Dear General Howard:-

Your recent kind letter was duly received but as my daughter has been at home with us during the holidays I have not hastened to send you her address. She will leave for her home in New York next week.

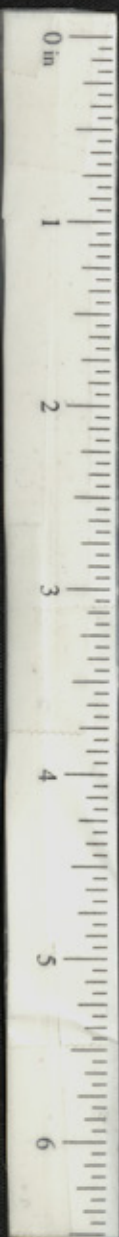

I enclose a letter addressed to her and her husband which you may take with you whenever you wish to call upon her. I know she will be delighted to meet you.

I am very glad to learn that Mrs. Howard is recovering and I trust that she will soon be restored to good health. I hope that this will find you very well. I remain as ever with kindest regards,

Sincerely,

General O. O. Howard,

Dear General:-

I hand you herewith a bill I have introduced to pension Mr. Orlando Robbins, who was your chief of scouts during the Piute and Bannock War, and if you can find the time I would be pleased if you would address a letter to me to be filed with the Committee on Pensions concerning his admirable services to the country, with the view of strengthening his case before the Committee.

Very truly yours,

Dear Harry:

- (1) Please read the enclosed about the "Lincoln Dinner". Hubbard thinks I may have to make the principal address. Then send my answer & want it to go from Burlington.
 - (2) I am going to see Mr. Hackett this morning about the Indian Book.
 - (3) Last night I got a pressing ^{invitation} from Gankin's Y. M. C. A. to address them Sunday afternoon & a promise of $25 that will be timely for expenses (?). I shall get home after that as quickly as I can.
- I am glad Mamma seems better, but sorry she continues so weak. I am sure that Sue & Miss Terrien will do all for her they can. I hav'n't written any more Indian stories. Since "Manuelito".

I need some memoranda I need me with friend at home.

Give lots of love to Mamma - I shall try to find Bessie at 3 Rutherford place this afternoon, or at the Buckingham.

Mrs. Fernald's W. C. Assn. meet here at 11 am. today & I am to attend. I visited Capt. Wadsworth's family 406, 48th St Brooklyn. Yesterday, while there the "Reformed Ch^h's" Minister Rev. McDonald wanted to engage me for a talk to his people
(I conditioned it upon a scholarship

Dear Harry:

Barker,

(1) Taylor & Co. have decided not to take the Indian Book.

They give very good reasons for this - They will not object to our publishing it, if we choose.

(2) They want to publish the Auto-biography. Mr Hackett appears to offer good terms -
He will write them to you -

(3) I will bring the MSS. back and we will get them ready as speedily as possible. The firm will not mind if each volume contains as high as 175000 words.

He wants to get rid of his
"Dolman" in short the name

of what I have called: "The back-prospectors"

I cannot tell, yet, just what time I can get home, but will start somewhere after my address Sunday (to be given at Yorkers about 4 P. M.) - I will telegraph you in time.

I am homesick. Jeanie & Helen are back - I will try to lunch with them Saturday - 1 P. M.
I may not telegraph - will explain after I get home -

Dear General Howard,

Yours of 16th received. Mr. Carnegie will be in Florida for six weeks yet, so that I could not bring anything before him now, but in any case you would have to get further on towards ^{the cost of} your main building before I could think of approaching him for assistance with that.

Sorry to hear about your loss at the University. My experience is that these buildings should always be ^{completely} covered by insurance. It is astonishing how many buildings are reported ^{to us} as being burned with only a fraction of the value covered by insurance.

I shall hand over your kind wishes. Unfortunately our little girl is just recovering from an attack of pneumonia, but will be all right in a few days.

My dear General Howard:

I enclose you herewith copy of a letter from the Quarter Master General of the Army regarding the services rendered to the government, under your direction, by Orlando Robbins for whose relief I have introduced a bill in the Senate. If you can give me any further details in regard to his services it would strengthen his case materially. Favorable action was not taken on the bill this session because of lack of definite information in regard to his services. At the opening of the next Congress I expect to re-introduce the bill.

