My dear General Howard ;

Your kind note just at hand. I supposed you to be living in New York. Enclosed clipping will explain our purpose. My thought was that it would be matter for great felicitation if you as our representative of the Union soldier, and yourself so profoundly interested in the welfare of the freedmen, from your great services to them, should introduce the exConfederate soldier, Gov Northen, who is now doing so much to arouse the South to a more Christian attitude to the great problem of the Races.

We had already gone to heavy expense in our preparation for July Fourth. I wish I dare offer you a generous and adequate sum for your trouble. May I say that we shall gladly meet your expenses, and entertain you, or that we will give you a check for fifty dollars and entertain you?

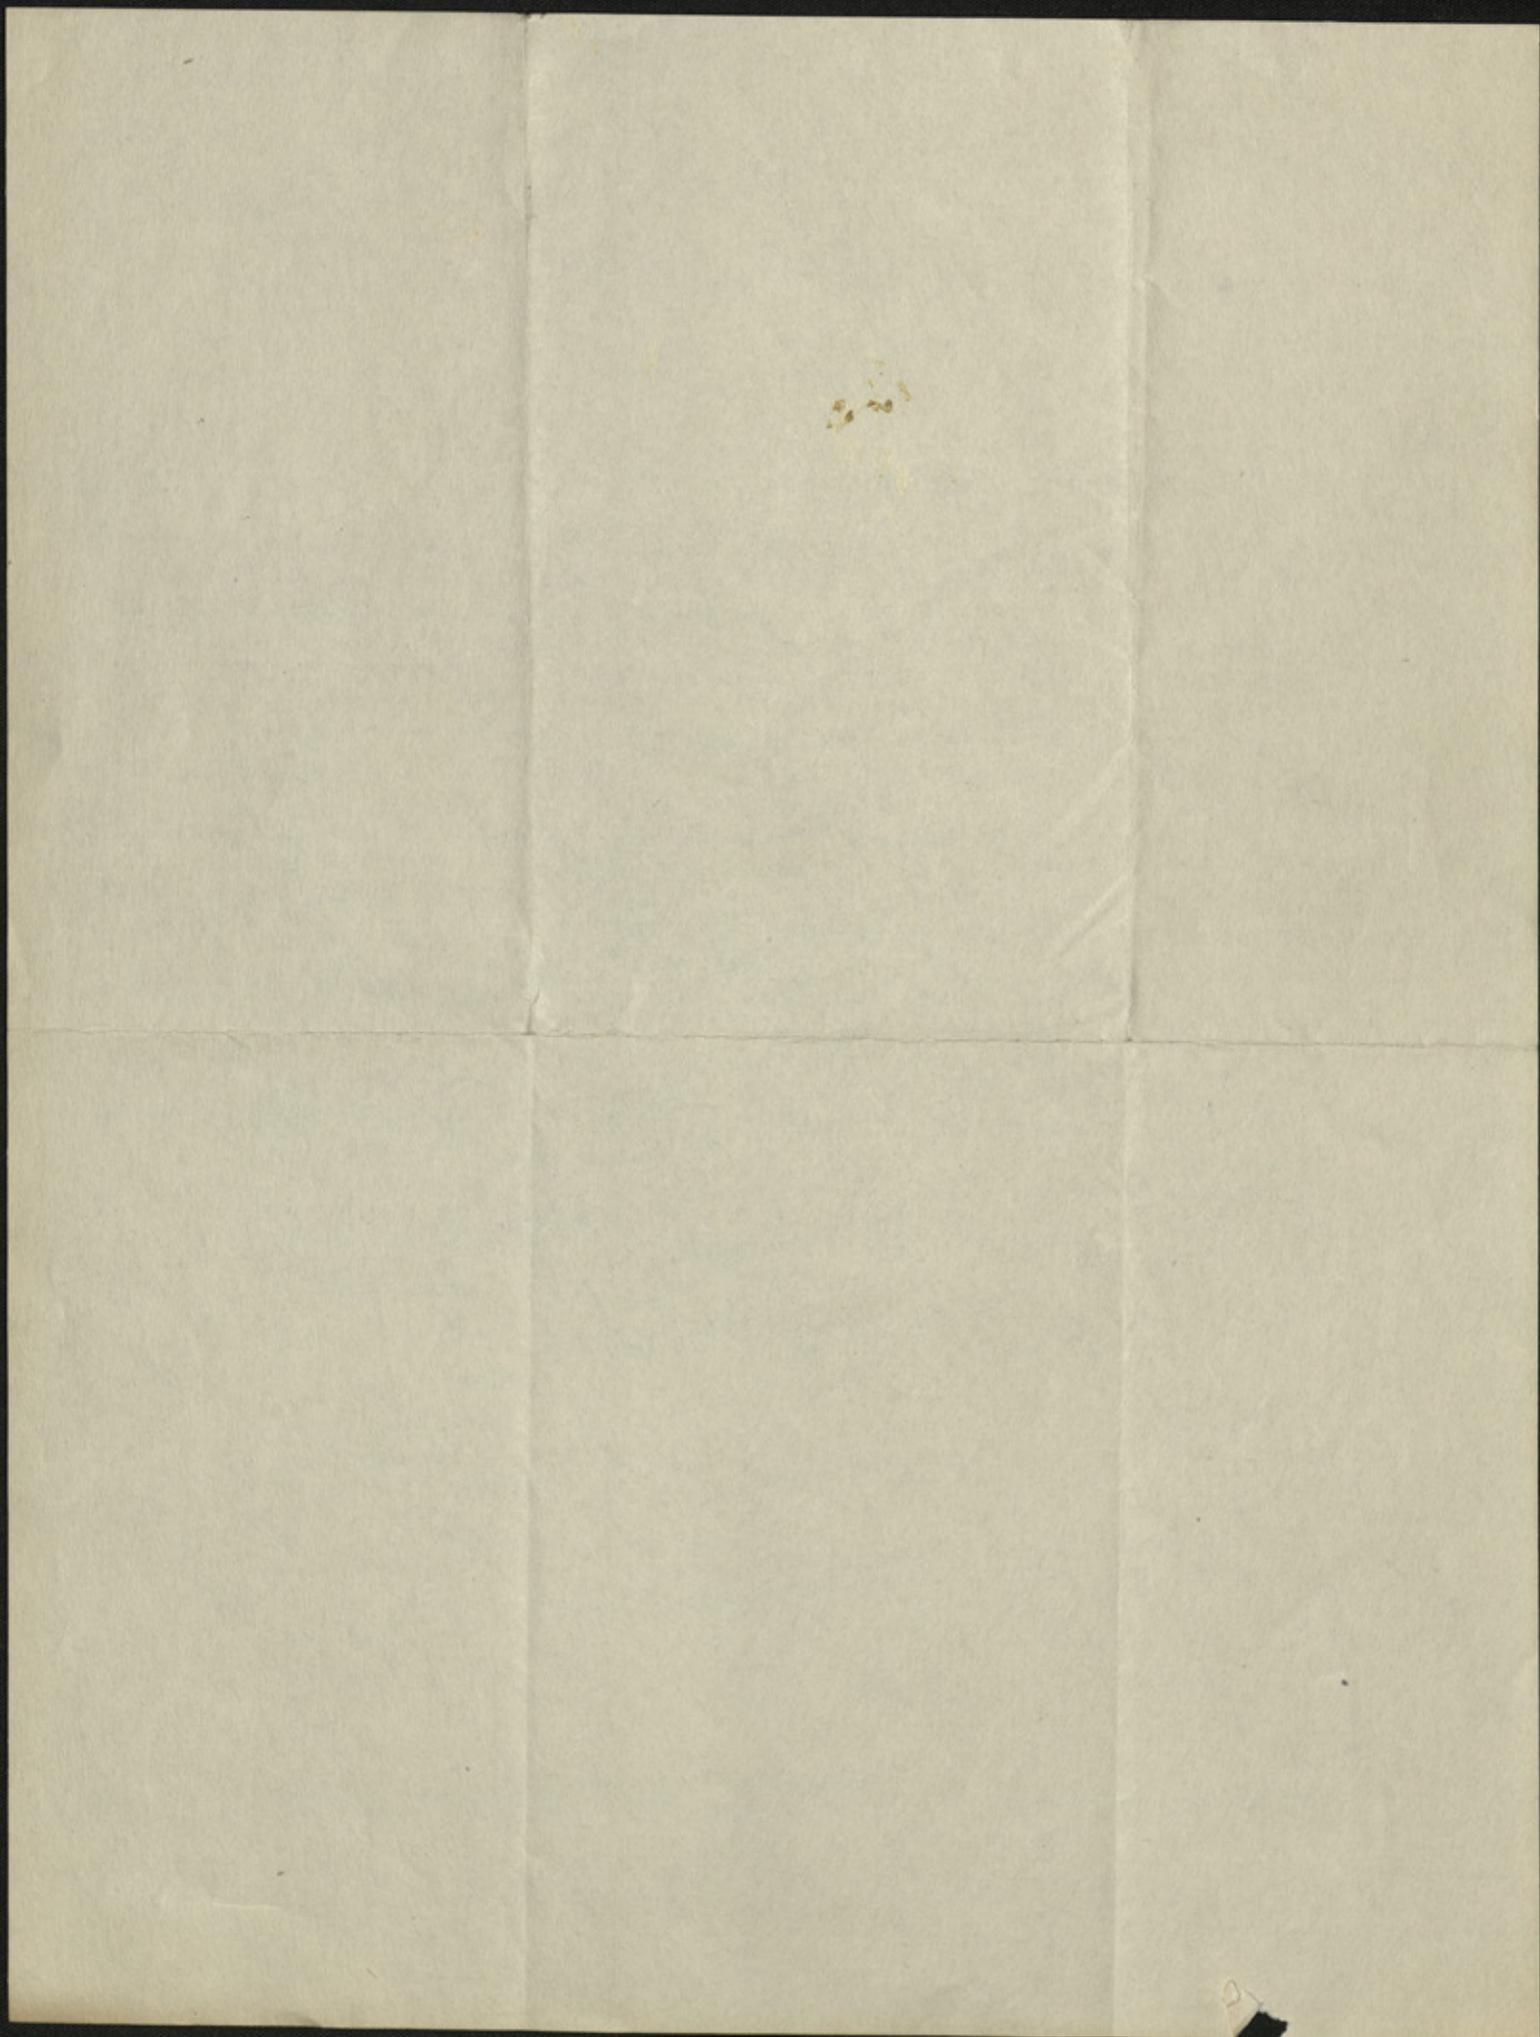

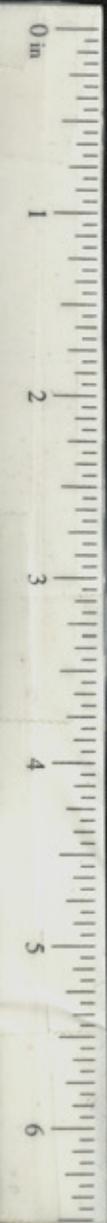

I feel that with you and Gov. Northen we would have a day long to be remembered. Mr Mallon, city Ed. of New York Sun, I have just spoken with. He earnestly hopes that you will come, as do we all. If you cannot, will you kindly telegraph me at once, as certain announcements are in press and we desire to include your name.

I am, my dear General, sincerely yours
with great respect,

TEXTILE BOARD

My dear General Howard ;

Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey, your friends and admirers through your old friend the General, desire to entertain you over the Fourth. We have therefore given you to them. Let us know when you will arrive in Montclair and we will meet you. The home of the Whittleseys is on Lloyd Place. We shall be glad to have you on hand on Wednesday so as to be ready for the exercises on the morning of Thursday the Fourth. The hour will be ten .

