Col. 1. 27th - X in 9, of hope of glory.

The blessed G<sup>d</sup>, has been pleased in every Age of the World, to give some special intimations of his purposes of his grace to some of the Children of men, in mercy, to <sup>the</sup> discovering of the designs of divine promise, & of the <sup>of</sup> blood, should bruise the serpents head. Under the old Testament dispensation, these things were discovered, in w<sup>h</sup> we may call only dark & distant hints. The blessings of the Covenant of grace, lay couched under shadows, & typical representations, so that they did not shine forth in their Beauty & Lustre, as they do under the Gospel The true of the Covenant people, had the Gospel really made known to you, as well as we. This is plainly suggested by St Paul, in his Epistle to the Galatians, Ch. 3. And the Scripture foresees that it would justify the heathen thro' faith, preached the Gospel before unto Abraham: compare with this the speaking of the Children of Israel in the Wilderness, the Apostle says, for unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto you: plainly interpreting, that you had the same Gospel made known and preached unto you, if we have, thro' the of a different dispensation. But you, altho' X, & the blessings of the new Covenant were pointed out, & shadowed forth under the dispensation as clearly as I saw fit, yet these things were wrapped as in a cloud, & covered under so thick a vail, as the little could be seen of you, compared to what is seen now, when the vail is rent, & these glorious realities, stand in open view. X, of Substance, is now come, & has removed y<sup>e</sup> shadows of y<sup>e</sup> ceremonial law by fulfill<sup>g</sup>, w<sup>ch</sup> w<sup>re</sup> designed to typify Now, y<sup>e</sup> whole plan of our salvat<sup>n</sup> is explicitly opened by G, in y<sup>e</sup> gosp<sup>t</sup> of his son in which, life, & immortality, are bro't to light Hence, therefore, altho y<sup>e</sup> profess<sup>d</sup> p<sup>p</sup>le of G, und<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> old testam<sup>t</sup> dispensat<sup>n</sup> were advantaged every way, chiefly, <sup>in y<sup>e</sup> gospel</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> unto y<sup>m</sup> were committed y<sup>e</sup> Oracles of G, yet, their advantages, in this respect, were small, compar<sup>d</sup> wth those, w<sup>ch</sup> are enjoyed by y<sup>e</sup> profess<sup>d</sup> p<sup>p</sup>le und<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> gosp<sup>t</sup>. These things, y<sup>e</sup> Apost<sup>l</sup> touches upon, in y<sup>e</sup> latter pt<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> (containing y<sup>e</sup> 5.

guard y<sup>m</sup> ag<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> errors of some Judaizing teachers, who, had crept in among y<sup>m</sup>, and labored to draw y<sup>m</sup> to y<sup>e</sup> observat<sup>n</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> abolished Ceremonials of y<sup>e</sup> Mosaic Law, & some othr<sup>r</sup> thing of human Invention.
Pursuant to this design, w<sup>ch</sup> evid<sup>ly</sup> app<sup>r</sup> in y<sup>e</sup> subseq<sup>t</sup> part of this Epistle, y<sup>e</sup> Apost<sup>l</sup>, as a foundat<sup>n</sup>, for y<sup>e</sup> inferences w<sup>ch</sup> he intended to draw, unfold<sup>s</sup> somth of y<sup>e</sup> excellency, glory, & fulness of X. He consid<sup>r</sup> X, as y<sup>e</sup> head of y<sup>e</sup> Ch<sup>h</sup>; as y<sup>e</sup> great peace mak<sup>r</sup> between G & m<sup>n</sup>, by y<sup>e</sup> blood of whose Cross, sinners are reconciled unto G, & rein-

3rd & in 13<sup>s</sup> is their Hope of Glory.

How or in wth respect & being in 16<sup>s</sup> is their Hope of

That word of these writings, which persons may find, and take it as a word in the sense of Glory, and have made and find make Application

& in 4th; I know some Interpreters read, if you thus among you: But I see no Reason why we need vary fr<sup>om</sup> our common Translation in this Place; especially as it is a great Gospel Truth, & of 1st & 2<sup>d</sup>, both in Reality dwell in the hearts of 13<sup>s</sup>: seeing also of none do in Truth & reality build their Hope of eternal Life & Glory upon it (wherever you may find it) to) but such as have rec<sup>ived</sup> him into their hearts, by a Faith of Operation of God.

1st I sh<sup>all</sup> prove the Reality of the Union of the Believers by his dwelling in you. Now it apper<sup>s</sup>

1st of Communion with is between X & 16<sup>s</sup>. In this of the Apostle is express 1st Cor. 13. truly our Fellowship is with the Father, & his Son J<sup>es</sup>us. And some are told Heb. 3. 14.

we are to take partakers of it.

2nd The reality thereof is evident, he & Imputation of his Right ness to him for his Justification. If a 16<sup>s</sup> is just ified before G<sup>od</sup>, by a righteousness without himself, is un deniable 16<sup>s</sup> Rom. 3. 26. Being justified freely by his Grace, thro' the Redemption of it is in X & J<sup>es</sup>: And it is Right ness becomes ours by Imputation is as clear 16<sup>s</sup> Rom. 4. 23, 24. but it can never be imputed to us, except we be united to him, & become one with him, unless he dwells in us. This is plainly apert in 1st Cor. 1. 30. But of him are we in J<sup>es</sup>, who of G<sup>od</sup> is made unto us Wisdom, Rightness, Sanctification & Redemption. He communicates his Merits to none but those that are in him. Hence all those vain

Reails of the Deists, disputing against our Justification by the Rightness of X, & asserting it to be by inherent Righteousness are solidly answered.

102<sup>d</sup> 44 Demand, how can one be justified by the Righteousness of another? Can I be rich wth another my money? or pleased by another's Honor & our Answer is yes, if the other be my Surety or third band. Indeed Peter, cannot be justified by the High-tousness of Paul, but both may be justified by the Righteousness of the imputed Saviour, by being members jointly knit by one common Head.

Princip, & Surety are one in Obligation & Construction of Law. Head & members are one Body; Branch & Stock are one Tree; & its no strangething to see a graft here by the Sap of another Stock, w<sup>ch</sup> once it is ingrafted into it.

3 The Sympathy yt is between Y & H<sup>d</sup>, proves this Intimacy between ym. St Paul in Col. 1. 2, 4. tells us yt he did file up yt w<sup>ch</sup> is behind; & remains of yt Sufferings of Y in Y Suffer. Not as if Y Sufferings were imperfect (for by one Offering he has perfected for ever ym yt are sanctified Heb. 10. 14.) But in these two Scriptures, Y is considered in a twofold Capacity; he suffers once in Corpore proprio, in his own person or mediator; these Sufferings are complete & full; & in yt sense he suffers no more. He suffers also in Corpore mistico in his Ch<sup>h</sup> & members; thus he still suffers in yt Sufferings of every Saint for his Sake; and in other Sufferings in his mistic Body and not equal to others, either p<sup>er</sup>sona & mensura, in their Weight & value, nor yt designed ex officio, for yt same Use & purpose, to satisfy by their proper Merit offered Justice; nor shall we are truly reached of Sufferings, because if Head suffers some members do; and wth out this Supposition, yt Verse Place Acts 9. 5. is never to be understood, w<sup>ch</sup> Y of Head in Heaven crys out, Saul, Saul, why persecutest

