

...Second Annual Loan and Sale Exhibit...

Original Drawings and Paintings

By the

Press Artists' League

Waldorf-Astoria, week of February Twenty-fifth, 1901.

Address all communications to No. 24 World Building.

New York, February 18, 1901.

Gen. O. O. Howard,
150 Nassau Street, New York.

Dear Sir:

At the request of a number of our Patrons, we have decided to postpone the holding of our Second Annual Exhibition until the week after Lent, that is, beginning April 8th.

In addition to the fact that so many of our subscribers either object to patronizing entertainments in the Lenten Season, or will be absent from the City during that period, we are also impelled to set the date forward because of the impossibility of getting the elaborate catalogue we have designed in readiness by February 25th.

We sincerely hope that the postponement will not discommode you, and beg to assure you that everybody will be the gainer thereby by reason of the fact that our collection of pictures (both those loaned and for sale) will be vastly larger and better by the new date than if the Exhibition were held now.

The cards of admission you now hold will be good for the new date, and if you have given any away to your friends, we should thank you very much to send us their names and addresses, so we may also notify them, of the postponement.

With the hope that we will be honored by the personal attendance of yourself and your friends, we beg to remain, with renewed thanks for your kindness.

Yours Faithfully,

PRESS ARTISTS' LEAGUE,

George M. Baxter
Treasurer.

P.S. We are glad to be able to add that the League has arranged for the use of the small ball room on the ground floor of the Waldorf—this year, thereby allowing us more space and far better facilities for the display of our pictures.

Major-Gen. Oliver Otis Howard,

30 W. 59th St., New York City.

My dear General:

Your very kind letter of February 15th duly received. My business manager, Mr. Wm. P. Van Wickle, in Washington, 1225 Pennsylvania Av., is on the Committee of Arrangements of the Inaugural Parade, Civic Grand Division, and I am just on the eve of writing him, asking if it is not too late to arrange to have you command the veterans on horseback in the procession this year. You know that when Scofield was appointed Lieutenant-General of the Army, by Cleveland, you ranked him and you should have had the appointment; you also ranked Gen. Miles, and all your friends feel that there is no Major-General in their estimation and that of the country-at-large who stands head and shoulders above all others as you do, for you are the only surviving Major General of the Civil War. Grant has gone, Sherman has gone, Sheridan has gone, Logan has gone, Slocum has gone, and the man who has always been held in the highest esteem and beloved by all is none other than your good self.

I am going to use my best endeavors to have you in Washington on that occasion, if not to command the veterans, to be on horseback in some prominent place in the procession, so that the tens of thousands will have another opportunity of seeing their ideal Christian Soldier.

If perchance, you are not in the procession, Mrs. Smith and myself will be overjoyed to have you and Mrs. Howard at my building, 1225 Pennsylvania Av., on that occasion.

Now, in regard to your piano, when it came I was exceedingly busy running my factories day and night. I put it in the varnish room, through which it takes some time to go; I now have it in the hands of the other workmen to restring and repin with new strings and pins, and make it as serviceable as possible.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 18-1901.

Major Gen. Oliver Otis Howard -2.

Of course there is not much volume to it, but as you say, it is an old heirloom and precious memories and associations cluster around it. I regret exceedingly that I could not have had it with you on your wedding anniversary.

I will make the charges as reasonable as possible.

I thank you for the tickets you sent me for Carnegie Hall, but my many engagements prevented Mrs. Smith and myself being there.

As soon as I hear from my manager in Washington, I will communicate with you.

Remember me kindly to Mrs. Howard. Why don't you bring Mrs. Howard over sometime and dine with us. You know my house is "liberty hall", 197 Washington Park, and no persons would be more heartily welcomed than my dear friend Oliver Otis Howard and the good lady that owns you. May joy and sunshine ever keep both of you company.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic D. Smith

Dear Will:

I send you the enclosed letter from Gen. Howard. Cannot you and the rest of the Committee arrange to have Gen. Howard put in some prominent place in the procession? I am sure if you or any of the gentlemen on the Committee, would suggest the matter to President McKinley, that he would be more than delighted to have Gen. Howard in some prominent place in the procession.

Will you kindly bring this matter before the Committee as soon as possible, as you know I want to get an equestrian photograph of Gen. Howard, who, as you know, is the only surviving Major-General of the Civil War. He ranked Gen. Scofield when he was appointed Lieutenant-General of the Army and also Gen. Miles, and I am sure the whole Committee would be delighted to see Major-General Oliver Otis Howard in some prominent position in the great Inaugural Procession on March fourth, and I do hope that when you present Gen. Howard's name to the Committee of which you are Assistant Marshall, it will receive immediate attention, and that Gen. Howard will be invited to take some prominent part in the Inaugural Procession.

