New York, March 16, 1901.

Gen. O. O. Howard,

My dear General:-

The Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church is in the habit of holding each year a conference with the young men and women about to go out to the foreign field. These are newly appointed missionaries - raw recruits. They have never smelt the fire of battle. In these conferences we seek to have speakers who will give them advice and counsel which will serve them in good stead in the day of battle. Mr. Speer, my colleague, suggests that possibly you would be willing to give these young people a talk on the Soldier Idea as Related to the Missionary Army, - the general thought of obedience, duty, loyalty, discipline, with special emphasis on the last.

Our conference is held this year from June 12-19 in the morning, 9:30-12 or 12:30. Would it be possible for you to speak for us on one of the mornings? Our plan is to have some four addresses each morning of about a half an hour in length.

Very cordially yours,

A. M. Halsey

"TO THE INSPECTOR GENERAL, U. S. ARMY, WASHINGTON, D. C."

War Department,
INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Washington, March 16, 1901.

My dear General:

I would be very glad if you could kindly tell me something of the duties and assignment of Inspectors General and Acting Inspectors General, who served under you while in command of troops during the Civil War, - the general instructions under which they operated and the scope and character of their work. The Army Regulations of 1861-3, in addition to prescribing a form of inspection for troops, states among other things that

The hospital being at all times an object of particular interest, it will be critically and minutely inspected.

The Inspector, attended by the company officers, will examine the general arrangement of the interior of the quarters, the bunks, bedding, cooking and table utensils, and such other objects as may present themselves; and afterward the exterior.

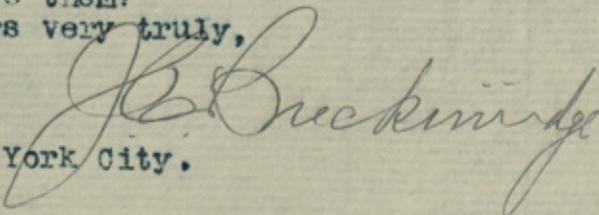

The Adjutant will exhibit to the Inspector the regimental books and papers, including those relating to the transactions of the Council of Administration. The company books and papers will also be exhibited, the whole together, generally at the Adjutant's office, in the presence of the officers not otherwise particularly engaged.

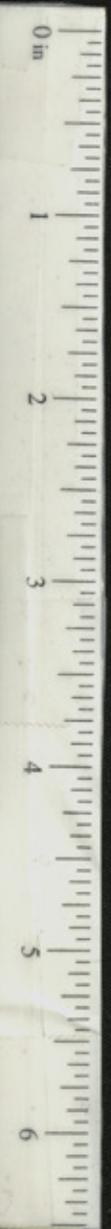

The Inspector will examine critically the books and accounts of the administrative and disbursing officers of the command, and the money and property in their keeping.

The present Congress has authorized 22 Generals and only 17 Inspectors General, as if it were expected some of the Generals may not individually exercise commands or need inspectors. Or was it the custom that some or most of the Brigade, Division, Corps or Army Commanders did not have officers assigned or detailed to inspection duty during our civil war anywhere, though it was usual in other armies to have them?

Yours very truly,

General O. O. Howard, U.S.A.,

Dear Gen. Howard.

Your letter and one from Miss Ellis came the same day, I was very sorry indeed to hear of your indisposition, and that you were suffering with so much pain. I wish I could be in New York and at home at the same time. When I get here it is almost impossible to get away, then I have not been very well. Have suffered with rheumatism for the past week, but am better now. I do not want to make any definite promise. but I shall try and leave here some time next week and will probably reach N.Y. the week after, I feel sure Helen Gould will help you when you see her,

A letter from Mr Eager yesterday states that Mr Myers was to leave the Gap last night for Mich. taking with him four students from Grand Lee. I doubt if he returns soon.

I hope you are well by this time and I hope to be with you soon.

Sincerely Yours
E. P. Fairchild

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard
New York City:

Dear Gen. Howard: Your kind letter of 15th at hand, enclosing a copy of your letter to Mr. Myers.

I too, cannot understand him nor his movements.

He has since his return made confusion everywhere; has repeatedly gone to Grant-Lee Hall, visited the young men in their rooms, persuaded some of the best of them to go to Mich. with him and has promised to take others. Says he will find places for twelve or fifteen. Everything was running smoothly at Grant-Lee before Dr. Larry went away and he returned. Now he has instilled a spirit of dissatisfaction among many General; I get terribly discouraged, sometimes.

He seems to have more schemes for schools than ever before. I enclose a clipping from our county paper, referring to another school he expects to establish between Fitzgerald and New Fitzgerald.