Thou man
4 To conclude; the way & manner, in w<sup>ch</sup> Saints sh<sup>ll</sup> be raised at  $\gamma$  Last Day, proves  $\gamma$  Union bet<sup>ween</sup> tween  $\chi$  & you: for  $\gamma$  are not to be raised as they by  $\gamma$  naked Souls, of  $\gamma$  ~~themselves~~, wthout you, but by  $\gamma$ virtue of  $\chi$ ,  $\gamma$  resurrection as their Head, sending forth vital quickning Influences into their dead Bodies, w<sup>ch</sup> are united to him as well as their Souls.
For so we find it Rom. 8.11. But if  $\gamma$  Spirit of him $\gamma$  raised up  $\gamma$   $\gamma$   $\gamma$  dead dwell in  $\gamma$ , he  $\gamma$  raised up  $\gamma$   $\gamma$   $\gamma$  dead, sh<sup>ll</sup> also quicken  $\gamma$  mort<sup>al</sup> Bodies, w<sup>ch</sup> his Spirit  $\gamma$  dwelleth in  $\gamma$ : even as it is in our awaking out of natur<sup>al</sup> sleep, first  $\gamma$  anim<sup>al</sup> Spirits in  $\gamma$  Head, begin to rouse & pray there, and  $\gamma$  of Members & Senses are loosed thro<sup>ugh</sup> out of whole Body. Now it is impossible  $\gamma$   $\gamma$  Saints in $\gamma$  cast  $\gamma$  resurrection should be raised by  $\gamma$  Spirits of  $\chi$  dwelling in you, unless this knit you closely to $\gamma$  you of  $\chi$ . So  $\gamma$  of Reality  $\gamma$   $\chi$  dwelle in  $\gamma$ is not to be called in Question.  $\chi$  in you, says  $\gamma$   $\gamma$ .

I proceed

2 To show ~~how~~ w<sup>ch</sup> it is made by  $\chi$  being in  $\gamma$ , or how he is  $\gamma$  to be in you. And here to remove all false Notions & misapprehensions, I sh<sup>ll</sup> speak both Negatively & positively.

1 Neg. By  $\chi$  in us, we are not to understand  $\gamma$  any $\gamma$  is made  $\chi$ . Some there are who talk of  $\gamma$   $\gamma$   $\gamma$   $\gamma$ Rate of being  $\gamma$  head into  $\gamma$ , &  $\gamma$  into  $\gamma$ ; but there an infinite Distance betwixt  $\chi$  & us, in respect of Nature & Excellency, notwithstanding  $\chi$  being in us. We are not so united to  $\chi$ , as to make one Person wth him It is of singular  $\gamma$ , of  $\gamma$  blessed & holy  $\gamma$  you of  $\chi$ , to have united as to make one Person wth him.

2 Neither by  $\gamma$   $\chi$  in you, are we to understand  $\gamma$ any  $\gamma$  is made a partaker of  $\gamma$  incommunicable Properties of  $\chi$ , as Eternity, Omnipresency, Omnicience, infinity, omnipresence, essentiality &c 3 Neither by of phrase, are we to understand y<sup>t</sup> any B is essentially & absolutely holy as x is. No, these are properties incommunicable to any B, & belong to G only. And hence we reject wth Abhorrence, & blasphemous Notion of y<sup>e</sup> Antinomians who tell us, y<sup>t</sup> by G laying our Iniquities upon x, he became as completely sinful as we, & we as completely righteous as x.

4 Neither are we to understand y<sup>t</sup> any B is efficiently holy, i. e. y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> can make either yourself or any other person holy.

5 Neither by this Express<sup>n</sup> x in us, are we to understand y<sup>t</sup> any B is perfectly free from sin in this life.

under y<sup>t</sup>? And hence we reject another Doctrine of y<sup>e</sup> Antinomians who tell us y<sup>t</sup> B's need not neither fear their own sins or y<sup>e</sup> sins of others, for y<sup>t</sup> neither their own nor others sins can hurt you. I doubt not but this Prop<sup>n</sup> sound harsh in y<sup>e</sup> Ears of B's. I readily grant y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> sin of B's will never hurt you so as to bring you into condemnation. For who's & once loves, he loves hard. If his children forsake his Law, break his precepts &c &c y<sup>e</sup>. Their sins he will visit wth a Rod, & their Iniquities wth stripes, but his lovingkindness he wont take away, nor suffer his faithfulness to fail. But wth if their sins cant do you y<sup>e</sup> hurt, to frustrate y<sup>e</sup> purpose of G, & damn you to eternity in y<sup>e</sup> words to come? Can it do you no hurt at all in their present <sup>state</sup> of conflict wth their this world? For my part, I think, y<sup>e</sup> greatest Calamity is due to sin y<sup>e</sup> greatest Evil; & y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> sort of speak likeathan ~~is~~ he y<sup>e</sup> nisi Peccatum times, i. e.

I fear Nothing but Sin. Tho' Sin cannot fully ruin of us, yet it can many ways hurt & injure him, & therefore ought not to be misrepresented as such an innocent & harmless thing to us.
In vain are so many terrible threatenings in Scripture about it if it can do us no hurt. & it is certain Nothing can do us good, but if it with makes us better & more holy, but Sin can never pretend to be of all things in of words. But to come to an Issue, Sin may be consid<sup>d</sup>, three ways. viz, formally, effectively, & reductively.

1. Formally, as a ~~part~~ transgression of a Preceptive part of the Law of God, & in consideration it is of most formidable evil in of words. It is of evil of evils, at which every gracious heart trembles, & ought to lead to such a penitent, admonition, & death itself, of it, as Moses did, Heb. 11. 25.
2. Sin may be consid<sup>d</sup>, effectively with respect to our fleshly mischiefs it produceth in of words, & of spiritual & corporal evils it inferreth up<sup>on</sup> us, & of selves. Tho' it cannot damn their souls, yet it makes war against their souls & brings you into miserable bondage & captivity. Rom. 7.
It wounds their souls, and with us are filled & forebode: you are rear'd by reason of iniquity of their hearts. Ps. 38. I was captivity, painfull wounds, no hurt to us? It breaks their very bones, Ps. 118. and is of no hurt? It draws off their mind from God, interrupts their prayer & meditations, Rom. 7. & in their no hurt of? It causes their graces to decline, wither & enough last degree, of things with are in of are ready to die Rev. 3. 1. & 2. 4. and is of loss of grace of spiritual strength no hurt to us? It hides of face of of his you Ps. 59. 2: and is there no hurt in spiritual withdrawn from us to their souls? why do departed saints so bitterly lament & bemoan it? surely you there's some hurt in Sin for with saints ought to fear it.

3 Sin may be confid<sup>d</sup>, reductively, viz, as it is overruled, reduced, & finally issued by wth Gov<sup>t</sup> of Grace.
This, this Consideration of Sin, wth rather respects of future age present State, of Antinomians only respect of Hurt or Loil of it, overlooking both of Form, Consideration of Sin, wth concern of present State of B<sup>d</sup>, & rashly pronounce Sin candido B<sup>d</sup>, no Hurt. An Assertion leading ing to a great Deal of Loose<sup>s</sup> & Licentiousness.

If a m<sup>n</sup> drinks poison, & is after many months recovered by wth skill of an eminent Physician, sh<sup>ld</sup> we say there was no hurt in it, because wth m<sup>n</sup> did not die?
Certainly those fears, Twinges he felt, his Loss of Strength & Stomach were hurtfull to him, tho he escaped wth Life, & got this Advantage by it to be more wary forever hereafter. Thus I have just toucht up<sup>d</sup> this, inasmuch as it fell in wth ~~some~~ my Discourse in some of my Assertions. I now go on 2<sup>d</sup> Pro. & show wth we are bound by of Phrase X in us, There is a mistie<sup>d</sup>, Spirituall Union subsisting between X & all those who have by faith fled to him for Refuge as of Hope set before of - in of People.

By Virtue of this Union B<sup>d</sup> dwell in X as Members in of Body, or as Branches in of Vine.
By Virtue of this Union, & by of faith wth is of Bond of it on our part, X also dwell in of Heart of every B. Eph. 3. vj. 4. & may dwell in of Heart by faith. The faints stand in of same Relation to X, & of natur<sup>d</sup> Members of of Body do to of Head, and he stand in of same Relation to of of of Head do to of natur<sup>d</sup> Members; & consequently of of Head to one another as of Members of a natur<sup>d</sup> Body do to one another. X & of faints are not one as of Oak & of Joy of clasp it are one, but as of grass & of stalk are one. Its not a Union by Adhesion but by Incorporations.

