General O. O. Howard,
Burlington, Vt.

My dear General:-

Up to this time there have been sold about $40 worth of tickets for the entertainment next Tuesday night, which of course is a mere nothing, and means 40 seats in a auditorium seating 2400; and up to this time, with the exception of the notices which were published in the Sunday papers in a very insignificant way, no public advertising has been done. I have begged and plead and argued with Mr. Fairchild to the end that there should be articles of some sort in every paper every day, and also that we should advertise in the entertainment columns. He persistently thinks it is of no special consequence whether they are put in or not, and has no faculty, I think, for preparing articles.

I have been to the papers and talked myself some, but I am convinced that this affair will be a great failure unless desperate efforts are made from this time on to get an attendance. Mr. Fairchild insists that inasmuch as these newspaper ads would cost money, he cannot afford to put any in, while I, of course, insist that it is only by advertising that we can get the public attention and get a crowd.

Mr. Avery went away and left the whole thing in Mr. Fairchild's hands, and Mr. Stillings is too much engaged to give it any attention or time whatever, and I have put in as much time as I can afford to on the matter, which is a great deal more time than I had expected to be asked to put in. I went personally and got Mayor Collins to promise to come, and I succeeded because I represented it as being a national affair in a sense. I shall personally be very much mortified if he comes to that meeting and there are but a handful of people.

Somebody should be here to take care of this newspaper business from this time on, and I should suggest that you send Harry at once, as it would be cheaper to have him take care of it than to attempt to hire somebody. At any rate, I notify you what the situation is and of my views.

Mr. Fairchild said that you agreed to see that the proper notices were provided for the papers.

Please treat my letter in the strictest confidence, even in communicating with Mr. Fairchild; but you can take such steps as you see fit in the premises.

Very truly yours,

Gen. C. C. Howard,
Honored Sir & Bro.:

Passing Tremont
Temple this morning, I saw the announcement of the coming Lincoln's Birthday celebration. I hastened in to secure a couple of good seats for the occasion.

It will certainly be a great success. The combination of attractions is a rare and happy one.

What other name of an American has the magic power of Lincoln's? To me his is the name that searches the depths of my heart. His rise amid the straits of poverty, his outinned affinity with the common 68 people and unspoiled simplicity in high office, his steadfastness under the long and terrible strain and his final martyrdom, cause the tears to start again as I think of him.

To build a memorial to him in the form you propose, is a plan that ought to commend itself to every patriot in the land.

What great lives may come forth from the obscurity and ignorance in which those mountains now lie, buried, none can predict; but Lincoln is proof that sons of genius, leaders of men may arise from humblest sources. May your good cause prosper, and the students of Lincoln Memorial University emulate the virtues of the heroic men, whose names are to be honored and perpetuated in ^{connection with} this philanthropic enterprise. The presence of the generals of the civil war will add to the enthusiasim.

I wish to congratulate you, upon what seems must be an effective presentation of this important-interest, to the people of New England.
Let me also felicitate myself upon being where I shall have the opportunity to see and hear it all.

With abundant good will and wishes for yourself & Yours.

I am sincerely,

My Dear General

My Nephew is at school at Vermont University and we all are interested in his welfare at school. He is trying to work his way through. He cannot get much help from his Father as he is on a farm in Winchendon Mass. He writes his Aunt that he has something to do about the Church of which the late Genl Howard is an officer now Genl. My ambition is to get him to West Point if possible & would like to have some official relation on office in the United States Army. Can you possibly do anything for him in that way. His name is Arthur Williams we think him a very bright boy but his parent being poor they cannot assist him very much. I wish you would talk with him and please let me know what you Think of him

we think he is working hard to master his studies

My dear sir -

At a meeting of our Board of Directors on last Monday evening we arranged to hold our anniversary meeting on April 13, 1902. We strive each year to engage a well known speaker to preside, and address this meeting, in order to attract and draw the people whom we wish to interest. Understanding Association work, you can appreciate this. Last year General Wheeler was the speaker.

Our Association was re-opened on November last, having been necessarily closed for about seven months. You can readily understand then, the importance of this our anniversary meeting, and how necessary it is that we engage some one to bring out the people, and especially those of influence etc. who otherwise might not attend.

I understand that you are to speak at Carnegie Hall, New York on Sunday next, - and that you are then to take a trip through the West.

My purpose in writing you, therefore, is to see if we may not engage you for our meeting on this second Sunday of April, presuming you would be returning about that time. Not only would the Board and myself greatly appreciate your coming, but I can assure you the city would extend to you a hearty welcome.

You, of course, understand, that most Associations are looking for help and need help, and support, and we at this time are quite hard pressed and are striving to pay off the balance of a large floating debt. We would not be in condition to pay more than twenty-five dollars, which would probably cover your expenses.

Kindly, let us know at once, if you can be with us. Will then plan to see you on Sunday at Carnegie Hall and complete arrangements.

Trusting that you may be directed of God to come to us, and praying His blessing on the meeting Sunday I remain

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of an UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Loss or destruction in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

Responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Dear Gen:-

I certainly was very much disappointed in not seeing you, during your last visit in W-though I knew you were very very busy - Chancy told me you were at the office one evening ^{and} I thought perhaps you would come again.

I appreciate your calling that last stormy evening ^{and} had I had an idea that you might come, I certainly should not have retired at my usual hour, to rest up for the coming day -

I am not yet very strong; were I, I should this very morning go down to the "Special Examination Division," to learn if Chancey had been sent to the field for pension work. I am somewhat disturbed that the vicious antagonist of our party was sent to Montgomery Ala. as a Special Examiner yesterday - when so many of our loyal veterans are waiting ^{and} deserving such appointments - Mr. Lawrence Condit G. A. R. was here yesterday, and the Commission sent for me the instant my father's orders to come down and meet him. I did not go to call the number - but she told for him to show the number of rebels in the office - he would be very much disappointed - you see I am not yet "reconstructed" - but I am not that concerned as to your family

Dear Gen. Howard:

I wish to thank you for the review of my sister's book. I shall send a copy to the publisher's, and to my sister, Miss Sara E. Ober, who is now at Fort Flager, Wash. "Huldah Herrick" is her Nom de plume. The book is written with a purpose, and I trust that it may serve a noble purpose in enlarging the interest of many people in that work. It has been used by many Missionary Societies as a text book, and I believe it has served a large purpose in that way. Congratulations on the success of Lincoln University.
