Dear Sir,

I was very glad to hear from you. I hope you are well and that your health is improving. My son, John, is currently at West Point and seems to be doing well.

I am also pleased to hear of your recent visit to Harford. It seems that the success of your regiment against the Confederates is indeed commendable. I am proud of your service and the sacrifice you have made.

My daughter, Emily, has been working hard to support the war effort. She is always looking for ways to contribute and make a difference.

Please convey my regards to your family and friends. I hope to receive more news from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Dear General,

As soon as you make your plans for the Grand Army Encampment at Cleveland, will you kindly write me? Be assured that I am very much delighted to have you at our time. It is a resting place only 2 miles from Cleveland, connected by train and electric car. If you are "out of sight," it might not be convenient for you. Tell me what you want to do. Command me again. The weather is fine and I have an idea that you will not come to the encampment and we propose to meet together two or three days in advance. It is a very pleasant place to stay the day before and the day after. I am going elsewhere to New York city Oct. 2-3. I had a very pleasant visit to New York city.

Dear General:—

I am here in a little vacation, having brought my son John to Providence to be treated and to have a surgical operation performed which we think will relieve him. We shall return in a few days and wish we could somehow plan to meet you. I am planning to let or sell our home here. It has been unoccupied these last three years. I can hardly afford to hold it simply for vacation enjoyment. The matters relating to the new dormitory are progressing though not as fast as though there was a little less red tape and a little more common sense push. I trust that Dr. Avery will feel able to go onto the field in September. I have a postal from him which seems hopeful of recovery. This work requires a great reserve of nerve power. I have often said that no one knew how much you had given to it. No man to-day can do what you can to forward this enterprise. I think, however, that we need more faith in the guiding hand of God and less in men of wealth. Your little know how much I miss working with you. I think you will yet be the salvation of this great undertaking. I hate to see you burdened with it and you must not be but your influence, because of your faith is worth everything.

I shall leave here the last of next week. Mrs. Larry would be remembered to you and yours.

Fraternally Yours,

John Hale Larry.

My Dear General,

It affords me great pleasure to enclose herewith a copy of Resolutions passed at the last meeting of the Third Maine Regiment Association held at Fairfield, Aug 1st.

The resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote.

With best wishes for your continued good health I am, General

Your most obedient servant,

Wm. McDavid, Sec.
Whereas, a letter has been read by H. N. Fairbanks, the President of the 3rd Maine Regimental Association, from Major General Oliver Otis Howard, the first Colonel and Commander of the 3rd Maine Volunteers, giving "hearty greetings to all of the Comrades, and a strong wish for God's best blessing" to all of the survivors of our Regiment.

Resolved:
That the 3rd Maine Regimental Association in its 37th annual re-union now assembled at Fairfield, Maine, Aug. 14, 1901, return a hearty greeting to Major General Oliver Otis Howard and hope that all the blessings which our All Wise Father can bestow, may be his, to enjoy during the remainder of his life.

Resolved:
That it is the hope and desire that many, many seasons may come and go, ere a grateful people shall be called upon to mark the final resting place of Major General Oliver Otis Howard, our first Colonel.

Resolved:
That a copy of the foregoing be sent to Major General Oliver Otis Howard, at Burlington, Vermont.

Resolved:
That the Secretary cause the foregoing to be made a part of the record of this meeting.

Dear Friend:—

The other day I received a letter from Mrs. Clark, and I want to share a portion of it with you, and then make a request. Mrs. Clark wrote me as follows:

"I wonder if you would be willing to help in a matter that I have on my heart. It is just this. Dr. Clark is to have his fiftieth birthday the 12th of September. I have thought that perhaps he would like for this birthday a collection of letters about Christian Endeavor that might be written to him by a good many people whose opinion he would prize. I would like him to have something special for this birthday, and since there is nothing in the world that is quite so dear to him as this Christian Endeavor child, for whom he has spent his life, I have thought that some kind letters about the child would please him as much as anything he could have. I think there are eminent men in this and in other countries who would be willing to write such letters to him."

Mrs. Clark’s plan, I am sure, will meet your approval, and may I ask you to send me, at your very earliest convenience, such a letter. And, in order that the letters may be bound together in one volume, may I ask you to use a sheet of paper which shall measure 8 1/2 x 11, and that the left-hand margin be at least one and one-half inches.

With kind regards and hearty thanks in advance for your interest and kindness, I am

Dear Sir,

I have your letter of Aug. 23rd, with cheque for $500 from Mr. John W. Clark, 547 Court St., Boston. Cheque bears date of Aug. 10th, the eightieth anniversary of his birth. You must have become aware of the good reason for the handing over of it.

You ought to be a thankful man as well as we for you are the almsman, you enable others to get pleasure & satisfaction through providing them an opportunity to dispense of their abundance where the need will demand. I have a good letter from Mr. Jones on his return from the Gap area. He and his four children had been for a week or more.

With unwell respect,

Darius N. James.
Dear Mr. Lincoln,

The weather seems to be depending on you. Is your former home still here? The trees. I've heard that you are coming. You may not be able under the circumstances. I'll see how it goes.