Y says one dwells in his People by his Merits to ju-stifie you: by his Grace & Spirit to renew & purifie you: by his wisdom to lead & instruct you, & by his Communion & Compassion to share in all their Troubles. I proceed

3 To show it is in vs. is their Hope of Glory.

In 4. J. it is held forth as Hope of vs. & in 4. Hope of Glory. The Express<sup>n</sup> is figurative, if that of Hope is here put for Ground of it, by a metonymic of Adjunct. In an if of Ap<sup>l</sup> had vs. & in 4. Ground or Groundation of Hope of vs. Casting life & Glory. Hope is properly an Expectation of future good of some kind or other, grounded either on some promise of it, or on some other likely prospect of obtaining it. Christian Hope, is a firm Expectation of all promised good Things, so far as may be for vs. Glory & our own Good; especially of eternal Happiness & Glory in Heaven. This Expectation is founded on ~~the~~ ~~Word~~, his Merits & mediatio his Spirit & Grace, & promises of vs. thro him to his People: & also on vs. Power & Veracity of vs, we are engaged to fulfil & make good all vs. promises in his Word. Hope differs fro Faith in Respect of Object of it: the Object of faith is vs. Person of vs. Mediator; whereas vs. Benefits of his Purchase are vs. Object of Hope, especially vs. our own Glories of another world & State.
But vs. these Things are vs. Object of vs. Hope, yet of vs. himself, & vs. promises of vs. we in him are vs. Amen, are vs. only foundation of it. Hence it is 4. of Ap<sup>l</sup> in our J. calls vs. of vs. Hope of Glory. & vs. dwells in vs. Hearts of his People, and thereby enables you to build their Hope of eternal Life upon him.

It is x who of B has red by Faith & gives him ground to Hope for etern<sup>e</sup> glory. And truly x must be in us, in, by Faith, by his blessed Spirit, or we can have no well grounded Hope of Life everlasting. The B's hopes are built up<sup>d</sup> x, not up<sup>d</sup> any Doings or Duties of his, and he being well satisfied if he has red this ~~red~~ into his Soul by fth faith ~~with~~ is an Operational Locality, and of B's having, red x, enables y<sup>e</sup> to hope for etern<sup>e</sup> Glory, nay this is of ground of their Hope.

For wth ground can y<sup>e</sup> have ~~of him~~ for their Hope, unless it is built up<sup>d</sup> x as being theirs & x in y<sup>e</sup> says of g<sup>o</sup>d. wth is x to y<sup>e</sup> or to me unless he is y<sup>e</sup> & mind. Tho' x has died & suffered, rose fr<sup>o</sup> d<sup>e</sup>ad, & ascended up into Heaven, yet wth w<sup>ll</sup> any p<sup>er</sup>son be of better for it unless he is his & So y<sup>e</sup> it must be x in us, who is of Foundation of our Hope of Glory. — I pray

To know how, or in wth respects x in B's, is their Hope of Glory.

1 x being in y<sup>e</sup>, warrantably enables y<sup>e</sup> to Hope for Glory, in as much as x has promised to give
etern<sup>e</sup> Life & y<sup>e</sup> shall never perish. And he if has begun a good work in y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>ll</sup> carry it on to day of x. All of Promises of G are p<sup>ro</sup> to be in x. 2 Cor. 1.20.
The real Child of G, firmly believes his promises, & y<sup>e</sup> such their Comfort his x in of Promises, & knowing y<sup>t</sup> he is not a man of he should lie, neither of Son of man if he should repent, y<sup>t</sup> if he has p<sup>ro</sup> it, it shall come to pass, & of Heaven & earth shall sooner pass away, y<sup>e</sup> one Tittle of y<sup>e</sup> promises of G fail, I say, of sincere & true, believing this, & further, of who

It is their Hope of Glory, inasmuch as he has wrought you for it. Thull to this purpose, of Apostle says 2 Cor. 5. 5. Now he it has wrought us for of self same thing is G. who also has given unto us, of earnest of Spirit. The self same thing, is of Life, of eternall Life mentioned in of former Verse, of House in of Heavens, not made with Hand. G has wrought us for it by regeneration. We have not wrought ourselves into, or up to any felicity or any grounded Expectation of of future Blessing, & glorious Estates.
But its G of has prepared us for it, & wrought such a lively Hope of it in us: And he was also given you his Spirit as of Pledge & earnest of it. He has given his Spirit to dwell & work in us, & to assure us of what we speak of in, of Glory to be received.
The Spirit of Grace given to of People of G, working & dwelling in you, is a certain Pledge of of Glory & Life eternall, which he has prepared for them.

May we enter of Jerusalem of it above, & join of blessed Society, in their songs of praise to of Father three in one.

Their three Crowns of unfaiding Glory encircle our victorious Brows; their full Palms adorn our Hand; songs of Victory & Triumph shall dwell on our Tongues, & we shall be free from fighting, & Tears shall be ever wiped from our Eyes.

Improvement.

Does it dwell in B<sup>d</sup>, by w<sup>ch</sup> there's a close Union? hence learn w<sup>ch</sup> transcendent Dignity & how great you will might constantly prefer of Hon<sup>r</sup>, of being a member of of Chh, before it of being of Head of of Empire,
 in some respect above of Hon<sup>r</sup>, w<sup>ch</sup> & has put up of Angles of Glory. It true, there is a gathering together of all in Heav<sup>n</sup> & Earth und<sup>r</sup> & as a common Head Eph. 1. 10. He is of Head of Angles as well as Saints, but in different Respects. To of Angles he is an Head of Dominion & Government; but to Saints he is both an Head of Dominion, & of Influence too. You are his chief & most noble Subjects, but not his Millie members. You are as of Nobles in his Kingdom, but of Saints as of Dr, Spouse & Wife of his Bosom.
 This signifies of to above of greatest Angles.

If it dwells in B<sup>d</sup>, w<sup>ch</sup> of Grace of B<sup>d</sup> can never totally fail. Immortality is of Privilege of Grace, because Sanctified Persons are inseparably united to of of Fountain of Life. Your Life is hid w<sup>ch</sup> in of.
 Col. 3. 3. Whitt of Top of Life is in of Root, of Branches live by it. Thus it is between of & B<sup>d</sup>, Ino 12. 19. Because I live, you shall live also. The of Assurance of of Saints depends not on their own free will, but upon of Immutability of of Decree of Election, flowing fro in Darkness & see little or no Light. Ps. 50. 10. Nay a Person must be able before he knows w<sup>ch</sup> Darkness is and before he knows himself to be a S. The Direct Act of Faith, is before a Reflex Act. But tho' y<sup>e</sup> may walk in Darkness, & be ready to say, I am cast out of thy Sight, yet still y<sup>e</sup> Fund of Grace remains. There may be many 10th whom y<sup>e</sup> Joy &

Comfort of Assurance is denied: y<sup>e</sup> may say of their Union wth x, as Paul P<sup>o</sup> of his Vision, whether in y<sup>e</sup> Body, or out of y<sup>e</sup> Body, I cannot tell; so y<sup>e</sup>, whether in x, or out of x, I cannot tell.

in y<sup>e</sup> Hearts of 10th, y<sup>e</sup> may thro' y<sup>e</sup> Temptations of Satan & world, y<sup>e</sup> Prevalency of Corruption remaining
fall into grievous sins, & for a Time continue therein.