Kindly let me know as soon as possible what is done, and hoping it will be favorable to Gen. Howard's going to Washington on that occasion, I am

My Dear General Howard:-

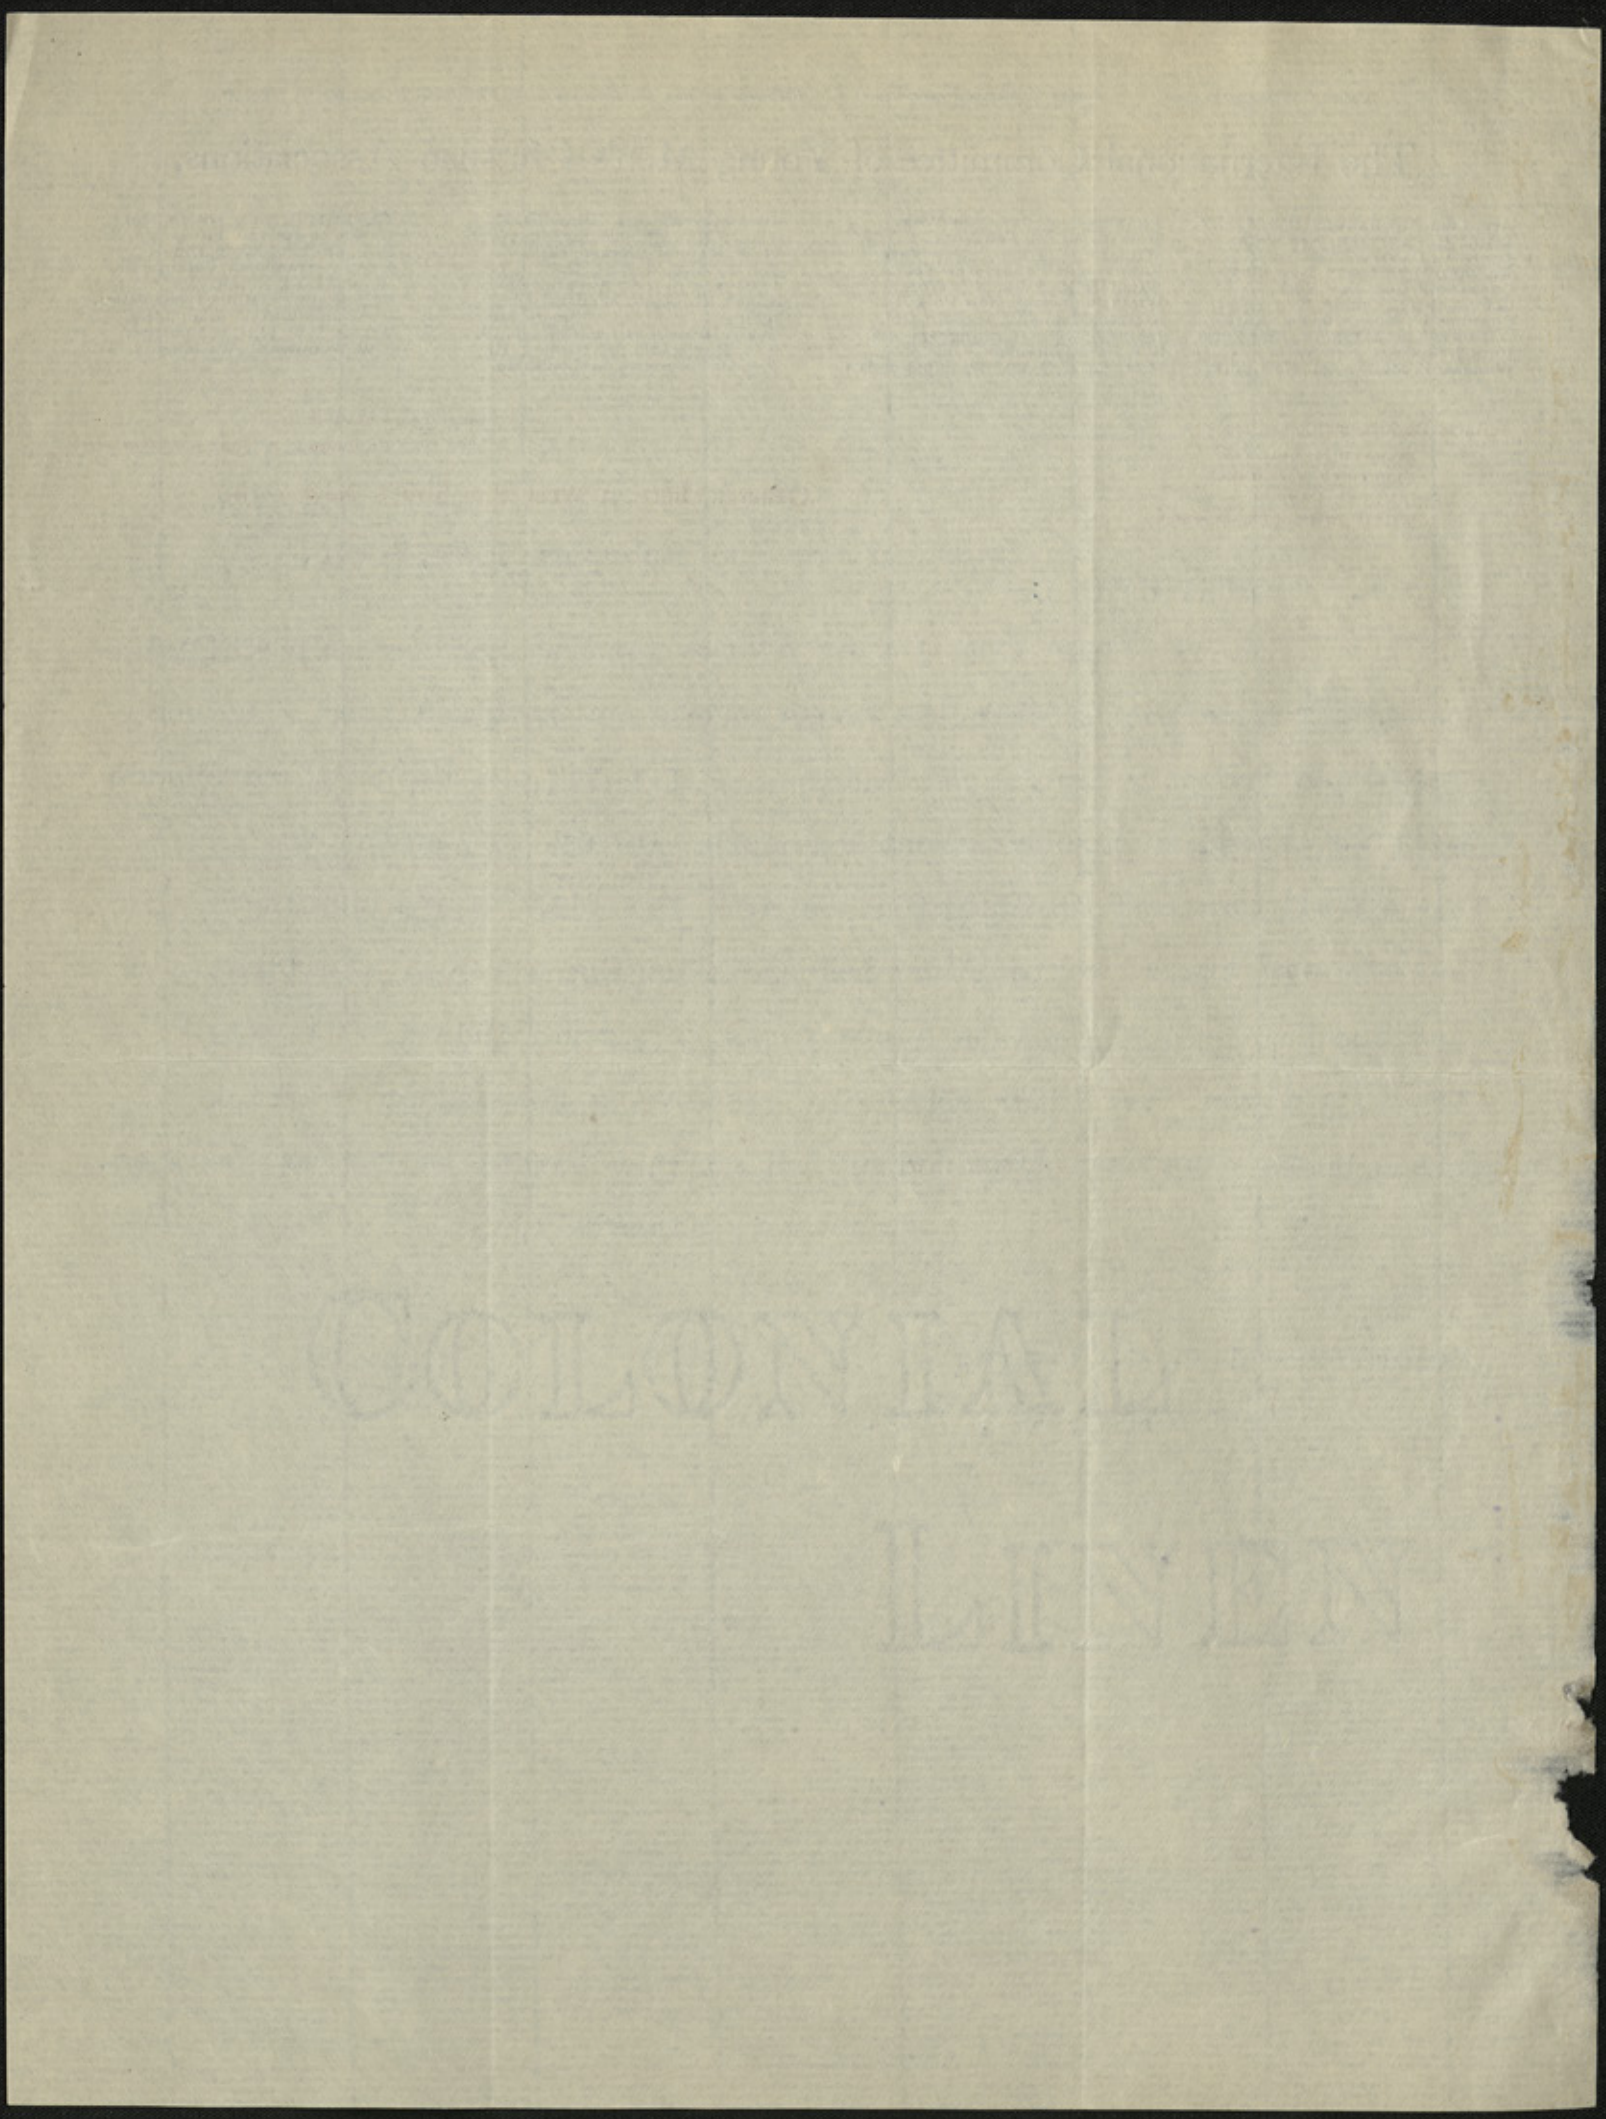

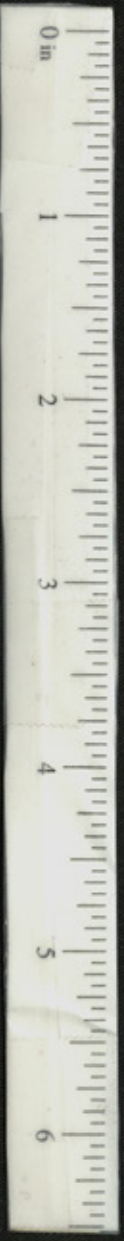

Your kind letter of the 14th at hand and carefully read. I have looked over the books which you sent and they will be forwarded promptly to the Philippines. I think the books of reference will be placed in the permanent soldiers library at Manila; the others will be sent to outlying posts. You see, we are sending continually these little libraries and changing them all the time, and the soldiers appreciate our efforts very much indeed. I will try to let you know later something concerning the manner in which these books have been disposed of and to what points as far as possible.

Yours very sincerely,

SOCIETY
OF THE
ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

CINCINNATI, O., February 19, 1901.

To the Members of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee:

The unveiling of the monument to General Logan will occur in Washington on April 9th next.

