My dear General:

Received your letter this morning, and was delighted to hear of your safe arrival in Portland.

It made me very happy to learn that you were pleased with my little gift.

I hope the Oregon weather will be in its best behavior, while you are there, for it is my wish that the sun may always shine on my dear General.

It made us all feel sad, that you were going so far away from here.

We hope that you will arrive safely in your Vermont home, and if it is not asking too much, would love to hear from you then.

We will always remember the pleasant hours we spent with you, and hope some day to see you again.

Say to Mrs. Howard, that it pleased me greatly, that she liked the flowers.

Again, wishing you both a safe journey home.

Fremam

Most Lovingly
Your friend.

Mr. W. S. Howard, Private Secretary
Burlington, Vt.

My dear Sir:

Yours of Nov. 14. at hand and note what you say. We do not wish to use the speaker as a money-making medium so much as to stimulate for good and help the local work. I think that with a lecture Sat. evening and an address Sunday Feb. 28th we can accomplish that unless the General consents to speak at one of the local churches. It is quite a little undertaking and trust you will co-operate by reducing the $120. to $75. with the two labor mentioned addresses and expenses which, of course will be paid.

I hope you will let me know by return mail my plans are all made as to the Sat. lecture with little reception following. We have no hall of our own and must provide for a meeting place.

Yours truly

Georgia State Industrial College,
R. R. Wright, A. M., President.

Dictated.
In reply to yours of College, Ga., Nov. 16th, 1901.

General O. C. Howard,
150 Nassau St.,
New York City.

My dear General:-
I have no doubt that you are already overwhelmed with requests for assistance with regard to various schools, but I want to, if possible, get a chance to represent the work of the Georgia State Industrial College in some of the prominent churches in New York City. You know me and know that I have been striving ever since childhood to do what I could for the advancement of my race. As you will see from our catalogue we have made some advancement. We have put up a new dormitory for boys. We need a similar one for girls. We have no building in which to hold our Y. M. C. A. We have no library. I thought that I would write you to see if there is some one of your acquaintance who would feel like taking an interest in this Georgia enterprise. Pardon this letter.

Kindly let me hear from you.

Very respectfully yours,

R. R. Wright.

[Handwritten note: "Completed Nov. 22, 1901"]
My dear General:

I have no doubt that you are fully aware of the importance of maintaining a strong military presence. I wish to take this opportunity to express my support for the efforts of the National Guard in New York City.

I believe our country is facing a significant challenge, and we must be prepared to meet it. I am convinced that the National Guard is a valuable asset in times of crisis.

I am writing to invite you to speak at the annual dinner of the National Guard in New York City. Your presence would be a great honor and a testament to our nation's commitment to its security.

Thank you for your continued service to our country.

Sincerely,

My Dear General,

I am in receipt of the returned letter of endorsement. I want to thank you most sincerely. Not knowing just how to get it into the hands of the President—I concluded to send it to his private Secretary which I have this day done.

To send it to Herrmann the Commissioner of the U.S. would result in its transmission to the Sec'y Interior where it would no doubt be held up for reasons which you fully explained to me. Hence my action.

Nor do I know that this plan will result in personally reaching the President, for I do not know what the practice is in such correspondence.

If you could find it in your heart to write a personal letter to President Roosevelt urging my appointment as Register and Commissioner at Burns, Oregon, contingent of course, upon the disagreement of the Oregon Delegation as to whom they desire, I am sure it would help me immensely.

All that is necessary is for you to tell the President that you have known me many years and that I am competent and worthy.

Very truly,

My dear General:

The enclosed came this morning, and I forward it to you at Burlington, for I suppose you are going there. I hope that you will have a pleasant journey and no mishaps. Please give our love to Bessie and Harry. It has been so pleasant for us to have you here even for so short a time, to see you both face to face, and hear your voices and take you by the hands. Do not forget to keep your promise that I shall have a large picture of you, one in uniform, full uniform, that I may frame and hang in my "den" where we can see it every day. I have only three there now, but then, the only recent picture is the one I cut out of Harper's weekly these or four years ago.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

THE BANKERS' AND BROKERS' CONFIDENTIAL SERVICE, the usefulness of which should appeal particularly to BANKS and BANKERS, to BOND, STOCK and REAL ESTATE BROKERS, to TRUST, SAFE DEPOSIT and INSURANCE COMPANIES, desirous of increasing business, through medium of personal solicitation or by circularizing, is a thoroughly systematized and accurate monthly compilation of Probate and Surrogate Court Records of important localities in the East, including the Cities of New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia and the Counties in which situated.

The Service reports an estate from the offering for, or probating of, a will up to and including “Final Accounting,” thus giving AMOUNTS OF ESTATES, (real and personal) NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF HEIRS, LEGATEES, ADMINISTRATORS, EXECUTORS, TRUSTEES, AND ATTORNEYS, with AMOUNTS OF INHERITANCE, or FIDUCIARY FUNDS CONTROLLED THEREUNDER, and from inventories and accountings filed, a schedule showing, in detail, all STOCKS, BONDS, CASH, REAL ESTATE, etc., found in estates, whether held by Administrators, Executors or Trustees, or divided among Heirs and Legatees.

Specimen Report for examination and terms for Service furnished upon application.

My dear General Howard,

I f you think it all right to do so, I would be glad if you would send a line to Mr. How telling him that I would relieve him faithfully of the appointment. I am trying to get some appointment there and I am sure a line from you to Mr. How will help me.

Hoping this will find you and yours very well.

Sincerely yours,

Edward S. Safford.
My Dear General Howard:

I write to ask if you will not favor me again with an article for my use, on some current topic of general interest, in the line of your special study or research. I make one or two suggestions below, but you may have something better. For an article of not less than fifteen hundred words I will pay $25.