Now I think that all these schemes are for the purpose of securing names to his petition to you to have Dr. Larry and myself removed and himself reinstated in full charge of everything. Such a paper is being circulated, and some are signing it, a great many who never saw nor heard of Dr. Larry.
All sorts of false and malicious reports are being spread to injure him, <sup>(Larry)</sup> all of which I attribute to the same source.
And how strange, as you say, that he has become so bitter toward his best friends here; those who stood right by him and his wife so many years, and now apparently using every power to tear down what he has promoted.

When he returned, I met him, talked with him, told him of the bad reports that were being circulated about him; He admitted all the circumstances, Then I told him that

So long, that we had always had confidence in him, and that, if he was innocent of the charges against, it was his duty to leave nothing undone to clear ~~up the~~ himself, I further told him that I would do anything in my power to assist him, but he has done nothing in this direction, and today there exists a deep undercurrent of opinion among the better people here that he has not done right in making no effort to clear himself. As soon as the date of commencement is fixed I will let you know. I hope we will have a good one, and that long before then the clouds that now seem to hang over us, ~~at~~ will have passed away and all will be sunshine. I have tried in all my relations with the University to act for its best interests, but may have made some mistakes. I hope that our Father will guide and direct us in all things, and give us grace and strength to overcome every obstacle. Sincerely yours, Chas. F. Eager

Rev. A. A. Myers, the great educational promoter, who has done so much in that line for this section, was a visitor in Tazewell last week.

In an interview with the Rev. A. A. Myers, we learn that he has secured an option on a beautiful and valuable tract of 12 acres of land between Tazewell and the depot, on which he proposes to build a large Recitation Hall or School building which will be in striking distance of both towns, and directly on the pike. Let every one interested in the education of the children give him a helping hand, always remembering that an education is all that you can give to your child that he is bound to keep and that the illiterate do the manual labor.

PROFESSOR IN CHARGE

ADELPHI COLLEGE
BOROUGH OF BROOKLYN
NEW YORK

March 17, 1901.

My dear Gen. Howard,

We are very much delighted with your consent to come and speak to us on the morning of April 15th, "unless something unforeseen prevents." We trust nothing will prevent. Your audience will consist of youths of all ages, the college, and the preparatory boys and girls.

You may be sure of a hearing, by an audience of perhaps 800.

Adelphi is at the corner of St. James Place and Clifton Place, near Dr. McLeod's Church where I once met you at a Conference. I belong to the Central Congregational Church, formerly Dr. Behrends.