As I wrote you last week , we desire not to burden you with an address, but simply to be our guest, and to give us a few introductory remarks for Gov Northen, of Georgia who will be orator of the day. Gov Northen is doing a noble work for better race understanding in the south. You and he , if not acquainted may meet during the evening preceding the Fourth, indeed I hope that we may as a Committee meet and confer with you both on the evening before.

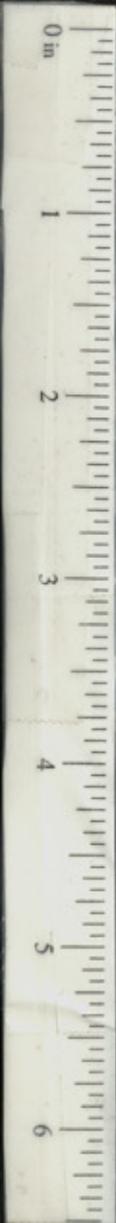

Gov Northen's theme will be, "The Problem of the Races ".

Please let me know when you expect to arrive.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Harry:

I had a good time yesterday out at Medford. Mrs. Gorton and two other ladies gave me a ride all over the State Reserve and I renewed my acquaintance with my young friend Dorothy and her brother, Ellis Howard Gorton. They are beautiful children and full of promise. Dorothy and her mother escorted me to the train. I came on by the Providence line. It was a little foggy this morning, so we were late in getting into New York. I have written answers to all of my letters which I find here. Miss Ellis is well again and is very happy to hear that Sue is on her feet and that Mamma grows better every day. I telephoned to Jamie. All well at Adelheid's. I am going to the Petersen's at East Orange this afternoon, and propose to go to Jamie's after the address tomorrow. I mean to go over early so as to get a little rest before my work tomorrow afternoon. I am glad the proof is coming in all right. Margaret says you have completed everything up to the 13th chapter. I have ordered our book of Bowdoin Alumni to be sent to Mr. Hackett and I want you to send him all you can. Probably you better write him what you do send him in the way of

The Whittleseys will be glad of you when they get you.

Be sure not to let any automobile enthusiasts get you so far from camp that you cannot be there by 9-45; Montclair High

Gov. Northen will talk probably long enough for us all.
We want you to be presented, say a few "well chosen words" and introduce Gov. Northen.

Allowing five minutes to a yard of talk, we suggest that you talk about one yard or one yard and a half.

To the Adj. General U.S. Army,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

From positive evidence in my hands, I certify that Charles Henry Howard joined me in Augusta, Maine, about two days after my arrival and assumption of command as Colonel of the 3rd Maine Regiment, which was Wednesday, May 29th, 1861. I have also proof that he was with me in active work Monday, June 3, 1861. He continued with the regiment as an enlisted man on the rolls as a "musician", but was detailed as a clerk at regimental headquarters.

In addition to the clerical duties which C. H. Howard performed, he very soon did the work of an aid-de-camp before the rank of Lieutenant came to him. He aided me in the organization of the regiment more than anyone else, except the Adjutant; and he was always at hand to perform with ability anything which the Colonel might require, having already had some experience in military matters.

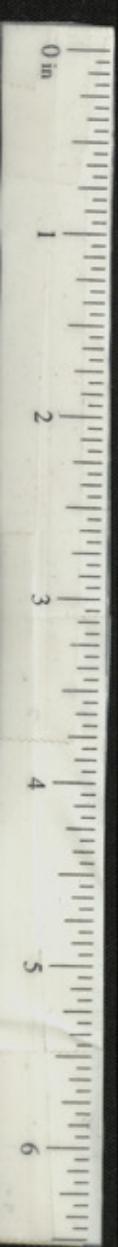

As soon as I became, as senior Colonel, the commander of a brigade, Mr. Howard did the full duty of a volunteer aid-de-camp in the carrying of orders, the locating of the pickets and the establishment of camps.

