

Office of the Appraiser of Merchandise,
Port of Boston, Mass.,

Dec. 8. 1900

My dear General.

I wrote you at Ebbett House, Washington, hoping the letter would catch you. I also wrote Senator Lodge to say a word to Senator Dwyer in the way of assisting you with the letter.

To day (Sat) your Washington letter arrived. I hope mine reached you before you left Washington.

Of course the Christmas season may work against your cause in Boston but you say you need ready help for Lincoln Memorial University. So I have secured Harvard Church, Brookline for Sunday Ev. and shall advertise it thoughtfully. Dr. Reuben Thomas will preside.
This is the Church of Col. C. A. Hopkins (Moody's friend & trustee) also Jacob P. Water, one of your subscribers. In the mean time I shall try to get up some parlor conferences, if possible.

Mr. E. S. Converse, of Malden, has just written me a fine letter, full of interest in you & your cause, but regrets that he goes to Lakewood before you reach here. I am badly driven but am trying to help you & your cause. Mrs. B. is in Des Moines but you & I can run the home

If Bessie would not be lonely with Mrs. B. away, and you & I busy all day, I should be happy to have her come over with you. I am cordially yours

J. S. Marchard

P.S. Not it is settled that Dexter cannot come for "forgetful day", what do you think of Seth doer? Do you know him? P.

My dear General Howard:-

We are all so delighted with your very dear letter. Howard Whittier will keep it many a day as an inspiration to good and noble things. We have one son who is fitting for the ministry at the Chicago University. He has for a second time won a place on their annual debate. He is a good boy and he will make a good and useful man.

We have eight children - three boys and five girls. Our oldest girl has graduated from the collegiate course of my Alma Mater and taken one year at Drexel Institute of Philadelphia.

I guess you know that I was appointed one of the two colored paymasters with the rank of Major during the Spanish American war. My chief work, however, has been educational work.

Now I want to thank you for the opportunity to contribute something to the education of the Cumberland Gap white boys and girls for whom you are now laboring. The human race is one and its interests are one. To help one part is in a measure to help all. Here is my mite; may God bless it to the welfare of Lincoln Memorial University.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 5th inst. in reference to your present work for a Lincoln Memorial University in Tennessee duly received and contents considered. I have been somewhat familiar with your work for some time, and it certainly is a great and good one. I have been interested for several years in a like work in Hyden, Leslie County, Kentucky, where our church, Central Presbyterian of this city, has established a school, built a church and school-room, and have been reaching the same class of mountaineers, in a small way, as you are doing at Cumberland Gap, and with much success. I cannot aid you to the extent I should like, but I am a firm believer in the enterprise, and I enclose you my check for $100 to help pay any expenses. I judge from the tenor of your letter that some one has been representing me as a rich man. I am not; neither do I desire to be, only when such opportunities present themselves as your work calls for in the way of endowment; but I am thankful to have the opportunity of contributing to the extent of the enclosed, and hope you may receive all you need for the extension of the work which you so much desire.

My dear General Howard:-

Your inquiry to the Charity Organization Society was forwarded to us for investigation.

We beg leave to report that we visited 368 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, and found that no such family as Lind have ever lived there. A man, a wife, and little boy by the name of Lindig has recently lived there, but moved away December 5th, not staying for the whole length of time for which they had paid their rent. Mr. Lindig has been a druggist; is a slight pale man who may be suffering from incipient tuberculosis. The woman is, as I remember her, --I am not quite certain that my memory of her is correct--a medium sized woman with dark hair and eyes, rather sharp features, and a somewhat unpleasant voice. We describe this Mr. and Mrs. Lindig in this way because we are confident they have come to be professional beggars. We have offered him work, and told him that if he could do what we had offered him we would interest ourselves in trying to get for him the kind of work that he wanted to do, but he has absolutely refused to do anything which we could secure for him, and his wife is inclined to be somewhat bitter and to write begging letters.