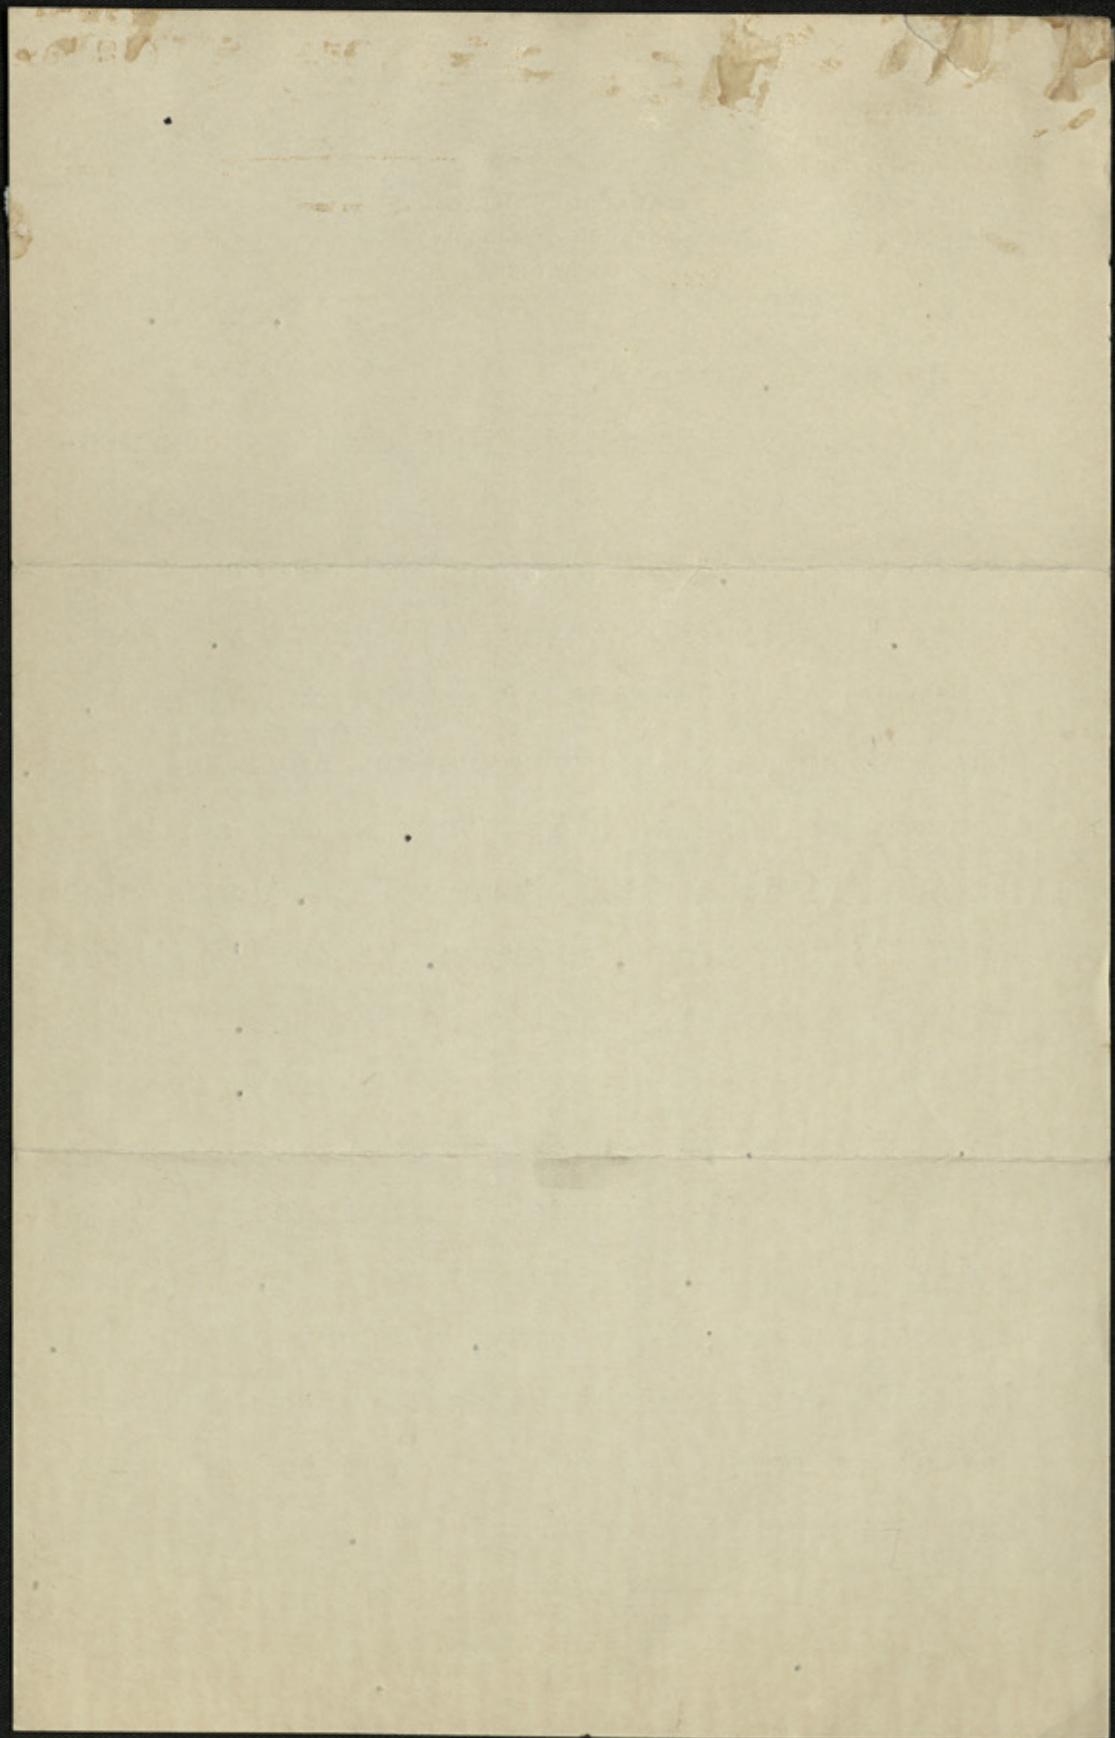

Do not give yourself uneasiness about getting over here. If the day is fair, I will have an escort; if stormy, a carriage for you. It would not be right to ask you to find your way at so early an hour to a remote and unknown quarter of our great City.

I will communicate with you as the day draws near.

Fraternally Yours,

W. C. Peckham.