Hoping that this proposition will meet your favor, I remain,

Yours truly,

Gen. O. O. Howard,
Dear General:

Your favor from Portland duly received, but as you were just taking leave, I did not answer your letter at once. Instead of writing to you direct to Portland, I wrote to the Chinese friends there. I received a very interesting long letter from them. They were rejoiced at meeting you.

The Chinese Six Companies here have voted $3000

Three hundred dollars for you. As soon as you write, tell me how to check to you. I shall direct the Co to Do re. The title of the Six Companies is, The Consolidated Benevolent Ass. 738 Commercial St. This does not include what we give you. If you can I wish you would please let me know how much you can carry this matter through for.

You might confer with the Chinese minister at Washington or call on him if convenient as you are helping the Chinese.

Hope this will meet you with health and prosperity.

Best regards to Mrs. Howard.

Most respectfully yours,

General O. C. Howard, U. S. A., Retired,

My Dear General:

Paul Showaway, Chief of the Cayuses, is here, and requests me to write you this letter asking you to do him a favor. He has a very pleasant recollection of meeting you at Walla Walla where he says he went with his father to attend the council you had with the Nez Percés there early in '77.

Paul asks that you will kindly interest yourself in assisting his tribe toward getting a pro rata distribution of the funds now in the U. S. treasury to the credit of the three tribes, --the Cayuses, Walla Wallas and Unatillas. When Paul and Peo called on the treasurer a year ago last April, the fund amounted to nearly $100,000. It was accumulated from sales of part of the reservation, and the Indians think it is very unjust to withhold it from them. Paul asks that you kindly take the matter up with the treasurer and see if a distribution of the cash cannot be arranged. Paul has great faith in you, and says he considers you one of the kindest and most honest men he ever met, and says that his father entertained the same opinion of you.
All your old friends here hope that you had a pleasant trip across the continent, and hope to see you again before long. And if you meet W. D. Howells, the novelist, some day, General, kindly tell him something of the wonderful scenery of the Pacific Northwest, as you have seen it. Many of his readers out here would be glad to have him make a trip this way, and feel that it would do him good and lend new color to his work.

Very Truly Yours,

J. W. Redington.
Will you kindly have this matter looked up and let me know, sending this letter to me with your reply such as you may deem it proper to make, to the Ebbitt House, Washington, D. C., where I shall be for the next week.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I have received your letter of the 22nd instant, and I wish to thank you for it.

There are many people in the United States who share your views. I am glad that you are willing to what you can to assist my poor countrymen.

I should be glad to have a talk with you, and if you are coming to Washington in the near future, and will do me the honor of calling upon me at the Legation, I shall be happy to see you.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

In the forthcoming issue of Leslie's Weekly we propose to give the judgment of the most notable men and women of the day, regarding the best books of the year 1901. Would you kindly give us within the scope of two hundred words, your opinion as to the best and most notable new books of the present year, which you may have read, and especially of those within your own line of thought and work? We will be glad to send you Leslie's Weekly for one year, in return for your favor, or, if you prefer, will allow you the price of that publication, namely four dollars.

Yours answer should be received by December first.

Yours very truly,

J. A. Steiner.

General O.O. Howard

Dear Sir,

Complying with your request of November 26th, 1907, I have mailed to the address given in your letter the two handkerchiefs we received a letter from Dong Hong after you left. Since you were here, the newspaper in this city have been working up a strong sentiment against the Chinese. They say that the two sailors and the two congressmen of this state will urge the reenacting of the exclusion law, and just now, the labor unions are trying to prevent the restaurants and hotels from employing Chinese cooks, and all the foreign laborers are treated alike by the U. S. immigration laws; so we would have no cause to complain. But it does seem hard that we are the exception!

Please give my best regards to Mrs. Howard and family.

Yours respectfully,

I have occasion, as Treasurer of the Central Congregational Church of this city, to remit funds to the Lincoln Memorial University at Cumberland Gap, at intervals, and as Mr Myers has been here so many times I have usually directed correspondence to him. I am informed that he is no longer connected with the University and beg to ask if this is so and, if you are inclined, to indicate the reasons for his retirement.

NEW YORK,

Nov. 24th, 1901

My dear General Howard:

I thank you so much for your good letter of yesterday. I, too, have just made a trip to Oregon and Idaho. I went over several of our old trails and past much to remind me of you. Incidentally I inspected a Copper Mine situated on the Lowes Snake River. I send you a copy of my Report. The people of Oregon and Idaho gave me a very warm... reception and I am planning another early stop in that direction.

It occurred to me that I might be useful in some capacity in the gift by Mr. Los, and if so it would help to keep the busy in New York. Accordingly I wrote Mr. Los a straightforward letter telling him to the move and referring to you and Governor Odell. I have not heard from it. Perhaps a line from you to Mr. Los telling him what you think might bring forth results.

Are you coming to New York soon? Hoping this will find you and family all very well.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

My Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your note of October 2nd. I owe you an apology for failure to answer sooner, but I was taken sick about the time I received your note, and Mrs Perham's long sickness are my excuses for my neglect.

I remember very well the receipt of the manuscript and papers to which you refer. As I now remember it, I returned to you some printed matter which you had sent me and retained the manuscript in my hands for some months.

I have a very distinct recollection that some time late last winter, possibly early last Spring I returned the manuscript to which you refer to General O.O. Howard, New York City, giving the street and office number to which you referred. If the manuscript was not lost in the mails it must have been received at General Howard's New York Office. I remember that I put letter postage on the envelope containing the manuscript.

I regret very much that after you had put yourself to so much trouble to accommodate me, I shall have caused you so much annoyance. I trust however that you will find the Manuscript in the New York Office when you are again there.

Will you kindly let me know if you find the Manuscript.