We think that the Mrs. A. Lind who has applied to you may possibly be Mrs. Walter Lindig, but of course we are not sure.

Truly yours,

Samuel V. Bishop

Dear Sir:-

Mr. Jules V. Pratzner of this city has come to me, in the capacity of both legal counsel and friend, for advice concerning his domestic troubles. I regard the dissolution of the marriage relation as a distinct calamity with people of refined sensibilities, and to be resorted to only in extreme cases, when it is finally determined that the parties cannot live together happily. I do not want to be a party to bringing about such a calamity when it can possibly be avoided, and in this case I want to find a way to avoid it if possible. I infer from what Mr. Pratzner tells me that you are an intimate friend of the family and are acquainted with the situation. I therefore take the liberty to ask your opinion on this most delicate matter. The situation as outlined to me by Mr. Pratzner looks very unpromising. What, in your opinion, is the best thing to do in the premises? We cannot do these young people a greater service than to reinstate them in each other's affection and confidence. Can it be done?

Your kind letter came just as I was starting for Washington. Roosevelt says that he is dreadfully sorry but he must stay in Colorado till March 1st. to get needed rest and strength, so that he cannot preside for us on the eve of Lincoln's Birthday. The reason for the evening of the 11th is that the hall was engaged without recall, and that on the next evening they have a great dinner here which the most of our friends desire to attend. Everybody here says Monday evening is the best. I have invited gov. Odell to preside.

I saw the President and he expressed hearty approval of you and of our L. M. U. and said that he had set aside that day on his books but he was very much afraid that he could not get away. Secretary Hay expressed a warm interest in you and in the object, and I understood him to say that he would try to come, but it will need a good hearty letter from you to keep a mind so engrossed to the moving point. I did the same with the Secretary of War, Elihu Root. He took careful note of the occasion and hoped he might be able to accept our invitation. My son and daughter are sending out

I have your letter of the 4th, and I can sympathize fully with your endeavors to raise a special fund for the Memorial in which you are so deeply interested at Cumberland Gap. You can of course appreciate all my efforts to save all my spare change for the various missions in which both Mrs. Gilbert and myself have been so deeply interested for so many years in New York, and as I assured you before, if the time may ever come, as I pray our Dear Lord it may, so that we shall have more spare change than we know what to do with, it will afford us the greatest pleasure indeed to help you out in your grand good work.

With every wish for your success and prosperity, personal good health and blessing, I remain,

Give you an apology for this tardy acknowledgement of your good letter of a few days ago. I also beg to state that your second most highly esteemed letter has come to hand. I have been so pressed with engagements the last week or two, especially since I called our first Conference to consider the promotion of a Twentieth Century National Revival Campaign, that I have necessarily gotten behind in my correspondence. Your letters had to suffer for lack of acknowledgement like many others. First, permit me to thank you most cordially for your willingness to be counted with us in our great work for the Master. The National Central Committee was elected at yesterday's Conference, and, as a member, you are in good company. I will ask my Secretary to send you a list of the members of the Committee, so that you may see who your associates are. I will expect to talk with you about this matter further before long. In the meantime I take great pleasure in enclosing a check for $50. towards your splendid work at Cumberland Gap. I thank you for your kind reply, as it has given me an added point for my intended pamphlet. God does not require of us impossibilities, but you can speak to some, who may have the means, to further Christ's Kingdom on earth and he who knoweth all things, will not fail in giving his reward & blessing. The effort in which you are engaged is a noble & worthy one as every Comrade will know, whose heart is filled with a true patriotism as well as every other citizen, for it will eventually help to cement the North & South eliminate sectional feelings, and promote a love for the one & the other, which is the fulfilling of his command. Your suggestion of planting olives is a useless one, as Thomas Jefferson introduced it in Southern States & was a complete failure.

