Dear General Hornum

I am bitterly disappointed
the Supt of the Sine. states tonight that no train will reach Knoxville for two or three days. Your functions will all be concluded before I can get to Camb. Ga.

I am therefore to leave for New York by the 10-30
train tonight & I wish you this P.M. to that effect
I hope to see you soon

General O.O. Howard,

Dear Sir:

At the suggestion of a member of the Executive Committee, you are cordially invited to become a member of the General Committee of this Conference.

No serious demand upon your time is involved as the duties of the General Committee are:--To meet once a year and elect a President and Executive Committee. To extend sympathy and moral support. To contribute five dollars (or more) annually toward the expense of the Conference.

Members of the General Committee are invited to attend and vote at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

We trust you will permit us to add your name to the roll.

Respectfully,

Alexander M. Hadden

President.

THE NEW YORK CHRISTIAN COMMISSION

FOR LOCAL CHRISTIAN WORKS

It is the purpose of this Commission to promote the Christianization of the people of New York City and its vicinity, and to secure the most efficient and economical use of the funds raised for this purpose.

The Commission is composed of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and of a number of members-at-large, who are elected annually by the stockholders.

The Commission is organized into a number of departments, each of which is responsible for the execution of a particular branch of the Commission's work.

The departments are: the Department of Christian Education, the Department of Christian Social Work, the Department of Christian Literature, the Department of Christian Music, and the Department of Christian Art.

The Commission is also organized into a number of committees, each of which is responsible for the execution of a particular branch of the Commission's work.

The committees are: the Committee on Christian Education, the Committee on Christian Social Work, the Committee on Christian Literature, the Committee on Christian Music, and the Committee on Christian Art.

The Commission is also organized into a number of societies, each of which is responsible for the execution of a particular branch of the Commission's work.

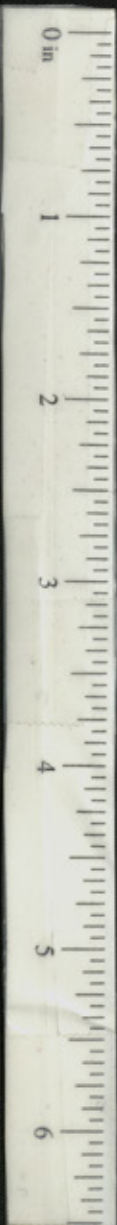

The societies are: the Society of Christian Education, the Society of Christian Social Work, the Society of Christian Literature, the Society of Christian Music, and the Society of Christian Art.

The Commission is also organized into a number of associations, each of which is responsible for the execution of a particular branch of the Commission's work.

The associations are: the Association of Christian Education, the Association of Christian Social Work, the Association of Christian Literature, the Association of Christian Music, and the Association of Christian Art.

The Commission is also organized into a number of unions, each of which is responsible for the execution of a particular branch of the Commission's work.

The unions are: the Union of Christian Education, the Union of Christian Social Work, the Union of Christian Literature, the Union of Christian Music, and the Union of Christian Art.

NEW YORK, May 22nd, 1901.

Maj-General O. HOWARD,
Burlington, Vt.

My dear General Howard:-

Your letter of May 11th was duly received.

We got home from Hot Springs two weeks ago to-day and I have not been feeling very well since I came back.

As I told you when I saw you last, I want to help you in your enterprise and will do so.

I leave the City next Wednesday and will not return before October or November next. Meanwhile, will you be in the City before I leave? If you will kindly let me know this, I will arrange to see you when you are here.

You know that I appreciate your expressions of sympathy, but I have been unable to do any writing for some time past and now you see, I am employing a stenographer to write that which I ought not to entrust to any other person to speak of for me. I can only again heartily thank you for your kindness.

Very truly yours,

Dear Father,:

Chancey keeps looking for something, but has taken on trial the Philadelphia agency of an excellent Typewriting Machine, meanwhile patience on his and our parts is needed.

Your telegram from the station at Stubenville, to Bessie, my care Newark, arrived Friday night too late to get word to Bessie, who has been in Paterson, N. J. for a week. She could not reach Jersey City by 7 o'clock in the morning. She came as expected, or as she had told you, at a little after 8 Saturday morning. She telephoned me this morning and I told her you probably went on to Burlington at once this (Saturday) morning. She goes to Governor's Island for three or four days and will probably write you to Burlington.

I will be glad to hear of the final results of this position you have made of Lincoln University matters.

