My dear Gen. Howard:-

Many thanks for your kind note of the 14th instant. I fear I shall be absent from Chicago at the time you mention and therefore write you. I have been wishing that you could help me to know a few people in New York. I think if you could introduce me to Mr. Carnegie, it would be helpful. Possibly Mr. Morton would be also willing to speak with me if you should ask it. I hope to be in New York along about the 20th or 24th of March. Will you return by that time, or will you still be in the West? I am not forgetting your own work, but I think, from what Mr. Carnegie's secretary said to me, it would possibly help your work if it helped mine, for me to see him. Of course you know many others in New York, and could give me counsel if I could meet you there.

With best regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,-

Dr. Guy Carleton Lee desires me to say that his business manager, Mr. H. E. Buchholz, will be pleased to meet you at Dr. Lee's study, 1707 Bolton Street, Baltimore, between 10 and 12 A. M. on Friday. He would suggest that the easiest way of getting to the study is to take a Linden Avenue car from the centre of the city to Wilson Street. Bolton Street is one block to the right.

Honored Sir:-

Your kind
favor containing Autograph
and your letter to the "Times"
was rec'd with much
gratification and pleasure.
Accept my thanks for your kindness.

I heartily endorse
the view you express upon
the Chinese question as the only way to Christianize an otherwise industrious and
peaceable people.

I have had the pleasure

of receiving the autograph
of Gen. James Longstreet
and the autograph and portrait
of Gen. H. B. Franklin.

Permit me to say in conclusion that no man
in the army of '61 to '65
challenges my admiration
and respect more than the gallant soldier hero^{and} Christian, who sacrificed
his right arm at Fair Oaks
for the good of his country^{and}
his name is General Q. Q.
Howard, to whom I again
extend my thanks, hoping Divine Providence may spare your life for many years to enjoy the honor^{and}
respect of the people whom
you so ably served.

Sincerely Yours,

I hope to be able to see Mr.
Mrs. R. J. McCoy, next week.

The clippings you sent were very interesting. Mama thinks you were very right. She has always contended —
Why should we exclude one foreign race and not the other? —

Is it your intention
of visiting the Philippines
this spring as was intended?

I sincerely hope so

My dear General:-

It has been some days since we received your letter, also your grand photograph.

The photograph looks
just as if you were going to speak. Mama ^{and} Papa
were very delighted with it ^{and} Mama says it shall grace
her drawing-room

I would never have neglected in answering your always very welcome letter, this length of time but owing to Mama having a very severe case of Measles and it being so contagious we were unable to leave the house and thought it advisable not to send any mail.

Yes, I attended the Military Ball, which did cure my cold, but regreted that I did not have the pleasure of meeting your son, as he was not present.

Evening before last, I recited at a reception. Yes, ^{and} they said I did very nicely.

Next month, I will recite a very beautiful selection, at a Church affair, of which I will send you a copy.

You remember, Mr. Cook, the young gentleman, who makes his home with us? Lately, he has joined the Y. M. C. A. of which he is becoming very

for then we can anticipate the pleasure of seeing our General once again.

Mrs. Capt. Goodall is building a beautiful house
on the corner and in the

formerly their grounds, is being erected some very elegant houses.

With love & best

Dear General Howard:

Your favor of recent date to my Father, together with a clipping from the Boston "Transcript" is received. I understand that the question of Southern education is one of special importance in the minds of many men at present and that it is hoped some definite plan may be evolved. The matter is, however, only in the embryonic stage and the papers have as usual taken up themselves to prophecy rather than to record facts.

Very truly,

Tax Matter Plainly Stated.

If taxes are paid on or before March 15, a rebate of 3 per cent on the amount of tax will be allowed.

If not paid at the above date one-half the tax may be paid on or before the first Monday in April, and the balance by the first Monday in October without penalty or costs.

If one-half the tax is not paid by the first Monday in April, the whole amount of the tax becomes delinquent and the sheriff shall proceed to collect the same together with a penalty of 10 per cent and 12 per cent interest from the first Monday of April until collected.

If one-half is paid by the first Monday in April and the taxpayer fails to pay the balance by the first Monday in October, a penalty of 10 per cent is added together with interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum, and the sheriff shall at once proceed to collect said balance of tax, penalty, interests and costs.

It should be understood also that the county court cannot extend the time for the payment of taxes under this new law, and the only thing to do is to comply with its provisions or suffer the consequences.

My dear General Howard:

I desire to give you a brief explanation concerning the favor I have asked of you.

Miss Sophie C. Robinson has, for the past three months, been filling a vacancy in the position of Assistant Civil Engineer in the Quartermaster General's Office, War Department. A man has just been certified by the Civil Service Commission to fill this place.

I understand there is to be a vacancy on the temporary roll in the Quartermaster General's Office at once, to which she can be assigned, if she can receive if convenient, by return mail, and I will be very grateful.

Kindly remember me to Mrs. Howard.

Very truly yours,

some good influence in her behalf without delay. Unless she has strong words of commendation from a good friend like yourself, the great pressure of others for someone else may cause her to lose this opportunity.

The officials under whom she has been working are willing to have this transfer made, and she has surely earned it by performing satisfactorily the duties assigned to her, during the seven months she has been employed in that office last winter and this winter.

I would be glad to have you make this request of

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Friend;

I was sorely disappointed last night by the action of the Six company. They have spent too much money in other sources. When I come to tell them about you, they had already emptied their purse. They said they can not do any thing now, concerning money matters, so I write you this note at once, so you will not be out of pocket. If you are, please let me know & I shall try to patch up in some other way. But if you are not, please do not incur any more expenses. I do not want a good man robbed. Nevertheless I shall send you all informations and answer that slavery clipping in each item for you, for your own protection and knowledge. You have said good thing about the Chinese now.