My dear General:

When I was in Washington and this army bill was pending, I had up with the Government the question of making General Fred D. Grant one of the Brigadier Generals provided for in the bill. The President and Secretary of War feel very kindly towards him, and I believe would give him the appointment if it were not for the pressure against it on the part of the officers of the regular army. They seem to think that he should not have the position because there are officers in the regular army that rank him. Now as you know, there is no person who is a greater friend of the regular army than I am, but this is a mistaken idea. Fred Grant's record in the War Department for his services in the Spanish War and in the Philippines is excellent. Otis says he has been as successful as any man there in handling the Filipinos themselves, and taking care of his district. You know in the civil war when an officer accomplished anything in the field when we were at war and was promoted the fact that someone ranked him before promotion was not taken into consideration, and no officer considered it a reflection upon him to have somebody promoted ahead of him who had accomplished something. I went to see Mrs. Grant, and she takes this matter very much to heart. You know the President really appointed General Grant, I suppose, upon my recommendation and urgency, and I said to him that he never would regret the appointment, and he is frank enough now to say that he has more than fulfilled his expectations.

What I want you to do is to sit down and write just as We also agreed upon the inscriptions to go upon the monument. On one side will be,- William Tecumseh Sherman. 1820-1891. Your favor of Nov. 1st was gladly received and I meant to have acknowledged the same before this but have been on the College rush line and must apologize for my tardiness. I thank you most heartily for your words and am sure they will do us much good. Was glad to note the reception you received at the Waldorf Astoria, one which was certainly deserved. Am glad our country does not forget the services of those who fought its battles and defended the glory of its flag. We shall never forget your inspiring visit to Redfield. Hope our orbits may intersect again; also that you and your work may be abundantly prosperous.

Wishing you the compliments of the season and thanking you for your kind interest in our behalf, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

I. P. Patch

My dear General:

Your favor of Nov. 1st was gladly received and I meant to have acknowledged the same before this but have been on the College rush line and must apologize for my tardiness. I thank you most heartily for your words and am sure they will do us much good. Was glad to note the reception you received at the Waldorf Astoria, one which was certainly deserved. As glad our country does not forget the services of those who fought its battles and defended the glory of its flag. We shall never forget your inspiring visit to Redfield. Hope our orbits may intersect again; also that you and your work may be abundant-ly prosperous.

Wishing you the compliments of the season and thanking you for your kind interest in our behalf, I am,

P.S. Although it is probably impossible, if at any time <sup>however</sup> or in any way, I am able to be of service to you, don't hesitate to give me the chance to repay your kindness.

Gen. O. O. Howard:

Dear Sir: -

Your kind letter of the 11th received and for which allows me to express my most sincere thanks.

You did much more than I expected, yes, more than I hoped for and I am truly thankful.

I may not succeed but at any rate it does no harm to try and I truly hope the venture may be successful.

in the army, as from that point, some times but evidently that is a mistake.

I am writing Col Mills tonight and will be glad to drop you a line as to the result when I learn it, taking it for granted you are a little interested in the matter.

I was glad to hear you speak of Mr. Perry as "one of the best friends you have".

He certainly has been that to me, always, and he and my father are the closest of friends.

As to my age, I am 16 years now, and will

I believe the last appointment was made last year. I was too young then to enter as now I am only 16-17 next May (22).
But, by the time a vacancy occurs I will be probably so that point is covered.

I would be jolly, I suppose, to write for one of the 10 or 20 appointments at large, as shown by your letter, but I shall endeavor to do every thing in my power to aid you to get it.

I thought that appointments were made from some of the better military academies directly as 2nd Lieutenant

My dear General Howard:-

Your favor of Dec. 4th and your kind messages to Mrs. Butterfield, recd. I am thinking over the subject of the industrial work in the way of a contribution and will try and give you something, not much, and get some one to help me.

What is the date of the 11th Corp dinner? I am not able to attend many dinners and have mislaid the invitation to this one.

Kindly advise me when and where it will take place.

Very truly yours,

D. Butterfield.