Mat. 26. 70, 72, 73. Ps. 51. Title, & v. 18: & by their sins y<sup>e</sup> incur G<sup>o</sup>d's Displeasure, & Ps. 5. 7, 9. & give his holy Spirit, Eph. 4. 30. & come to be deprived of some Measure of their Grace, & Comforts, Ps. 51. 8, 10, 12. Lev. 2. 4.

Lev. 5. 2, 3, 4, 6. But still, tho' they don't bring y<sup>e</sup> into condemnation. Their Transgressions will be visited wth a Rod, & their Iniquities wth stripes, but his loving Kindness, he won't take away. Blasp<sup>h</sup> Security!

Does x dwell in 10, & so make but one mystical Person. How unchristian, y<sup>e</sup> are all those Acts of Unkindness, whereby 10th wound & grieve x. This is, as if we should lift up y<sup>e</sup> Hand, & wound our own Head, for w<sup>ch</sup> we receive Life.

10th Satan smites x by y<sup>e</sup> Hand of a wicked man, he y<sup>e</sup> wound him wth y<sup>e</sup> Hand of an Enemy; but w<sup>ch</sup> his Temptations prevail up<sup>o</sup> y<sup>e</sup> faints to sin, he wound him as it were, wth his own Hand: as y<sup>e</sup> Eagle & Tree in y<sup>e</sup> fable complained, if one of the eow<sup>er</sup> was wounded by an Arrow, winged wth his own Feathers, & other

4. it was riv'd asunder, by a Wedge hewn out of his own Limbs. Now, of Wit & Disingenuity of such fins, is to be measure, not only by y<sup>e</sup> near Recitation & sustains to <sup>be</sup> as their Head, but more particularly, y<sup>e</sup> sever<sup>e</sup> Benefits y<sup>e</sup> receive fro him as such. For in wounding & by their fins,
live, & so <sup>out</sup> who y<sup>e</sup> had still remained in a state of Life & Death. Eph. 4. Th<sup>e</sup> & true Life to us, I see return of wit is as Death to him? How disingenuous is this!

2 y<sup>e</sup> wound their Head of Government. & is a guiding as well as quickning Head # Col. 1. 18. He is y<sup>e</sup> wisdom, he guides y<sup>e</sup> by his Council to glory. But must he be thus requir'd for all his faith, conduct, w<sup>o</sup>ld do y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>o</sup>ld sin but rebel against his Government, refusing to follow his Council, & obey a Decree, rather

3 y<sup>e</sup> wound their Consulting Head, who provides for
fairs below, have not been managed by y<sup>e</sup> own Wisdom, but y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>o</sup>ld above. I know, O! saith y<sup>e</sup> Prophet, y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> way of me is not in himself, neither is it in me y<sup>e</sup> walke to direct his Steps. Jer. 10. 23.

It, true, & is out of y<sup>e</sup> Sight, & y<sup>e</sup> see him not, but he sees y<sup>e</sup>, & orders every Thing y<sup>e</sup> concerns y<sup>e</sup>. And is this a requir'd, of all y<sup>e</sup> care he has taken for y<sup>e</sup>?
compence loil for good!

are on this Aw, (as I before not'd) exalted above angles. Now consid<sup>r</sup> how vile a Thing it is, to reflect y<sup>e</sup> least Dishon<sup>r</sup> upo him for whom you desire all y<sup>e</sup> glory.

4 If  $x$  dwells in  $y$   $B$ , & thereby there becomes a close mistic Union, upon w<sup>ch</sup> comfortable Terms may  $B$ <sup>d</sup> part wth their Bodies at Death?

Nay he is not only risen fro<sup>m</sup> dead himself, but is also become of first fruits of  $y$   $y$  slept. 1 Cor. 15.
 $B$  are his Members, his fullness, he cannot therefore be compleat wthout  $y$ . A part of  $x$  cannot perish of  $y$  same, much less burn in Hell. Rememb<sup>r</sup>, w<sup>ch</sup>  $y$ full of nature & Union dissolving,  $y$  this mystical Union can never be dissolved. The Plunge of Death cannot break this Tie. And as there's a peculiar Excellency in  $y$   $B$  Life, so there is a singular Support & peculiar Comfort in his Death. Phil. 1. 21. Some to live  $x$  & to die is gain.

5 One  $x$  of Saints so nearly united as if he dwells in  $y$ ? how great a sin & full of Danger is it for any to wrong & persecute of Saints; for in doing so,  $y$  must needs persecute  $x$  himself.

Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? Act. 9. 4.
The righteous  $y$  holds himself obliged to vindiccate oppressed Innocency, tho' it be in  $y$   $y$ of wicked men; how much more w<sup>ch</sup> it is in a member of  $x$ ? He  $y$  toucheth  $y$ , toucheth  $y$   $y$ of mine  $y$ . Luth. 2. 8. And is it to be imagined $y$   $x$  will sit still, & suffer his Injuries to thrust out of Apples of his Eyes? No he has ordain'd his Arrows against his persecutors. Ps. 7.

It were better, thine Hand should wither, & thine Arm full fro<sup>m</sup> thy Shoulder,  $y$  ever it should be lifted up against  $x$ , in  $y$  persecut<sup>ed</sup> of his Members.

6 Does  $x$  dwell in  $B$ ? How does it concern  $y$  every $y$  to try & examine his Estate, whether  $x$  dwells in him. My Hearers, a more important care yourself with more profane & vile, are ready to bless yourself & say wth Pharisee, & I thank thee, y<sup>t</sup> I am not as other men, or even as this publican.

2 Don't others build their Hope up<sup>d</sup> of meer Mercy of G. Saying y<sup>t</sup> G is a merciful G, and wont demand a great of G words. But remember y<sup>t</sup>, he is a just as well as a merciful God.

3 Some hope to be saved because they intend to be good hereafter. At present they cant see about y<sup>e</sup> work: but at such & such a Time they intend to 4 others build up<sup>d</sup> their Profess<sup>n</sup>, meer Ch<sup>r</sup> Privileges, then of Law decreed of G, saying, we have Abra<sup>h</sup> for our Father: Mat. 3. 9. This propt up their Hopes, y<sup>t</sup> Abrahams Blood run in their Veins, tho Abrahams faith & obedience, never wrote in their Hearts.

5 False Evidence of Law of G is another Thing y<sup>t</sup> feeds their vain Hopes. In y<sup>e</sup> Pow<sup>r</sup> of it to hush y<sup>e</sup> still of Conscience, Mat. 7. many will say unto me in y<sup>e</sup> Day, & I, have we not prophesied in thy Name? & c. The Things y<sup>e</sup> see up<sup>d</sup> wth y<sup>e</sup> built their Evidence & Confidence, were extern things in Religion, yet they had a quieting pow<sup>r</sup>, up<sup>d</sup> y<sup>e</sup> as if they had been of best Evidence in y<sup>e</sup> word.

6 Others build their Hope for Glory up<sup>d</sup> partial Re= formations. They have been once God, but have left off many of their best courses.

7 Depend lay their Hope for Glory up<sup>d</sup> some imperfect Conversions, w<sup>ch</sup> may have never ended in a saving Conversion.

8 Others may build up<sup>d</sup> some vnder Dange of Joy & moving of Affections. Hence we read of y<sup>e</sup>

Types & figures of y<sup>e</sup> ceremonid. Law as a Mystery hid from Ages & Generations ie, wholly unknown to y<sup>e</sup> Gentile world and, (comparatively speak) but darkly by revealed to y<sup>e</sup> Covenant p<sup>pl</sup>e, in Ages past; but now, by y<sup>e</sup> sovereign good pleasure of G<sup>d</sup>, made manifest in
forth, as y<sup>e</sup> only Foundat<sup>n</sup> of our hope of glory.

