My dear General,

Recalling your inquiry after father. I mailed you today a copy of the Wash. Humane Society Report containing a good likeness of him which I know you will be glad to see. He was active and interested in every good work up to the very close of his life. I look back with great pleasure.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

We have about 1,000 prints as per sample enclosed, which we would be very glad to sell you or your publishers for the nominal price of $1.00.

Kindly let us hear from you at once, if you are interested, or we will have to sell them for old paper.

United States Senate,

WASHINGTON, D.C., 3/26/1901

My dear Senator:

I appreciate very much the kind thought expressed in your letter of recent date in your reference to my position in the inaugural parade, and I wish to assure you, that I will ever feel proud of that day because of my opportunity to come under you, the Christian character I have always honored.

I was unable to see the Senator before he left the city, but if you have not seen him in N.Y. I will do what I can to see him on his return. I am interested in your institution. I visited a number of like schools when in the South. I regret I have not the financial resources to manifest my interest.

May I ask you to write a few lines concerning the Association Cadets, the Col. that acted as your escort on the fourth, President Magruder, commanding officer. They pride themselves on being proficient in extended orderly drill, camping, target practice, and physical ability, not so much for fence close athletics.

My dear General Howard:

I enclose herewith a letter from Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett. She is National Superintendent of Florence Crittenton Missions, to which she is invaluable, and is one of the very best administrators that I ever knew. The work of those Missions is beyond praise and almost preeminently Christlike. She wants you to speak at the Anniversary Meeting, which will be held at Nos. 31 and 33 Bleecker Street, this city, on the 19th of April. I personally hope you will comply with her request, and in that case will be glad to post you in such a way that your task will be very easy.

Please write direct to Mrs. Barrett, at her Washington address,

With kindest regards to you and yours,

Yours very truly,

Wager Swayne

My dear Mr. Shaw: On the 15th I had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Howard in a most eloquent and spirited address on the thought of union and freedom that is in the hearts of men. I am, therefore, glad to know that you have strengthened that thought.

Charles N. Crittendon, President.

Charles J. Morton, Secretary.

Mrs. Kate W. Barrett, Gen'l Sup't.

Franklin B. Walters, Treasurer.

If April material is a great deal of food, I have thought that the best way to approach him would be through Bow, and to speak the liberty to invite you at this time to join if you could write and inform me if you could be with us on that date at 8 o'clock P.M.,

Thanking you in advance for your attention to this matter, I am,

Faithfully yours, L.P.M.