On the battlefield he was particularly efficient in aiding me to bring my lines successively to the front into action, and no one did more than he to preserve some sort of order on the retreat and in re-assembling the troops of the brigades in their former camps at Centreville. I have the most distinct recollection of the energy and persistency with which he aided and seconded every effort to rally the scattered troops from the beginning of the retreat until they were completely reorganized in the vicinity of Alexandria.

His first promotion was to a Second Lieutenancy in the 61st New York Infantry, the 4th of January, 1862. He was immediately detailed as an aid-de-camp to the brigade commander. His subsequent distinguished services wherein he was promoted from grade to grade till he became a Colonel and Brevet Brigadier-General are already a matter of record,

My dear General Howard:

I am sailing to-morrow for England for a brief vacation and shall return about September 1st.

I have read the "Indian Chief" articles with much interest, but owing to a very busy summer and the necessity of completing numbers in advance preparatory to my making my brief jaunt abroad, I have as yet been unable to get an opportunity to go over them in detail and select the parts which are best suited to St. Nicholas. I shall do this early in September, and meantime, if you should desire any advance payment upon the serial, (of course we shall print the bulk of what you have submitted in the Magazine,) please communicate with Mr. P. J. McFadden at this office, and he will see to any preliminary payment you may desire.

As soon as I return, I shall take up also, the matter of the illustrations.

Our Magazine <sup>year</sup> ~~here~~ begins with October, and, as a rule, we prefer to pay for the serials within the same year in which they appear in the Magazine, so, if entirely agreeable to you, our publishers would, I think, prefer to postpone the payment for the serial until after October 1st. But as already stated, if you have any reason for desiring an earlier remittance, please do not hesitate to call for it.

Dear Genl.:-

Are you thinking of forty-six years ago today? Sunday too, when that memorable battle of Bull Run took place? I wish you were to talk it over with me, as unpleasant as it was - At this hour we were holding services at the old Forrest home "Clermont." Chaplain Chase of the 3rd Maine had been ill with measles, but came down and made a prayer
we got all the soldiers who were left behind sick, together at the house - Just then Dr.
Gardner of Lewiston who was Surg. Gen. of

of Portland and Miss Dix of Army Nurse came, drove up - They always remembered that morning meeting. The next day we all went

I wish you were here this minute -
I wonder if I shall ever see you again?
We were all disappointed in not seeing you in Washington, when you skipped off so suddenly, I am not very strong, but I am going to the re-union of the few survivors of our old Regt at Gardiner on the 14th of August =
I wish you might be able to meet

to a little vacation, and come & take a sniff of good sea breeze here? Do tell me that you will - Give me a word from your

My Dear Friend:-

You may or may not be in this country now. I was just about to read your excellent article on the "Progress of Religion in the 19th Century" when I picked up the morning paper and saw the death of Mrs. Abbott in Germany. I did not know her quite as well as I know you, though I knew her father quite intimately and her brother. I thought she was in the best of health and strength and would in all probability outlast us both, you and me. But she is gone to find the mansion prepared for her and be ready to welcome you and perhaps poor me when we shall go thither.

You have worked hard and long in the Master's service and you make much of Him as the Prophet, the Priest, the King, the Emanuel and even the Jehovah. All right, you cannot exalt the Lord too much, so I say: may the same great Master comfort you and bless you in your affliction, lifting upon you the light of His countenance and giving you His own peace.