In discours) doctrinally upon y<sup>e</sup> word, I intend

1. To show y<sup>e</sup> reality of X dwell in B<sup>3</sup>.
2. W<sup>h</sup> is meant by X being in B<sup>3</sup>.
3. Y<sup>e</sup> X in B<sup>3</sup>, is their hope of glory.
4. How, or in w<sup>h</sup> sense, X being in B<sup>3</sup> is their hope of glory.
5. Make Application.

Vid Sermon.

Preck July 1807. Prepost Sep 1807.
Oct 1813. Sermon.

Col. 1. 27. To whom I would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the gentiles, which is the inheritance of hope of glory.

Mark 9.48

Mat. 25. 41. Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire. The etern. Condition of men, such is of such infinite Consequence to you, y<sup>t</sup> it must appear at first View of w<sup>ch</sup> Importance of Subject I have pitched upon it: And y<sup>t</sup> either of these vastly different States, in one of w<sup>ch</sup> all the Inhabitants of y<sup>e</sup> world must forever remain can never fail, of being a necessary Subject of our meditation. And an endless Hell, y<sup>e</sup> well knowing plain of y<sup>e</sup> Wrath, is so large a Subject, & A full of Instruction, y<sup>t</sup> I sh<sup>d</sup> not take up my self of y<sup>e</sup> time by a further Introduction, or insert upo<sup>n</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Contest, but apply my self to y<sup>e</sup> consideration of y<sup>e</sup> words now read.

Our Saviour gives an Act. of y<sup>e</sup> irreversible sentence he would raise up, upo<sup>n</sup> finally impenitent persons, and those hypocritical pretenders to Religion, w<sup>ch</sup> profession is not sanctified, by purity of heart & holiness of life: and opens up to us something of y<sup>e</sup> frightful Nature of y<sup>e</sup> terrible place, w<sup>ch</sup>

In y<sup>e</sup> words, we have
1. A gen. Representation of Hell Torments, und<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Notio of fire. Depart says our S into everlasting fire.
2. The name of Duration of these Torments, it is everlasting fire, w<sup>ch</sup> according to y<sup>e</sup> natur<sup>e</sup> Signification of y<sup>e</sup> word, & its frequent use in other places, instructs us, y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> fearful State w<sup>ch</sup> really is endless; & can admit no period, even of y<sup>e</sup> greatest Length, nor w<sup>ch</sup> can diminish in its fury; for he is y<sup>e</sup> immediate Author of y<sup>e</sup> everlasting Destruction, where wth those y<sup>e</sup> know him not, sh<sup>d</sup> be punished. And while y<sup>e</sup> etern. Hell he w<sup>ch</sup> be y<sup>e</sup> kinder of this unquenchable flame.

That if wicked shall be shut up under the Curse of G, in everlasting Misery. In handling of this point, I was

1 Discourse of the Extramity of the Punishment. And 2 Of the Eternity of it.

1 Of the Extramity of it.
Before the particular Description of the pains of the damned, I shall observe in general, that the full Representation of Hell, is beyond all human Expressionary and most fearful Thoughts, cannot equal the Horrors of it. Who knows the Power of this Anger?
Phy. 10. 11. What are the prepared Plagues by infinite Justice & almighty Wrath for obstinate sinners?
It is impossible for the most guilty & trembling Conscience, to enlarge its sad Apprehensions, according to the Degrees of the misery. The Lord will show forth his Wrath, and make his Power known, in the Vexat-tles for Destruction. Now can the soul be so and so long suffer, were made capable to endure such Torment for ever, as now would presently consume him. As the Glory of Heaven cannot be fully understood, till enjoyed, so the Torments of Hell cannot be comprehended till felt. But we may have some Discovery of these unknown Torments, by the following Considerations.

1 The most heavy Judgments of G upon sinners here, are light & tolerable in Comparison of the Punishment of sinners in the next state.

1 Temporal Evils of all kind & Degrees, (as Pestilence, Famine, War) are common to good & bad here. and if his Anger were he chastises as a compasionate Father, be so terrible, not in his Fury, were he punisher as a severe Judge? If of correcting remedies ordered by his Wisdom & Love, for the Conversion of Sinners, less sharp, w<sup>ch</sup> is of deadly Revenge of his irreconcilable Hatred?

2. The miseries of y<sup>e</sup> present State are allayed wth some Enjoyments. None are so universally afflicted, so desolate, but som<sup>e</sup>thing remains to prevent y<sup>e</sup> sense of their sufferings. And w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> affliction is irremediable, yet if our Grief produces Sympathy in others, tis some ease to y<sup>e</sup> troubled Mind. But in Hell y<sup>e</sup> Damned are surrounded wth Torrors, surrounded wth flames, wth out any Thing to refresh their Torrors, not a Drop of Water to a Lake of Fire. All y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> extreme Delicacy here, is totally wth drawn. Death puts a period to their Pains & Pleasures. Their pain and w<sup>ch</sup> is extreme Misery, in their most pitiful State, y<sup>e</sup> are absolutely unrelieved. Even this, is not afforded to y<sup>e</sup> Damned. All their Agonies & Pains
Spirits in Heaven towards y<sup>e</sup>; for y<sup>e</sup> are not compassionable Objects, their misery being y<sup>e</sup> just Effect of their perverse obstinate Choice.

As in Heaven all good is eminently comprised, and Nothing but good; so in Hell all Evil is in excessive degree, & Nothing but Evil.

3. Torment, Evils are inflicted by y<sup>e</sup> mediation of several Causes, y<sup>e</sup> are of a limited power to hurt; but in y<sup>e</sup> next word, he more immediately torments y<sup>e</sup> Damned, by his absolute power.
wth everlasting Destruction, fro<sup>m</sup> y<sup>e</sup> presence of G<sup>d</sup>, & y<sup>e</sup> glory of his power. More particularly y<sup>e</sup> State of misery, is set forth in Scripture by such Representations, as may powerfully instruct, & terrify even y<sup>e</sup> most hard man.
Nothing is more intolerably painful y<sup>e</sup> suf-

bear it, could Spira bear it? Are we truly informed wth of Wrath of G<sup>d</sup>? Who knoweth of Power of thine Anger, according to thy fear, so is thy Wrath. Ps. 90. 11. O if wth of a th<sup>o</sup> who in all his glory, is but a mort<sup>l</sup> Worm, be as if roaring of a Lion, & as if messenger of Death, p<sup>ro</sup>v. 20. 2. & 16. 14. wth you is wth pow<sup>r</sup> of his Wrath, at whose browns of th<sup>o</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> earth tremble, & Cap-
their Holes. Wth of lifes Executions of it by providence in this World be so dreadful, y<sup>e</sup> men, ye a good men, have desired an hiding place in y<sup>e</sup> grave til it be past, Job 14. 13. you wth is y<sup>e</sup> full Execution thereof upo y<sup>e</sup> M<sup>u</sup>lti in y<sup>e</sup> place of Tombants? Wth of Threats & Denunciations of it against others, have made an Nababkub the assured of y<sup>e</sup> person, softly, to quiver wth his Lips, & tremble in his Bowels, as y<sup>e</sup> see he did, A. 3. 16.
How much more shall you tremble & quiver who are likely to be y<sup>e</sup> Subjects of it? And wth is more y<sup>e</sup> ad, if J. who was to feel it but a few Hours, and had y<sup>e</sup> Power of y<sup>e</sup> Head to support him und<sup>r</sup> it, did, notwithstanding, sweat as it had been great Drops of blood, if was so amazed, think wth th<sup>o</sup> self y<sup>e</sup> poor Wretch, how full thy Heart Endure or thy hands be strong, wth thou had to do wth an increased D<sup>u</sup>sty. Such is y<sup>e</sup> sharpness of his sword, y<sup>e</sup> weight of his Stern, y<sup>e</sup> every Stroke is deadly inward. Satan y<sup>e</sup> cruel Enemy of souls exasperates y<sup>e</sup> wound. He discovers & charges sin upo y<sup>e</sup> Conscience, wth all its killing Aggravations. Wth visions of Horror, wth spectacles of Fear, wth scenes of Sorrow are presented to y<sup>e</sup> distracted Mind, by y<sup>e</sup> pines of Darkness?
Conscience wth turns y<sup>e</sup> sun into Darkness, and y<sup>e</sup> moon into Blood.

