will be much obliged if you will give me a letter at an early day, in my interest, addressed either to the President of the United States, Senator Redfield Proctor, or Senator William P. Dillingham.

I have already many friends who are strongly for me, and can assure you that any help you may render at this time will be of great value, and most truly appreciated.

Awaiting your early reply, believe me, with personal regards,

I hope you will pardon me for not replying to your letter earlier, but I have been so busy.

I was glad you are in NY this winter. You have got to that place in life where you want the comfort of home, that comfortable weather we are having. I fear it is hard to write to you or Mrs. D. - you miss her very much, I know. So I was sorry she could not stay longer with us, but she

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

20TH CENTURY DEPARTMENT
ROOMS 1524-26-28 ST. JAMES BUILDING
NEW YORK, December 1st, 1900.

General O. O. Howard,
c/o War Department,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—

The American National Red Cross propose holding a series of Watch Meetings in every town in the United States having a population of 1,000 and upwards. At these meetings will be read messages from the majority of the rulers of all countries that are a party to the International Red Cross Convention at Geneva.

It is our desire to include therewith similar messages from the most noted men and women of all lines of thought in America.

Your name and position is such as to make a message from you extremely desirable, and we respectfully request that you will favor us with such a one at your earliest convenience.

These messages, as a rule, contain the views of the sender upon the progress and value of the 19th Century, and their prophecies or forecasts as regards the 20th Century. It is our hope that the originals of these "Greetings" will be taken by the United States Government and forever exhibited and preserved in the Hall of the Library of Congress at Washington, D. C.

An engraved invitation is being prepared, one of which will be sent you, but to explain the matter and to expedite our request, that we may have all the "Greetings" collected together in this city on or before December 5th, we take the liberty of sending you this letter, which we hope will meet with your careful consideration, and that we will be favored with your early acquiescence to our request.

Very truly yours,

Frank D. Higbee
Director 20th Century Watch Meetings.

Dear Mr. O. Howard,

Member of the Committee

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

The American National Red Cross proposes holding a series of meetings in various towns in the United States, in order to make a committee of the members of the National Red Cross Committee of the United States.

At these meetings, there will be read messages from the members of the committee that are a part of the information about the Committee of Canada.

It is our pleasure to introduce these messages from the meeting.

Your share and thought on how to make a message that you will find most suitable for your service.

Our own sentiments are:

My dear General,

Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild and their daughter have just dined with us and I wrote to say I am expecting you here for Sunday, Dec. 23rd, having you as much earlier as possible so to be at the Mass. Club on Saturday, Dec. 22nd. You must stay a week in Boston where I am trying to arrange for some conferences, though I am very busy.

By the way I heard from Senator Kefauver. Can you see him again. Have the question settled I want the reply at earliest moment.

God bless you to say we all.

Every one sympathizes with you in the loss of your son — something useless to attempt adequate expression of feeling.

I think most every body wishes you success in the Lincoln Memorial plan; I do, but unfortunately, do not feel that I can increase the appropriation for the present at least, along charitable lines. I am doing a little something in some of the colored schools.

Dear Mr. Eager:

Enclosed please find a Thousand Dollars (1000.).

I shall send you the names if I ever get time and strength to make my report up to the end of November. My friends are poor but they have sending in sums little and big, for running expenses.

Mr. & Mrs. S. P. Avery were the only people who put a limitation on the contribution. I have just had two letters from Mr. Larry. My heart aches for him and his wife. It is dreadful that she should have a fever. No water should be drunk by them that has not been first boiled. He does right not to come away while she is ill.

Dear Dr. Pearson:

I notice that you have just made another of your generous contributions in Colorado. I rejoice at every one you make though my heart bleeds for fear I have somehow disappointed your expectations in our work at Cumberland Gap. The property is paid for and the facilities are fair, but we still lack the endowment that I hoped to secure long before this. I am doing just as you wanted me to in the line of education, paying special attention to every sort of industrial work. Mr. Kehr has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. I think now that we have a royal Board of most trustworthy men, the most of whom will give some little time and attention to the enterprise.

Please do not forget me even if you cannot get the time to pay us your promised visit during 1901.

Dear General,

Following out what you stated when I met you in N. Y. that you should devote your entire efforts to Lincoln Memorial University, I have completed arrangements with Dr. Reuben Thomas for you to appear in the Harvard Corp. Choral Bookline on Sunday Ev., Dec. 23rd. You will be with the Massachusetts Club on Saturday afternoon Dec. 22d (Father's Day). I shall try for a sailer conference at their Eel Convent, Malden. While you are here, hope for Athens' final answer before he went to Washington.
You will remember to give him a good long Christmas recess. Did you catch him this morning (it's)? Fairchild is as long as a bee.
