POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Gen. Briscoe 4th Ass. P. M. Gen.
At first he acted like a Sphinx: but afterwards shrewd enough to answer my questions and on the whole gave me very definite information.
I asked about Fort Ethan Allen.
He replied: "There is no office there.
What is necessary for me to secure what sort? 'Congressional', 'For-

My dear Harry:

Please accept my warmest thanks for your kind and explicit letter of December eleventh.
After reading it, I felt that I had the situation before me very clearly. Since then I have been working on it; but the cold weather, rain, and

Would the request of the Commanding officer of the Post be a necessity?
No, it is simply a courtesy; it is not necessary. "Political influence is what you want." Dear man!

He thought I had camped out with him for the afternoon; and looked nervous. I left him with thanks and assurances that my "influence" would fall upon him before very long and I trusted he would be in a receptive state of mind.

Then I learned that the Head quarters of the 2nd Cavalry is due at Fort Dyer, January 18th. Four companies at Ft. Ethan Allen at the same time.

I also went over to Ft. Dyer to see Mrs. Pluman widow of Capt. Pluman, 13th Infy, who holds the post office there. She is certain that I should be granted ex quarters; and that the income from the mail matter cancelled and sent out, could be safely counted on at $50 per month. There is $70.
The Govt. pays a clerk on account of the number of official papers effect. General Miles has offered to do anything we can; and sent Celia to tell one so in addition to his letter. I am sure that he will see Gen. Prisco; but the pull must come from Vermont.

I shall be deeply grateful to General Howard for his potential influence; and without it, I shall fail.

I am trying not to expect this appointment, but hope is lively. I want it and I sorely need it. Olive joins me in love to each passing the office. The clerk to be my true selection; preferably an old soldier or the widow of one. If I can secure quarters, I can get along nicely on that income. All that I can do tho. is to ask my friends to do for me. Will you kindly give this letter to General Howard, and ask him to have the goodness to secure for me the necessary "influence" at your end of the line. I do not know a single Vermont Representative, and if I did, I could produce no one of your dear home circle. Again Thanking you for your interest in our case, and wishing for you me, gratefully and sincerely,

All the items of the interview I have thought over and over troubling you. Do not think of replying.