My dear Senator:

Replying to your communication of the 26th ult. inclosing copies of letters from Gen'l O.O. Howard, and Gen'l Timothy Wilcox, regarding the services of Orlando Robbins, I have the honor to inform you that a further examination of the records, aided by the information contained in the above letters, shows that Lieut. John Potcher, 1st Cavalry, acting assistant quartermaster, "In the field", hired Orlando Robbins as a civilian scout at $200. per month from May 30, 1879, to Sept. 4, 1879, when he was discharged.

The name of Orlando Robbins is not found on any of the reports of quartermasters who employed scouts during the Bannock Indian Expedition in 1878, but the reports of Lieut. F.K. Ward, 1st Cavalry, acting assistant quartermaster, "In the field" show one Gordon Robbins to have been employed as scout at $125. per month, "with Capt. Bernard's command" from July 7, to 13, 1878. No other record of service of Mr. Robbins is found.

The above mentioned letters are herewith returned.

Respectfully,

C.V. Humphrey,

My dear General:—

Your note which you will find enclosed was received and I have sent to Gen. Humphrey several papers that I had with which I expect he will be able to hunt up my record during the years 1877 and 1878. And when I get returns from him I will write you immediately. You speak about the Bannock war. Major Collins hired me about the 6th day of May and I immediately joined Col. Bernards command and was in the fight at Silver Creek in Hamey Valley and as to my conduct during the entire campaign no one knows better than yourself. It was Col. Otis that hired me for the Nez Perce campaign and I escorted 4 companies of 1st Cavalry and joined you at Kamiah and followed Joseph all summer. Thanking you for the interest you are taking in me and again aid in trying to help me secure a Pension I will close.

I enclose herewith a letter from John Terzian, whom you will remember as Mrs. Fernald's butler. He is now in business in New Brunswick and doing well. He makes no appeal for financial aid, but wants your influence in behalf of his brother, whose life depends upon his return to the Orient. John is afraid that when his brother gets back to Turkey, he being an Ammenian, will suffer persecution unless he has some influence to protect him. If you can consistently write a note to Hon. John G. Leischmann, our Minister at Constantinople, asking him to look after the interests of the sick man on his reaching Turkey, I think it would be kindly done.

Dear Harry:

I had royal welcome this morning from Mr. Seligman, and shall be his guest for the week. After breakfast I went to Mr. Halleck and delivered the mss. Mr. Halleck was greatly pleased and wanted me to thank you and Mrs. H. S. saying it over and over again, for the carefulness you had exercised in the preparation so complete of the chapters. He wanted me to read my peroration, which I did. I think he approved it, though he was not very pronounced. Mr. Taylor, his senior, said that that was just the thing to do, to close with; that is, to give a patriotic and a Christian statement, which I tried to do. He liked the dedication.

Now, you will be astonished to know that for the dummy they got out two complete volumes, vol. I and vol. II. He did it by repeating that first chapter in the same book enough times to make it, that is the book, of sufficient size volume 1, and the other of sufficient size volume 2.

First, the book is a little larger than Lew Wallace; it is very simple, with what I call a maroon color, which just suits my complexion and fills my eye. I told him I could not be better satisfied with the exterior. The print is clearer and better than that of Lew Wallace's, and has no fine print quotations. I am sure that you and Sue and mamma will be fully satisfied with everything in the book, except perhaps the composition, which, of course, is due to me, and cannot be expected to be better than my own ability, aided and abetted by home criticism. He said that they had made up their mind that it would be absolutely necessary to charge five dollars for the two volumes, instead of four. Of this the firm is the best judge. They think they may need some general maps at least for the military part, but wish to leave that for further consideration. I told him what you said when the proof came out, that you would make for them an index for them, and he was very glad,- I mean Mr. Halleck. Mr. Taylor wanted me to make as little change as possible in the proof, except of course, the correction of mistakes.

I have seen Mr. Isaac Seligman this morning and had an exceedingly pleasant interview with him. I think he will go with me to the unveiling. When you and Sue come down I want you to drop in and see the dummy

My Dear Sir:-

Upon the invitation of a Committee of which Hon. I should like to repeat the same courtesy and show of appreciation for my personal friend and much loved classmate, Gen. J.E.B. Stuart, but illness in my family and other engagements will prevent. It was not necessary that Stuart and I should see things in the same light or have the same convictions of public duty to make him appreciate my friendship of a personal nature which was never interrupted in peace or even in war, when we were opposed to each other. I am glad now to express my regard for him, my recognition of his manly virtue and of his clear-cut faith in our Heavenly Father.

Were he here today I think we could take hold of hands and work and pray for civic virtue, perpetual union and the Flag which we once both loved and honored.