10th ever if soul wounded sinners sees or hears, afflicts him; wth ever he thinks torments him.
All y<sup>e</sup> Diversions in y<sup>e</sup> world, Business, pleasure, merry Conversation &c, are ineffectual to find Freedom fro<sup>m</sup> those things & furies in y<sup>e</sup> breast.
Those who in their pride & Polity have de-spis'd serious Religion, either as a fond Transport & extacy to be lov'd, or a dull melancholy about y<sup>e</sup> soul, yet w<sup>ch</sup> has set their fins in light before their Eyes, how chang'd, how confounded are y<sup>e</sup> at y<sup>e</sup> Ap<sup>o</sup>stition? How restles wth y<sup>e</sup> dreadful expectation of y<sup>e</sup> Doom y<sup>e</sup> attend, y<sup>e</sup> of Balshazzar in y<sup>e</sup> midst of his Cups, & that of Conulins, by a few words written on y<sup>e</sup> wall, was so terrified by his guilty conscience, y<sup>e</sup> his joints were loose; & nature sunk und<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> apprehension.
Now all these troubles of y<sup>e</sup> mind are but y<sup>e</sup> beginning
tice will severely exact of y<sup>e</sup> wicked in Hell.
Indeed these examples are rare, & by some lookt on as y<sup>e</sup> effects of distraction. But be convinced y<sup>e</sup> bold & ardent sinn<sup>r</sup>, who new felt y<sup>e</sup> things of an awaked conscience, wth extreme terrors seize up<sup>n</sup> y<sup>e</sup> wicked in y<sup>e</sup> other world, consider The apprehension sh<sup>ll</sup> be more clear & enlarge
wth a weight of clay; but y<sup>e</sup> of soul sh<sup>ll</sup> work wth y<sup>e</sup> quickest activity. The mind sh<sup>ll</sup> by an irresistable Light take a full view of all afflicting Objects. The most stupid & unconcern'd sinner, sh<sup>ll</sup> see & feel their mind state, & a glorious felicity y<sup>e</sup> wth fully lost, wth a mi-tery w<sup>ch</sup> are plung'd into, wth out any possibility of lifting it by false conceits, & receiving any Relief by y<sup>e</sup> error of Imagination.

The miserable wretch w<sup>ch</sup> remember how often he might have obtained Heaven, & did not, & am now tumbled into Hell, & shall say w<sup>ch</sup> himself how many times might I have prayed, but spent y<sup>e</sup> time, in sin, & vain company, & now I pray for it. There never wanted means of serving G but I never made use of y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I am therefore justly paid for all. Behold wretched soul, y<sup>e</sup> entertained thyself in pleasures, thou hast for joys & fooleries lost Heaven. If thou wouldest thou mightest have been a companion for Angels; if thou wouldest, thou mightest have been in eternal joy; & yet y<sup>e</sup> have left all for y<sup>e</sup> pleasure of a moment. O accursed miserable Creature, thy Redeem<sup>r</sup> paid & tryed if any man thirst let him; why w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> die, the offer of the Heav<sup>n</sup>, & y<sup>e</sup> despised him for a trifle. This was thy fault, & now y<sup>e</sup> suffer for it. And since y<sup>e</sup> wouldest not be happy w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> must be eternally cursed by him.

with universall Confusion, & ever growing Awarnet, we will see our sinners in y<sup>e</sup> great Days of Discovery, w<sup>ch</sup> all y<sup>e</sup> works of Darknes, shall be revealed before y<sup>e</sup> Angles & Saints. W<sup>ch</sup> all y<sup>e</sup> loves of th<sup>em</sup> shall be taken off; y<sup>e</sup> excuses & denials,
and their Breasts be transparent to y<sup>e</sup> eyes of all.
How will we be ashamed of their foul & permanent deformity in y<sup>e</sup> light of y<sup>e</sup> glorious presence!
How will we be astonished to app<sup>ear</sup> in all their Pollutions, before y<sup>e</sup> bright & immense Theatre?
How will we be confounded to stand in all their Guilt before y<sup>e</sup> sublime & severe Tribun<sup>al</sup>? How will we endure y<sup>e</sup> upbraiding of all their fins w<sup>ch</sup> we have so wickedly committed, & y<sup>e</sup> derision for y<sup>e</sup> Punishment we deservedly suffer? The holy Judge will laugh at their Calamity, & mock w<sup>ch</sup> their Fear kameth. — So these are y<sup>e</sup> men, y<sup>e</sup> made not of their portion, but perishing Vanities, y<sup>e</sup> puffed Tolly before Wisdom. The Devils will reproach you for y<sup>e</sup> scornful Advantage you had over you, y<sup>e</sup> as Children are seduced for things of Lustre to sit w<sup>ch</sup> real Treasures, so you were saily persuaded for y<sup>e</sup> Trifles of Time to enjoy their Happiness. Whether will we cause their Shame to go? Jer. 14. 12. Those black fins<sup>es</sup> here y<sup>e</sup> never change Colour for their Stilthing, y<sup>e</sup> are hardened by Custom in sin, are impenitrable to Shame, & even glory in their Shame, w<sup>ch</sup> glow at y<sup>e</sup> manifestation of their sordid
it shall be revived in their minds for ever.
No open Shame is joined y<sup>e</sup> greatest inward horror This passion so violent, penetrates y<sup>e</sup> Soul in all its faculties, & fastens it to y<sup>e</sup> afflicting Object.
The Causes of Horror are either y<sup>e</sup> Loss of some valued Good, or y<sup>e</sup> sense of some present evil.

now both these Causes, with all of heavy circumstances of it can multiply & aggravate Sorrow, meet in Hell & Centre of misery).
The Loss is inconceivably great. If Cain was banished from Society of Saints, where he was publicly worshiped, & by spiritual Revelations & visible Apparitions graciously made himself known, cried out in Anguish of soul my punishment is greater, <sup>and</sup> I can bear; how intolerable will <sup>be</sup> the separation from his glorious & joyful presence be? The damned are forever excluded from revisiting presence of G. His often seen how tenderly & impatiently of human Spirit recents of loss of a dear relation. Jacob for the supposed death of Joseph, was so overcome with grief, yet when all his sons & D<sup>ns</sup> rose up to comfort him, he refused to be comforted & I will go down mourning to the grave. Indeed this overwhelming sorrow is both a sin & a punishment. If of Loss of a poor frail Creature for a little while he so tormenting, how unupportable will of sorrow be for of Loss of blessed G forever? & Who can fully conceive of Exalt & Degrees of evil? For an evil rises in proportion to of good it deprives us of. It must therefore follow, of exalted blessedness being an infinite depriv<sup>g</sup> good, of Exclusion from it, is proportionably evil. And as of felicity of Saints results from of fruition of G in Heaven, & for Comparison with of contrary State, say of misery of of damned arises both from of that of lost Happiness, & from of lasting pain of torment you. It may be replied, if this be of utmost evil consequent to sin, of frustrating of it is like to deter but few from pleasing their sensual appetites. For carnal Men have such gross & vitiated Affections, yet are careless of spiritual Happiness, you cannot take, or see how good of it is. So this a clear answer may be given. In y<sup>e</sup> next State where y<sup>e</sup> wicked shall be forever without those carnal Objects, y<sup>e</sup> here deceive & delight you, their Apprehensions will be changed: you shall doublet und<sup>r</sup>stand, w<sup>h</sup> a happiness it is to enjoy G, & w<sup>h</sup> a misery to be ex-

there shall be weeping & gnashing of Teeth, some y<sup>e</sup>
your mind w<sup>ill</sup> Envy at y<sup>e</sup> sight of y<sup>e</sup> triumphant Glorious, of which you shall never be partakers?
cred Mansions of Light, see<sup>m</sup> make y<sup>e</sup> Loss of
who shall be cast into outer darkness.

