WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20, 1907

My Dear General Howard:

Will you be in attendance at the coming encampment of the C. L. R.?

If so, would you be willing to speak for me for thirty minutes at a religious meeting we expect to hold on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 5? Please let me hear from you by return mail of your decision.

My love, W. C. Alexander

Chairman Committee on Religion Exercises.

To crush the wrong and crown the right,
When all the Saints in glory meet,
No more to die, no more to weep;

My dear Gen. Howard:-

I hope you are safely at home by this time, and are happy and resting after your long trip in the mountains. I am sure they were glad to see you again alive and well. We greatly enjoyed your visit to our home, and to our mountain missions. God alone knows the good results of your faithful work: heaven will discover it to us at last. I am sure great good was accomplished, and more to follow through the publications of your letters. Anne has copied the last two, and sent them to Mr. Klopsch. She and all the family join me in best love to you and yours.

With the assurance that a warm place awaits you always in our home, I am Truly,

Its Field—86,000 square miles of mountains, from Pennsylvania to Alabama; 2,600,000 inhabitants, nearly all white, and descendants of Scotch-Irish and Anglo-Saxon ancestors. About a million without the Gospel or the means of getting it.

Its Origin—In December, 1897, a company of Christian men and women, feeling their personal responsibility to God, and their duty to these people, formed this Society to send them the Gospel.

Its Character—Like the Bible Society and the Sabbath School Union, it is evangelical and undenominational. It gives its support to consecrated men and women who go to teach a pure Gospel for the glory of God and the love of souls. It numbers among its members and workers ministers and members of the various evangelical churches.

Its Support—It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions of God's children in every branch of the Church, and nearly every State in the Republic. It is auxiliary to all denominational work, and seeks only the further extension of Christ's Kingdom.

Its Methods—Only the most consecrated and efficient evangelists are employed in its work, and these are paid only a living salary monthly. None has ever received over $30.00 per month, and some work faithfully on half that amount. No officer of the Society receives a cent of salary.

Its Progress—It began with one evangelist; in four years it has increased to fifty-five. These are sent to the most destitute mountain regions of Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia. Thousands of people have heard the Gospel who never heard it before; thousands of Bibles and tracts have been distributed; hundreds of children taught in the Sabbath Schools; and hundreds of souls led to Christ.

Its Reason—"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

My dear Mr. Howard,

A farmer of 18th inst,
came only to hand, but for absence from home would have read an earlier acknowledgment. We thank you for it we were glad to hear that your father had reached New York safely.
We were much broke down by his long trip. We greatly enjoyed having him. I cannot express our obligation for his help — God will reward him. With our kindest regards Ferneley for the funeral & all his family.

and the flattering tongue: at any rate you greatly flattered me, by addressing me that lovely little sister.

Papa and Mamma went to Mt. Sterling Saturday to stay a few days. Papa preached there yesterday. I am housekeeper when Mamma is away, so you see my "accomplishments".

I finished all your letters to the Christian Herald and sent them to Mr. Hopkins last week. I am very anxious to see them in print, with "Beethoven".

My dear General:

I do feel a certain proprietorship in your own, and am very proud of it. I know that you are a very busy man, and many people more worthy than I have a claim upon your time and attention, so much so that I cannot expect you to waste it on a little "Rebel" girl—may down in Dixie—but I only want to tell you how happy you have made me by writing that little letter to me and the train. I appreciate it far more than I can tell you.

Either if you do belong to other people, I claim a little ownership for the many beautiful lessons you taught me in the two weeks we were together. I have tried to make my own, and I’ll never cease to thank God for the privilege I had of being with you. You are my dear General, to me in truth.

We were very glad to hear of your safe arrival in New York, and hope you were not much fatigued by your journey.
Your energy is something marvelous for you whose senses yet always seem as fresh and vigorous as a boy. Even men of 25 are sometimes listless, so de compare you with a philosopher, man this time!

I was afraid General

I appreciate your book very, very much and I will never be able to thank you as I would wish.
They have not come yet but I know the pleasure that is in store for me.
I have always been as fond of reading, and now these books will be doubly interesting to me.
and I shall enjoy sharing them with my friends also.
Do not forget that you are to make Wilson your headquarters whenever you are in this part of part of the way.

Gen. O. O. Howard:-

My dear Sir,

Will you kindly tell me if this Arm. could ever pass at one time your private clerk (11th Corps.) Army of the Potomac?

And will you kindly tell me the proper pronunciation of the last name?
I am preparing an address on Favorite Hymns which I expect to give soon in Burlington before the J. M. C. A. (Oct. 12th.) and would be glad of the information which I trust you will be able to give. Thanking you in advance.

