My dear Sir:

I inclose a copy of all that we can find about Dr. Pearsons in The Interior. I hope this is the article to which you refer.

Regarding the professorship in the Lincoln Memorial University, we hardly know what to say. The idea which you suggest seems to be a good one, but we hardly feel it would be right for us to take the matter up.

Very sincerely yours,

I thank you very much for the letter of the 19th inst.

concerning the Lincoln Memorial. I hope this is the article to which you refer.

Regarding the inscription in the Lincoln Memorial, we have already known what to say. The idea which you suggest seems to be a good one, and we are glad to hear that it would be right for us to take the matter up.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear General:

I enclose you copy of letter I have received from Secretary Root, also copy of the letter which I sent to him. You will see that his answer is very favorable, and I think if you take the matter up, in addition to what I have done, it will help very much. I have written to President Brown asking him to send me the names of those he recommends, and also wrote him of your promise to help after January 1st.

I wish you would take the matter up with Root right away. I have not a copy of the order he enclosed, but it is in the line of our wishes.

Very truly yours,

It is with the greatest regret that I return this article, but it is not just the thing we want now in view of the fact that we have printed several Indian articles recently.

 Dear General:

enclosed is a copy of a letter which I have sent to the Secretary of War. I did not dwell upon "New York", thinking I could best reinforce you by a somewhat independent letter. I do not see my way to a very sound conclusion for a general plan; but why cannot every state have a "West Point" - and have it ~~backed~~ ^{linked} to the general government by reasonable appropriations. ~~at~~ ^{at} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~same~~ ^{same} ~~time~~ ^{time}?
 Let wise men like Sec. Root work out a practicable plan - sincerely yours
 O. O. Howard

Gen. O.O. Howard,

Dear Sir:

I am instructed by the New England Society of Brooklyn, to invite your attendance at the ensuing celebration of the Anniversary of Forefathers' Day, by the Society. The Society on this occasion is intending to have the celebration at Plymouth, Mass., on Saturday and Sunday, the 20th and 21st of December next.

The members of the Society expect to leave New York by special train at ten o'clock of the morning of that day, ^{Dec. 20,} arriving at Plymouth in the afternoon of the same day.

The Dinner of the Society will be held that evening at the Samoset House, in Plymouth, and notable speakers are expected to be present and address the Society, and the Society will be pleased to have your name added to the list.

On Sunday morning the Society will attend service at Plymouth Church, where the presentation of two stained glass windows to the Church by our Society, will be made.

Please inform me of your determination in reference to the matter, at your early convenience.

Yours truly,

Robert L. Benedict.

My dear General Howard:

I felt chagrined when you were here last week that I could not meet you. I had no idea you were coming until the day before, when a friend of yours came and asked me if I would open one of the halls of the University. I told him it was hardly fair to you to try to hold the meeting with such short notice. My own time was already engaged for that evening, and I could not possibly be present, but I agreed if he thought best to open the hall. I do wish we could have known in advance of your coming and really arranged to give you one of our larger halls, and have crowded it full. I received your telegram, but did not know where to send the answer, as I had no knowledge of where you were stopping.

Deeply regretting that I could not meet you, and hoping next time to have sufficient notice so as to prepare for your visit, and greet you as your long service deserves,

I am