gainst y<sup>e</sup> selves, as y<sup>e</sup> true Cause of their misery.
God G will make such a Discovery of his righteous
in y<sup>e</sup> Condemnation of y<sup>e</sup> wicked; but you shall be so convinced of it as not to be able to charge their Judge w<sup>ith</sup> any defect of Mercy, or excess of Rigor in his proceedings against you. As y<sup>e</sup> man
for his presumptuous Intrusion w<sup>ith</sup> out a wedding Garment, how comest thou in hither? was speechless: some will find no Plea for their Justifica-
w<sup>ith</sup> filenes & confusion. Their Conscience shall revive y<sup>e</sup> bitter remembrance of all y<sup>e</sup> method of divine mercy for their salvation, y<sup>e</sup> were infertile by their Contempt & Obstinacy. All y<sup>e</sup> Con-
of his Spirit, were like y<sup>e</sup> sowing of seed in y<sup>e</sup> stony ground, y<sup>e</sup> took no root, & never came to perfection. All his terrible threatenings were but as thunder to y<sup>e</sup> deaf, or lightning to y<sup>e</sup> blind y<sup>e</sup> little affects them.

The bounty of his providence, designed to lead you to Repentance, had wth some effect, as wth thorns of Heaven upo<sup>n</sup> Briars & Thorns, w<sup>ch</sup> make you grow y<sup>e</sup> faster. And how w<sup>ld</sup> it surage if damned y<sup>e</sup> were y<sup>e</sup> sole causes of this misery? wth repentings will be kindled within you for
dearly purchased, & sincerely offered to you.

wth a fiery indignatio<sup>n</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> it be to their Torment, w<sup>ch</sup> we <sup>great</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> ing to save you, w<sup>ch</sup> were so willful as to be damned? w<sup>ch</sup> will never forgive you
w<sup>ch</sup> if enjoyed a thousand years, cannot re-
of Hell for an hour; w<sup>ch</sup> must be deprived of

I leave til Afternoons.

I proceed to shew the thing to discourse upon of Eternity of misery of Damned.

In the forenoon, I was endeavoring to give you a Description of the pains of the Damned; but after all, not was it, however dreadful, was but yet faint Emblem, & metaphor of what is much more violent in Reality. For as, after all of glorious things yet are spoken of in City of God, Eye hath not seen nor Ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man to conceive, yet he that prepared for such as love him: so the Treasures of his Wrath, reserved for the day of this battle, are as much beyond our Imaginations, for who knoweth the power of his Anger? And yet we think, an Ocean of fire & brimstone is enough to rouse up our stupidity, lest we be tumbled into it. And the Eternity of their misery, makes it, above all other Considerations intolerable.

Our Saviour repeats it third in the space of a few Verses, so terrify those who spare some favourite Corruption, yet in Hell their Worm dies not, and the fire is never quenched.

He will never reverse his sentence, & yet the wicked change their State. How willingly would earnest men rare of word Etern. out of their tunes; but to their grief, yet find it joined to the Felicity of Heaven, & the Torment of Hell.

All the Tears of those forlorn Wretches shall never quench one spark of the fire. Where is the delicious Fare, of mine, of purple, & all of earst delight of the rich man? Yet are all changed into a contrary State of misery, & yet State is fixed forever.
For his vanishing Paradise he descended into an everlasting Hell. In this yet Vengeance of is infinitely more heavy, yet of most terrible Execution from man.

Humane Justice & power can inflict but one Death, (yet w<sup>ch</sup> be soon dispatcht) upon a male-factor who may be worthy to suffer an hundred Deaths. If he be condemned to y<sup>e</sup> fire, we cannot make him live & die together, to burn & not to be consumed. But y<sup>e</sup> will so far support y<sup>e</sup> damned in their Torments, y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> shall always have strength to heal, tho' no strength patiently to endure y<sup>e</sup>. Those extreme Torments which would extinguish y<sup>e</sup> present Life in a moment, shall be suffered for ever. This Consideration infinitely aggravates their misery, For y<sup>e</sup> lost Soul, racked with y<sup>e</sup> fearful Contemplation of w<sup>ch</sup> it must suffer forever, feels as it were at once all y<sup>e</sup> evils y<sup>e</sup> shall term it, in its whole Duration. The perpetuity of y<sup>e</sup> misery is always felt by prevision. This is y<sup>e</sup> cruel breaking of y<sup>e</sup> bones upon y<sup>e</sup> wheel, w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> say is tormented by y<sup>e</sup> foresight of misery, y<sup>e</sup> without allays shall continue in y<sup>e</sup> circulation of etern. legs. To make this more sensible let us consider, y<sup>e</sup> pain makes y<sup>e</sup> mind obser-
Time with a quick & silent Motion, insensibly flies away. But in Troubles, y<sup>e</sup> hours are tedious; in violent pains we reckon y<sup>e</sup> minutes as long. It is observable, how passionately y<sup>e</sup> afflicted p<sup>er</sup>son complains, w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> least off for ever? w<sup>ch</sup> be he favorable no more?
Doth his promise fail for evermore? Hath he forgotten to be gracious? Hath he in language shut up his tend<sup>er</sup> mercies? P<sup>er</sup> y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup>.
In w<sup>ch</sup> various pathetic forms, does he express y<sup>e</sup> same affection? Tho' he had appearance y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> gracious & would not be always severe, yet his anguish forced so him

Complaints, as if  $\frac{1}{2}$  month of his Trouble were a year. But  $\frac{1}{2}$  strains of sorrow are among  $\frac{1}{2}$  damned, who besides  $\frac{1}{2}$  present sense of their Misery, have always in their Thoughts of vast Eternity, wherein  $\frac{1}{2}$  must suffer it?

When three terrible Evils were propounded to David's Choice, pining famine for three years or bloody War for three months, or devouring pestilence for three days, he had  $\frac{1}{2}$  choicest, tho' ~~in some un-<sup>der</sup> same~~ same Circumstances, & in itself $\frac{1}{2}$  greatest Evil. Many say Days must pass & other Judgments, where ~~death~~ <sup>by Anticipation</sup> such a variety of shapes would be presented to  $\frac{1}{2}$  mind  $\frac{1}{2}$  of lingering Expectation of it, would grievously afflict  $\frac{1}{2}$ ; whereas  $\frac{1}{2}$  fury of  $\frac{1}{2}$  pestilence would be soon over.
But  $\frac{1}{2}$  damned have not this Relief; but shall be tormented Day & night forever & ever. How earnestly  $\frac{1}{2}$  cry out for death but cannot find it?
Yet a favor would  $\frac{1}{2}$  account it to be annihilated?
No? How certainly, if  $\frac{1}{2}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  Evils in  $\frac{1}{2}$  present State, are so multiplied  $\frac{1}{2}$  little or no comfort is left; or so violent,  $\frac{1}{2}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  afflicted person cannot enjoy  $\frac{1}{2}$  & refresh his sorrowful spirit, death is chosen rather  $\frac{1}{2}$  life; it cannot be imagined $\frac{1}{2}$  in  $\frac{1}{2}$  future State, where  $\frac{1}{2}$  misery is extreme & nothing remains to allay it,  $\frac{1}{2}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  damned should be in love with  $\frac{1}{2}$  unhappy god of vengeance, & not chuse an absolute Extinction if it might be. Among all  $\frac{1}{2}$  Form<sup>s</sup>, with human justice was invented for  $\frac{1}{2}$  punishment of crimes, there none held more rigorous  $\frac{1}{2}$  of fire, by reason of  $\frac{1}{2}$  great Activity of  $\frac{1}{2}$  Element.
So full of heat of  $\frac{1}{2}$  fire be with  $\frac{1}{2}$  shall be of Executioner of  $\frac{1}{2}$  Justice of  $\frac{1}{2}$  of Vengeance.
Why would not esteem it an hideous Torment if he was to be burnt alive an hundred times, & his Torment was to last every Time for the space of an Hour? Wth wth compassionate Eyes wants it wants look up<sup>on</sup> such a miserable wretch? Nevertheless, wthout Doubt any of it damned in Hell wants receive this as a great Happiness to end his Torment wth those hundred Times burning. For wth comparison if there be twist an hund<sup>red</sup> Hours burning, wth former space of Time betwixt every hour, & to burn an hund<sup>red</sup> Year of continu<sup>ed</sup> Torment? And wth Comparison wth there be, between burning, for an hund<sup>red</sup> y<sup>ears</sup> space, & to be burning wthout Interruption, as long as G<sup>od</sup> is G<sup>od</sup>. For it is