My dear General,

Your friends are among us. I shall be here at E. A. R. on Tuesday, Oct. 6th. I understand you have been most sincerely interested in the Medical Mission and the work of Mr. M. H. G. D. Have you any idea what can be done to help the Medical Mission and the work of Mr. M. H. G. D. I hope you will be able to attend a patriotic service on Thursday, Oct. 8th, at 7:30 at the Memorial Church. We shall have probably two speeches of 15 minutes each. I hope you will be able to attend. I am deeply interested in your work and in the work of the Medical Mission. I hope you will see your way to attend the service on Thursday, Oct. 8th.

Yours sincerely,

E. C. D. S. B.

No. 1 Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir:

Referring to the object of your recent call, I enclose herewith transportation for Mrs. Grace E. Gray and her daughter, Miss Gray, over The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company’s lines, the Oregon Short Line and the Union Pacific Railroad from Portland to Council Bluffs and return good until the end of the year.

I regret that under the present rules of these companies, I have been unable to comply with your request for Mrs. Gray’s other children, but trust that the enclosed may be of some service.

Yours truly,

My Dear General:—

I enclose herewith a clipping from the Washington Post of last Sunday, purporting to give a history of various Army Corps — including the 8th & 11th. The article is written by John McElroy, Editor of the National Tribune, and a prominent candidate for the position of Commander-in-Chief of G.A.R. at the National Encampment to be held here Oct. 6th & 7th. Next.

A few years ago I made quite a study of the battle of Chancellorsville and if my memory serves me aright it was shown that you had your front protected by pickets.

Genl. Joseph Dickinson told me this A.M. that he visited your lines with Hooker and also visited your lines with you only a short time before the call of Genl. Jackson, and that on each occasion you had the usual pickets out.

General Dickinson has written an excellent paper on the battle of Chancellorsville which, if you desire he offers to loan you.

I have written a short paper on the 11th A.C. at Chancellors "ville" dealing entirely with the record. Will hurry you desire.

I trust that this will find you in the best of good health.

Very truly yours,

R. G. Riggs

Gen. O. O. Howard.
I was really very glad to receive your letter and to learn of your progress in the work of \[\text{resolution}\].

It is a great encouragement to know that you are still engaged in this task and are making steady progress.

I hope to see you soon and to talk with you about the latest developments.

Best wishes,
WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON,

September 25, 1902.

My Dear General:

Your letter recounting the services rendered by Col. John R. Brooke (now Major General, U. S. Army, Retired), at the battle of Fair Oaks, Va., while in command of the 53d Pennsylvania Volunteers, and strongly recommending him for a medal of honor, in view of his gallant conduct, was received.

It will afford me great pleasure to refer your communication to the Board of Officers constituted by the Secretary as the "Medal of Honor Board," for consideration, and the result of their report will be promptly communicated to you.

Very truly yours,

My dear General Howard:

I have your favor of the 24th instant, and it affords me much pleasure to send transportation for your daughter, Mrs. Grace E. Gray, and four children from Chicago to New York and return.

With the hope that you may have a very pleasant reunion,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Ochs:-

I take great pleasure in handing to my old and honored friend, General C. O. Howard, this note of introduction. General Howard's associations are all with the best and most patriotic interests, and I know that any request he has to make of you will receive sympathetic consideration, and thus will add one more to the lengthening chain of obligations that I am under to you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Father:

Mother was here at my office. She looks fine very well. She goes well with her 8 Bees. They go to Buckingham later on Sat. Sept 27 (tomorrow). Jennie will go there when she arrives on Mon. at 10A.

I handed mother seven dollars I owed you from the ten you left here on yesterday. The three was for letters. Thanks to you.

Love from Jennie
Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear General:

I am exceedingly sorry. I was hurriedly dictating to a newspaper reporter, and trying to say something pleasant and praiseful as to the Eleventh Corps. I did not see the matter until it was printed.

Of course, it was the farthest from my thought to injure you, my dear old General.

I have been turning up everything and everybody to have you here and give you a royal reception, which your character and services eminently deserve. Assume yourself that no one appreciates you more than I do.

Respectfully,

John H. Story

My dear General Howard

The album came safely, and has been placed in the library, in a situation which I think you will approve when you see it. With this I return to you the key of the valise in which it came. The valise I deposited in the cloak room of the Club, and enclose hereewith a check for it. Many persons I am sure will enjoy seeing the album while it is here, and I am glad it is here for them to see.

I also have your letter about Mr. Ochs, and will be glad to do what I can in the direction he prefers. Hoping to see you soon and talk it over, I am
