United States Senate,

WASHINGTON, D.C.

January 5, 1905.

Dear General Howard,-

I shall be glad to speak to the President in behalf of your brother if opportunity offers. However, his chance of success of course will rest with the prominent Republicans of his own State and vicinity, but if any word of mine would be of any avail I should be pleased to give it. I remember meeting your brother with you in the Army, and was then familiar with his reputation, but had not known of his service as editor or in politics.

Very truly yours,

Requiescent

General O. O. Howard,

Sir:--

From positive evidence in my hands, I certify that Charles Henry Howard joined me in Augusta, Maine about two days after my arrival and assumption of command as Colonel of the 3rd Maine Regiment, which was Wednesday, May 29th, 1861. I have ^{also} ~~positive~~ proof that he was with me in active work Monday, June 3, 1861. He continued with the regiment as an enlisted man on the rolls as a "musician", but ^{was} detailed as a clerk at regimental headquarters. He continued in this capacity doing diligent service without intermission till his promotion to a Lieutenancy in the 61st New York Volunteers.

My dear General Howard:-

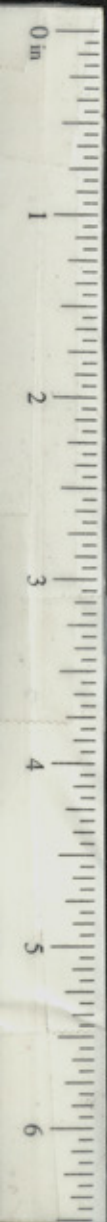

My mother received your good letter of April 24th, but is not strong enough to answer it herself. This spring weather seems to tire her greatly. She much enjoyed the call that Mrs. Howard and yourself were kind enough to make upon her, and I was more than sorry that I was engaged that afternoon at a meeting.

My mother has taken some time to consider your letter, and greatly regrets that she is unable to give any large sum towards the endowment fund. She is pleased, however, to enclose a check for $200., and will be very glad to make this an annual donation. Just now she is pledged to some very heavy financial responsibilities and does not feel that she can do all that she would like to do.

Believe me,

Sincerely yours,

This afternoon

while writing to Gen Joseph S.

arrival at that place I remembered that it was 41 years ago this afternoon when you made the fight at Pickett's and I would have been terribly discomforted had not the Infantry hastened to

Dear Sir,-

Your letter of April 26 was duly received and buried under other letters of similar tenor. I certainly take great interest in all educational institutions in the South, but the very fact of my name, to which you allude, simply overwhelms me with applications for aid. With limited means and a special call to contribute to the struggling colored schools, I feel constrained to favor them rather than the white ones.

Not that the whites do not equally require educational advantages, but there are more people willing to give them help, especially now that the tide has once more turned against the negroes. I wish your University much success and regret that at present I am unable to assist it as I would otherwise gladly do.

Very sincerely yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

Dear Sir:

I want to thank you for your kind words con-

I have written for the history of the Freed-

I feel that great injustice has been and is being done those noble souls who gave their all in as great a moral revolution as this world has ever seen. Your father has been,
I feel, the chief victim of this great conspiracy to overthrow the results of the ^{Civil} War I do wish that at some time I might find the time and facilities to write a history of reconstruction from the Negro's point of view, wherein I should like to do justice to a maligned people and to the ^{maligned} patriots and philanthropists who did so much for humanity. Yours truly

Dear General:--

I am in receipt of your favor of the 20th inst..

I don't believe Congress would look with favor on a proposition to allow us to keep both medals. I am not disposed to go on record in favor of the proposal.
It seems to me we should choose between the old medal and the new one; this privilege I suppose belongs to us. I returned my old medal before receiving the new one.
This was required by the War Department.
It seems to me that the new medal, having been adopted by the Government and issued, it should be worn. If two different medals are in use it will lead to confusion and embarrassment.

I am sorry I was placed on the Committee. Perhaps I had better resign and let the Commander appoint a substitute in my place.

I hope you are very well, which is more than I can say for myself just now, as I have been suffering from the

My dear General Howard:

Thank you very much for the suggestion about the School History of the Civil War, but I don't believe that there is such a thing as a School History of the Civil War used in any of our schools. Their courses are already overcrowded, and I don't think there would be any chance of their finding a place for it.

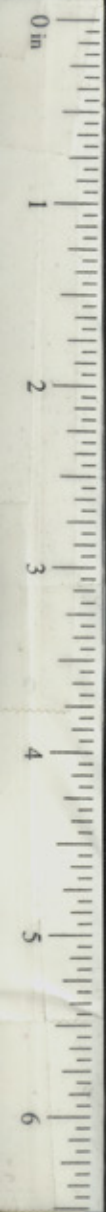

But I think there might be a place for a History of the War appealing to readers in general, written by yourself and General Lee, provided that such general History be not very long. I think that people have had ^{in the ordinary way} about all they are ready to take on the subject, but a presentation of it from two generals on opposite sides would certainly be unique enough to attract some.
