My dear General :

I was away from home practically all the time between August 3rd and December 30th. The immediate cause of my thinking of you is your beautiful little note in my dear Nana's collection of notes and mementoes for each day of the year, which was put into my hands only a few days ago. I thank you most heartily, my dear General, for these very kindly expressions of your confidence and warm personal regards. It does me good and helps to bridge over the unnecessary blow I received at the close of my more than forty years service.

Now I want to urge you to be with us if you possibly can on the 16th, 17th and 18th of February at our Twenty-fifth Anniversary and Sixteenth Graduating Exercises. It is a quarter centennial and ought to be an especially memorable one to us all. Your coming will very greatly help to make it so and I shall be glad to make all the necessary provisions for your expenses in doing so. Of course I shall expect you to talk to us. Will you come ? If you will I will go down to your Memorial School on the next special occasion if you want.

I shall be very much pleased indeed to become a member of the Medal of Honor Legion, of which you are the Commander, and I inclose herewith application for membership.

I appreciate sincerely your references to the Cuban business, and the confirmation of my nomination as Major General, now before the Senate.

I found Cuba swarming with rascals and shapers of all kinds, some in public office, and others engaged in all sorts of corrupt schemes, and I had to smash a good many of them.

There has not been an atom of sincerity in anything that has been brought before the Investigating Committee, nor a statement made in the charges which cannot be refuted by the Cuban archives which are now in Washington, including all the original papers. These cover every collection and expenditure, from the date of our assuming charge of Santiago City, to the date of our leaving the Island. Of course those individuals preferring the charges have had no use for these records.

Last Spring I applied to go before the Committee on Cuba, and have everything looked into concerning which there was any discussion, before my departure for the Philippines, but my presence was not required. Upon my arrival in Manila I at once filed a similar request, looking to an investigation of the statements filed by Mr. Runcie, etc., and I have held myself ready and willing to meet all charges, but of course it is impossible to enter into a news paper war with convicts and men whose sole reason for bring charges against me, was because of their discharge from the service in Cuba for dishonesty. I arrived here this morning and find Col. Pratt and family all well.

I will attend the meeting on Friday morning in New York but I have forgotten the address where the meeting was to be held. On receipt of this please write Dr. Brush and ask him to have word at # 1 Broadway just where I am to meet the committee. I want to meet the committee so as to get off from New York at 1 P. Chancey wants to come up and I shall send him the pass so that he can use it just as soon as I arrive in New York Friday morning. Col. Pratt wants me Thursday so that I shall go on to New York Thursday night.

I am feeling very well after a good bath, a good sleep and a good lunch.

Today the Colonel says he has 1069 pupils. I wish you were here to see them again. The weather

My dear Sir:-

Chief Joseph brought a letter from you to me, enclosing the proposed amendment to the Indian appropriation bill, and containing copy of what you wrote to the president. I have an indistinct recollection about Chief Joseph's war, and its final adjustment, and also a vague impression that at the close of it, he was thought to have rendered some service to the government. I suppose that all the facts and circumstances are detailed somewhere in some report made by you, and I would be glad to have you give me a reference to same if you can do so. To secure anything for him in the way of an appropriation by the government, certainly requires that all the facts be brought out, and I am not familiar enough with the subject to know where to look for them.