I am seeking new business, but have nothing yet new to report concerning myself. We are all well at my house. With love to all,

Very affectionately,

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find for your information, but not return on the subject of the proposed agency of an excellent engineering firm, which has been on hand and out of the office in the last few days from the office of the firm, to which, however, I have not yet had time to get to the bottom of the matter, but I am sure that the firm is not only a first class engineering firm, but also a first class business firm.

As you are expected, on as the first of the little after

As you will see by the letterhead of this paper, I have been named as the Chairman of the Committee on Scope and Plan of the above mentioned Conference. I am now organizing this Committee and write to ask your counsel and cooperation as a member of my committee. The nature of the Conference and the elements that control it are sufficiently indicated by the title and the names of those composing the Executive Committee. Drs. J. Wilbur Chapman, Frank Mason North and H. Allen Tupper have already agreed to act as members of our Committee on Scope and Plan. I should be very grateful if I might have your acceptance also, and think I may promise you that such acceptance will involve no serious drain on your time. There will be few, if any, meetings of the Committee, the work being done by correspondence. I shall submit to you on receipt of your acceptance

My Dear General.

I have just finished a book - "Martin Elwood" - a tale of the Adirondacks, which is ready for publication. It is a sweet, touching tale of a mountain saint, including several beautiful characters: the story is religious & wholesome in its trend.

I have received several flattering criticisms & other prominent men are examining my manuscripts & have promised me their comments. among them Genl James Longstreet. I know you are a light &

reputable. Rev. Dr E. D. Ingraham of Albany & State Engineer ²¹⁷ Ward of Albany N. Y. a Superior man, & Rev. [^] Blake of New London can know me well. It would greatly please me & be helpful to me if you could examine my 3 chapters on ^{the} Gettysburg battle in which the hero of my story is a striking figure & give me your comments as to the correctness of what I have written about the battle. You will see that I have done you justice respecting your work & conduct on that field.
I have always believed that the high service which you there rendered to your country was never fully appreciated.

First Presbyterian Church,

Rev. J. VanDerveer Shurt, D. D., Pastor.

Carthage, N. Y., 190

If you had not placed the few troops upon Cemetery Hill, ^{and} when you did the great battle would have been lost. There are only about 15 pages or sheets. Type written of the battle making about 25 printed pages which you could read & soon read. I ~~take~~ the liberty of sending you a synopsis of my book which will give you a ~~idea~~ of it. If I have taken too much liberty - all this, please pardon me & return the manuscript. If however, not,
I shall be pleased to send you the Gettysburg chapters. Sincerely yours
J. V. Shurt

My Dear General:

I expected to see you when you were in the City the last time and leave you some copies of the portraits, but could not find out where you were stopping from Mrs. Hammond or Mrs. Clark. I mail three different styles with this, rolled carefully in a tube so they will get to you safely; by weighting them down for a night they 27

will lie flat.

I showed them to Mrs. Clark and she has shown them to a number of her friends to their great satisfaction. She remarked that while they were ideal yet they were fine likenesses, which is exactly the quality I strive for and feel that my work possesses.

My regular price for the large sizes is $5.00 for one print and $2.00 apiece for duplicates, but if you should want a few for some friends would be pleased to make them to you for $2.00 apiece the duplicate price. The Small size is $10.00 per doz.

Hoping you are in good health

Dear Sir:-

Your favor enclosing Gen. Hoawrd's dates, to hand, and carefully noted. I also note that you say that you will not go to any Chautauqua under $100.00 expenses. I have already booked him at Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 1, and at Shelbyville, Ill. Aug. 2, each $100.00, gross, and I think Galesburg will take July 31. These towns are very near together, and of course I feel sure the General will fill them, as the dates have been booked sometime, but I will accept no more under $100 and expenses after these.

I note what you say regarding the lecture courses for next winter, and we will book all the dates we can, and make them consecutive, and the jumps as easy as possible.

Kindly let me hear from you at once about these summer dates, dates and rates. Believe me,

Yours very truly,

Chas. L. Wagner.

Chicago, May 25/01.

Mr. H. S. Howard,
Burlington, Vt.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor enclosing Gen. Howard's dates, to hand, and carefully noted. I also note that you say that you will not go to any Chautauques under $100.00 expenses. I have already booked him at Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 1, and at Shelbyville, Ill., Aug. 2, each $100.00, gross, and I think Galesburg will take July 21. These towns are very near together, and of course I feel sure the General will fill them, as the dates have been booked sometime, but I will accept no more under $100 and expenses after these.

I note what you say regarding the lecture courses for next winter, and we will book all the dates we can, and make them consecutive, and the jumps as easy as possible.

Kindly let me hear from you at once about these summer
dates and rates. Believe me,
Yours very truly,