At the last meeting of the Society in Detroit, November 15th, 1900, a resolution was passed directing the Corresponding Secretary to send a communication to each member of the Society requesting them to attend the ceremonies. In accordance with that resolution this circular is issued.

The members of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee will rendezvous at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, on the morning of April 9th. The committee in charge of the ceremonies has arranged for seats upon the platform for the Society.

The President of the United States will preside and deliver the introductory address; to be followed by an oration by Senator Depew, and an address by Governor Yates of Illinois.

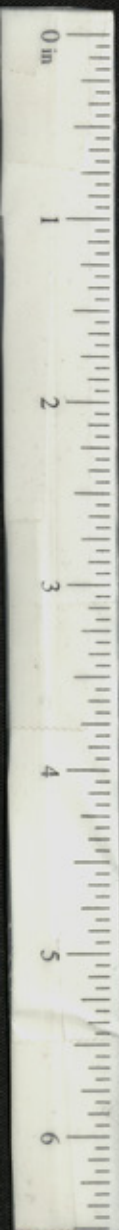

Members of the Society who will attend are requested to at once advise the Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE

The following is a report of the Commissioners of the Land Office, made at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held at the State Capitol, on the 10th day of April, 1880.

At the first meeting of the Board, held on the 10th day of April, 1880, a resolution was passed, directing the Commissioners to send a commission to each of the several counties, to ascertain the status of the land owned by the State, and to report thereon to the Board at its next meeting.

The members of the Board, at the meeting of the 10th day of April, 1880, also resolved, that the Commissioners should send a commission to each of the several counties, to ascertain the status of the land owned by the State, and to report thereon to the Board at its next meeting.

The Board, at its meeting of the 10th day of April, 1880, also resolved, that the Commissioners should send a commission to each of the several counties, to ascertain the status of the land owned by the State, and to report thereon to the Board at its next meeting.

The Board, at its meeting of the 10th day of April, 1880, also resolved, that the Commissioners should send a commission to each of the several counties, to ascertain the status of the land owned by the State, and to report thereon to the Board at its next meeting.