Very sympathetically and lovingly,

Dear Brother:-

I did not submit anything to Mr. Shaw, simply asked him if he would like to have a review of my book by some people who were on my staff. <sup>P</sup> The first point you made was with reference to my clear thinking. It appears to me that a book like Isabella of Castile or the Biography of General Taylor or any articles <sup>of mine</sup> of the hundreds that have been published <sup>would</sup> ~~could~~ indicate whether I think clearly or not. This <sup>charge</sup> isn't of any great importance (?) <sup>P</sup> With reference to my standing in mathematics at West Point, of course, <sup>that</sup> would be helpful to show the character of my mind. <sup>P</sup> With regard to the Howard-Slocum order, it must have gone to Slocum first and then have come to me, or to my headquarters. It certainly was issued before General Hooker made his visit to the 11th Corps the morning of the battle. With reference to the order, when it was issued, I had the whole Corps of Sickles next to Steinwehr on the left, and, as you know already, Barlow's large brigade. <sup>as a reserve</sup> <sup>reference</sup> <sup>P</sup> With regard to the rifle trenches, - they were sufficient to cover a man from the enemy's fire. Certainly the work on that was <sup>Substantially</sup> suspended by Hooker's order, <sup>an order</sup> brought by Capt. Moore, taking away Barlow's Brigade.

You are right with reference to Schurz massing his troops. He consulted me with reference to <sup>that</sup> ~~it~~ and I approved of it (as you <sup>now</sup> suggest) for the purpose of meeting the possible contingency of our right flank being turned. With regard to Schurz's duty, in the premises, of course, Devens should have done his best to guard his own right flank, using all his reserves and Schurz's reserves, which he placed facing Von Gilsa; <sup>they</sup> were intended by him and by me to help that same right flank. You ask if there was anything to hinder him from using all his reserves to meet a turning movement;- there was not only nothing to hinder, but it was his plain duty to use the reserves. You ask if he had to consult with <sup>me</sup> about <sup>all</sup> ~~every~~ details.

Certainly no division commander was ever so constrained. It was exactly the contrary.

Osborn's book was all right as I remember it. I do not wish anything coming from me to attack different officers, as you seem to <sup>favor</sup> ~~suggest~~ in one of your letters. It is altogether too late to do that. I have nothing against Sickles and believe that he obeyed his orders as well as he could. If you read Gen. Alexander's book just out, you will <sup>see</sup> how the Confederates look at the matter. It was impossible for my command of eight or nine thousand to withstand an attack of about three to one against it. In my autobiography I have told the simple story. At Resaca we had precisely the same circumstances, Hood's Corps turning my flank; and you know <sup>how that business</sup> ~~it~~ was met. At Chancellorsville there was a long space between Von Gilsa and the Rapidan. At Resaca there was a long space between Stanley and the Oostanaula. Had I been given time at Chancellorsville I

 The gist of ~~the~~ accusation is that I did not change front, when I should have known that Stonewall Jackson would attack me from the rear! The best answer to that is this, - that I was attacked all along my front just as the troops stood. What I needed was a whole corps (excepting Steiwer) to charge front then would besides my own good fighting by my own command and Sickles close at hand on my left
fine but it would have been enough if the 5th Corps sent by Hooker between my right and the Rapidan would have been the best.

My dear General:

I have just discovered your letter of May 16th, which went to Council Bluffs, got left there, and has just been forwarded to me here. I want to continue to pay the interest on my subscription. These are times in which people do not want to spend any more money than they can possibly help.

No doubt you have received notice of the meeting of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee at Vicksburg on November 7th and 8th. I know from what you said at the Bluffs that you want to attend. I want you to be there because it is going to be a noted gathering. There will be a great many distinguished Southern men present, and I want there as many representative men of our Society as possible. I also want you to respond to a toast. I will arrange for your transportation there and return, so that you will not be to an expense going and coming.

I shall leave here about the middle of September for Council Bluffs, where I will remain until the meeting of the Society. Please let me hear from you about this, also about the subscription to the Lincoln Memorial University.

I was very, very sorry ~~not~~ to be present at the McClellan unveiling. I had made every arrangement but my old troubles came on and tied me up.

I was rather surprised to see you leave the Lincoln work, but must say it pleases me, because I think you have been doing altogether too much. From now on you should take a rest and not work so much for others.

I hope that you are well, also that Mrs. Howard is in good health. Please remember me to her.

Truly and cordially,

G. M. Dodge
