Fraen
for the
Book Reproducers
23 Park Row
N.Y.

No.22

Injuries
Hawk's line weak
When a young man makes a choice of a con-scionable life, he does not decide to be good by necessity nor by any law or sound motive; no, he makes this choice from a selfish desire, affection, but should not feel as a slave under the yoke, nor be called upon to make pledges or promises that are never to be fulfilled. Of course, then, he wants some honorable business or some industrious competency thrown into his side of the bargain.

How much more does a young woman need a belief of independence? Has any woman ever loved her kind that the honorable and useful employment for women are ever the unobstructed. Then it is worse for her to put the words: ‘It is Your right to judge affection, and to have and own your own.

No necessities of a home and a living staff force her into the attitude of siding a part.
Then she must choose between her ambition, also, the pride of her own

My friend asks for rules for a happy life.
I write as underneath a path; I do not put down rules for reading the scriptures with reference to prayer, nor rules for the raising of the mind, in reading in meditation, in writing; but I found that he never for any length of time could observe them. The scheme of daily exercises were constantly changing, and the circumstances rising in great waves, were so different from one which he could anticipate that no number of exercises of long standing would be real, that he has not yet been able to find out a scheme of prayer that will be as natural as for water to flow from a fountain to make somebody happy and better every day. He has gone with all your pains and eases, and the use

This cannot be right. While we all have to see proper division of labor and at the same time to work as a whole.

The Christian home is a place of freedom; it is a place of freedom to be free, and feel free, and to have free

But do the young man and young woman, true, but the old man for young people,
the young man and the young woman, to fight the battle of life together.

In the case of a ten year old young man the battle will be done with a good wife than as a bachelor, before the simple act of fortunes building, or gaining a complexity, and vastly better in all other things which make life art.

The young woman sacrifices when she loses her father's roof and shelter to and to wait, to construct a new business; or the young man and the young woman, to fight the battle of life together.

But do the young man and young woman,
true, but the old man for young people,
the young man and the young woman, to fight
the battle of life together.

In the case of a ten year old young man
the battle will be done with a good wife than
as a bachelor, before the simple act of
fortunes building, or gaining a
complexity, and vastly better in all other things which make life
art.