I'm sure you can mention the fact of my departure and your own by the press. The papers are passing their position. I was formerly a member of Cleveland, and know there. Today, I'm in the city. They didn't expect you! You can do a great deal of good. I think it's a benefit for the nation. How are you doing? The Mayor of Cleveland, Mr. T. Johnson, is now in the city, meaning it is probably as possible.

I must speak in Plymouth Church next night. I've heard a great deal of good. I think it's a benefit. The people are lovely. They have more than ever.

I had a very nice visit from the President's House. I'll see you at the White House. Perhaps some friends. I trust you'll be there.
I am sending this letter to friends of yours with your introduction to Mr. Alden. Along comes your word of resolution together in accordance and you and I give them a talk on patriotism. Nothing to meet you soon. I am

Dear Friend:

As the season is now rapidly approaching for a renewal of our efforts for the further promotion of a national revival of evangelical Christianity through existing organizations and agencies, your Chairman desires to secure from each of the members of the Committee suggestions as to how the great work in hand may most effectively be carried on; and to that end your kindly suggestions are most earnestly invited.

The work of the Committee, inaugurated at the beginning of the present year, has been thus far greatly blessed of God. The evangelical churches and ministers in many parts of North America have been brought to a clearer and deeper consciousness of their evangelistic responsibilities to the lost, with resulting awakenings in many communities. The Christian churches of our land certainly seem to be experiencing a new birth of the evangelistic spirit, and so generally evident is this fact that many Christians believe it represents nothing less than the beginning of an evangelistic reformation of the entire Church of Christ. We have reason to believe that our Committee has accomplished no small part of the work of promoting this present movement. A preliminary inquiry, made of some of the members of our Committee, has led to the suggestion of a call to a simultaneous week of prayer, to be followed by definitely planned evangelistic campaigns, in individual churches and in union services. It has also been suggested that such a call be issued in the near future, looking to the inauguration of the work proposed for this season not later than the coming month of November.

In order that no time might be lost an extensive correspondence has been carried on for several months with many leading Christian ministers throughout the United States with a view to the completion of a mailing list that will enable the Committee to come in touch with the ministers in every city and town above 2000 inhabitants. At no time since its organization, has a deeper interest in the present and prospective work of the Committee been shown by Christian ministers, Christian people and the Christian press than now, and the unparalleled opportunity that presents itself to us for advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom calls for our individual and united consideration of the subject of this communication.

Trusting that you may see your way clear to make early response to our request for suggestions as to how we may best further advance this great work, I beg to remain,

Yours in His Name,

Mr. Phillips Hall
I am writing to express my concern about the recent developments in our company. The decision to merge with another company is a significant change that will affect the way we operate and the future of our department.

I would like to emphasize the importance of maintaining our unique strengths and culture. Our company has a long history of innovation and leadership in the industry, and it is crucial that we continue to build on these strengths.

Furthermore, I have concerns about the impact of the merger on our employees. The changes may lead to job cuts and restructuring, which could have a significant impact on our team. It is important that we communicate openly and honestly with our employees to ensure their morale and well-being.

I believe that it is important for us to work together to find solutions that will benefit our company and our employees. I urge you to consider the perspectives of all our stakeholders and to make decisions that are in the best interest of our company.

Thank you for considering my concerns.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Lord Commander,

I am glad to write to you from my study, and to convey my regards and thanks for your visit. I hope you enjoyed your stay and found it interesting.

I do not wish to be unnecessarily long, but I wish to say that your presence would have been more welcomed than any other commander.

Mr. Smith is a 15 minute walk with the old bridge, by Monday night. My landlord, Mr. Smith, is a wonderful man. Also, there are several excellent restaurants in the area. Would you like to go out for dinner?

The Colonel's troops will march on your command, and Thursday Ohio will have its usual great celebration. I hope you will enjoy it.

I absolutely need you. My house shall be your home. Write soon. I look forward to your response.

Dear Sir:—In the course of some correspondence recently had with Fletcher Howard of Des Moines Iowa he refers to your having traced back the genealogy of your branch of the Howard family to England. Merely to satisfy my own curiosity I have done a little work along the same line but have never had much time or opportunity to give to it. I should very much like to have access to your lists if you have them in shape and have no objection. Should it be necessary to have any copying done I will gladly pay any cost that may attach to same. My ancestors on the Howard side came from England prior to the war of the revolution settling in Mass. I have no idea whether or not they were the same as your own but should be pleased to know that such was the case.

Very truly yours,

Dear Rev. Howard:

The book you sent is most interesting and tells me just what I wanted to know. There is one point I do not get. You say: "Your father was from the 125th Art. Superintendent of defenses." See by the book that by an order of Apr. 15th 1867 he was appointed "Agnus in charge" over what was then called a "District" with 10 counties; there is no mention of the Deacon superintendency, nor in his letter do I find any that he speaks of his actual inspections often as part of his duties.

Also find by his letters that he began work at Hampton, as he says as Beaureve Superintendent over 10 counties. March, 1866, a year earlier than your book gives. His description of his work at first seems to point to his being a sort of Superintendent, but he writes officially from office "Beaureve Superintendent."

This was a great point but I have not what
