My dear General Howard:

We have a Social Mission in our church which meets once a month. At these meetings we have an address, & after the address a reception in the Chapel that adjoins the Church.

We have had so far Mr. Moss, attorney for the "Parkhurst" Society in New York, and Mr. Spear, of to deliver the address in February, if possible, if not - then in March.

If you can come, we should hope of course that Mrs. Howard would come with you, and that you would dine with us and spend the night. We should hope also that your son would join us, and his wife.

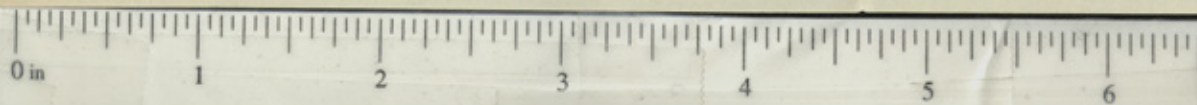

The date and the Subject I would leave entirely with you. Our prayer-meetings are held on Tuesday evening, and the 11th and 19th are engaged - I think also it might be well to avoid Ash Wednesday. The Subject may be entirely secular, for there are not in any way religious, but social, exercises -

I would not, of course, ask you to come down for such an evening, but I understand from you soon that you are down about seven or eight days. And if we can arrange it so that we can have our social business met during your visit to the city, it will give us very great pleasure.

Dear General:

Yours of the 29th from Burlington is just at hand. I mailed you a letter to the Ebbitt House, Washington, a few days ago, nothing of special importance I think.

In our regular program for the evening of Feb. 11th we expect to announce the subject of each speaker and the exercises in their order. I just called in at the office of "The Beacon" and Editor Smith told me he had already put an announcement of our meeting for this weeks issue. Possibly you could mail to each editor from Burlington what you would like to go in from day to day, especially for the Sunday issue, or I will try to attend to it if you wish.

As to matters at the Gap, several letters have come to me, ~~xxx~~ from Mr. Eager, and I judge from these that he is quite anxious to retrench, while Dr. Larry has no such intention. Mr. Eager wrote that Dr. Larry was much agitated because Mr. Myers was reporting that the institution would soon be in the hands of a receiver. Just who suggested the propriety of closing the school by the first of March, I do not know. I have had no hard feelings at all against Dr. Larry, and should be very sorry if anyone thought that I had. He was very cordial when we met in New York City, and I have had no communication with or about him since. ^(derogatory) When he writes he generally addresses his letters to Mr. Avery for me to read. Mr. Achorn and Mr. Avery were a little disturbed by what was received from the Gap, and we three were of one mind - that everything should go on as harmoniously as possible, with no thought of closing before next May, and that it was unwise to suggest that ^{the} institution was liable to go into the hands of a receiver. Dr. Larry enjoys branching out and enlarging, much to the discomfort of Mr. Eager when there is no money in sight. I shall be glad to write a line of encouragement to Dr. Larry. I think he manifests a little more courage than he did last year.

Tickets, a few, have already been sold from Mr. Stacy's office. I am having a notice painted on a cloth canvass which will be hung over the doors of Tremont Temple on Monday next.

Very sincerely yours,

E. P. Fairchild.

P. S. I have already written a kind letter to Mr. Myers that we had received a letter from Mr. Nettleton of Scranton, Pa. and that he seemed anxious for us to succeed, and that I hoped he ^(Mr. Myers) was in sympathy with Mr. Nettleton.

I hope our meeting will be a success here. I have some things to say to you when you come down here.

My dear Sir:

As the day is approaching when we shall have the pleasure of welcoming to our town General Howard, I wish to submit to you some plans which have made for your approval.

Our main object in asking the general to come here, is to stimulate and foster patriotism. To this end we have invited and secured the hearty co-operation of the Grand Army Post who are only too glad to show their appreciation of his visit. Some of the men have served under the general and they are only too glad to meet him once more.

Now I want to ask you if it will not be possible for the General to arrive here Saturday morning or at noon so that he may attend a reception which the Post is arranging for him?

This affair is to take place in the afternoon. Kindly advise me at your earliest of the subject upon which the general will speak at the Men's Rally Sunday. This meeting

Dear Sir,-

As we have succeeded in securing the promise of the attendance of some of our Military Companies at the meeting which you are to address in our city on the afternoon of Feb. 18th, we have thought it wise to change the subject of the proposed address.

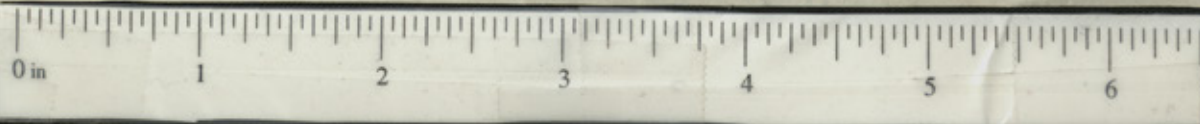

We desire that you give us the same address which you are to deliver at Nashua just previous to coming to Lowell. If I remember correctly the topic was worded "Father love, patriotic and Christian".

I trust that there will be a good attendance and that we may have a profitable and pleasant meeting.

Kindly let me know if this change of subject is agreeable to you.

My dear General Howard:

Your letter did not come into my possession until tonight. This delay was the effect of carelessness on the part of the Postman. A careful search has failed to disclose the whereabouts of the papers on which I noted the name of the Chinese pamphlet together with the Publishing House in New York. I am confident however that the publication was issued from #13⁴⁴ 15 Vandewater St.

I am not ungrateful of your remarks about this pamphlet when I was with you in New York and can only hope that the address I am able to give you will lead to locating the Publisher. If the memoranda should turn up you may be sure I will notify you at once.

Faithfully yours,