Tongues for pain & blasphemy of G<sup>od</sup> of Heaven because of their pains. Rev. 16. 10. 11. The Torments & plagues of those impenitent Idolat-ers are a true Representation of a State of
heavy Punishment up<sup>on</sup> fear & Conscience in y<sup>e</sup> Damned. For as y<sup>e</sup> Soul & body in their State of Union in this Life were both guilty,
sin, so tis equ<sup>al</sup> wth requite, y<sup>e</sup> hand felt & pen<sup>al</sup> Effects of it. And no word can fully express y<sup>e</sup> terrible Ingredients of their misery. The Punishment wth be in proportion to y<sup>e</sup> Glory of G<sup>od</sup>. Masterly it is provoked, & y<sup>e</sup> extent of his Power.
And as y<sup>e</sup> Soul was y<sup>e</sup> princip<sup>al</sup> and y<sup>e</sup> body but an Accessory in y<sup>e</sup> works of sin, so its capacious Faculties shall be more tormented, y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> limited faculties of y<sup>e</sup> outward parts. The fiery attributes of
and concentrated up<sup>on</sup> damned Spirits. How will

toward you to Hell? wth Impatience & Indignation against y<sup>e</sup> Justice, for their willful<sup>e</sup> Sin, & just Cause of it? How will y<sup>e</sup> curse their Creation, & wish their utter Extinction, as if sin<sup>n</sup>. Remedy of their Mercy? But all their ardent wishes are in vain; for y<sup>e</sup> Guilt of sin will never be expiated, nor y<sup>e</sup> so far reconciled as to annihilate you.

Is this y<sup>e</sup> misery & state of bloody souls after death,
are y<sup>e</sup> worst of Evils incident to man.

a greater Evil, y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> most miserable being.

But it is neither so, nor can it be so.
never dies, are much more bitter y<sup>e</sup> death.

Hours or Days, these are y<sup>e</sup> unreleas'd Torments of Eternity. And as for annihilation it is a favor toward y<sup>e</sup> damned but it!

Indeed if we respect y<sup>e</sup> Glory of G<sup>d</sup> Justice, which is exemplified & illustrated, in y<sup>e</sup> Ruin of these mi-
monuments thereof, y<sup>e</sup> not to be at all.

But with respect to y<sup>e</sup> selves, we may say as y<sup>e</sup> S<sup>c</sup>. of y<sup>e</sup> Gen of y<sup>e</sup> position, Mat. 26. 24. y<sup>e</sup> God had it been for you if you had never been born. For a mans soul to be of no other Use y<sup>e</sup> a Vesp<sup>e</sup>l of Wrath, to receive y<sup>e</sup> indignation & be fill'd wth y<sup>e</sup> fury of G<sup>d</sup>, purely an

reasonable Soul, is better  $y^e$   $y^e$ . For a lusty  $y^e$ sick for Death but it flies  $pro$   $y^e$ . The Van mortality of their souls, with ~~their~~ <sup>their</sup> dignity & privilege above other creatures, is now their misery  $y^e$   $y^e$  with continually ~~tried~~ <sup>tried</sup> & perpetuates their shame. there is a Being with out 4. Comfort of it; a Being only to howl & tremble under Divine Wrath: a being therefore with  $y^e$ would gladly exchange, so  $th$  of contemptible & shly, or most loathsome  $th$ , but  $y^e$  cant be.
2. wth a dolful Change desc  $y^e$  Death of wicked men make upo  $y^e$ . No soon<sup>r</sup> is  $y^e$   $y^e$ of a wicked  $y^e$  kept out of his own Door at Death, but  $y^e$  Sergeants of Hell are immediately upo it, serving  $y^e$  dreadful summons on  $y^e$  Law condemned wretch. How are all a man apprehensions changed in a mom<sup>t</sup>?
Out of wth a deep sleep are most, & out of wth a pleasant Dream of Heaven, are some awaked & startled at Death! How quickly wth all a fin<sup>n</sup>  $y^e$  smite be damped, & turned into howl-ings in this World, if Conscience was but thoroly awaked. It is but for  $y^e$  to change our apprehensions now, & it would be done in a moment. But  $y^e$  Eyes of most mens souls are not opened, til Death has shut their bodily Eyes; &  $y^e$  wth a sad & sudden change is made in one Day. O think wth it is to pass,  $pro$  all  $y^e$  Delights of this world, into  $y^e$   $y^e$ ments & miseries of  $y^e$  world:  $pro$   $y^e$  Depth of Security to  $y^e$  Extremity of Desperation.
From Friends & Relations, to  $y^e$  society of damned Spirits. I wth a Change is here! Had a gracious Change been made upo their Hearts by Grace, no such dolful Change could have been made upo their state by death.

3 This shews of most deplorable Depreciation of y<sup>e</sup> minds & wits of men, y<sup>e</sup> chuse sin wth thinly painted out wth pleasure, notwithstanding y<sup>e</sup> most dreadful & durable Form<sup>ts</sup> of certain Consequences of it. Amazing Folly! y<sup>e</sup> either believe or do not, y<sup>e</sup> sterner Form<sup>ts</sup> of Hell. If y<sup>e</sup> do not, how prodigious is their Impiety! If
their vicious Affections. Some seem to have pained their hearts & faces against all reproof and by an open Contempt of Scripture threatenings are past reclaiming. y<sup>e</sup> seem now to be fearless of y<sup>e</sup> Judgmt, y<sup>e</sup> thob thereof make
w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> word of y<sup>e</sup> righteous & w<sup>ch</sup> now y<sup>e</sup> despise, sh<sup>ll</sup> irresistibly & immediately, like Lightning shot fro Heaven destroy y<sup>e</sup> wth out mercy prevent. Some in y<sup>e</sup> Christian Ch<sup>h</sup>. who profess & presume y<sup>e</sup> are so, yet by living indulgently in their present or profitable sins discover their Faith is counterfeit, or such a superficial Assent to y<sup>e</sup> Truth of y<sup>e</sup> word y<sup>e</sup> it is not avail y<sup>e</sup> at y<sup>e</sup> last. Unfeigned faith of y<sup>e</sup> divine threatenings, produces such a fear, as w<sup>ch</sup> make men circumspect ovr their hearts & ways. The fear of a present destructive Leve, makes men circumspect ovr their ways.
Is recorded y<sup>e</sup> son of Amur of Israel was in pursuit of y<sup>e</sup> Philistines, Saul, to compleat y<sup>e</sup> Victory, forbade upo pain of Death, y<sup>e</sup> any should taste food, till y<sup>e</sup> sun was down.
In y<sup>e</sup> chuse of their enemies, y<sup>e</sup> pass thro a wood dropping wth thorns; yet how did y<sup>e</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> restrain y<sup>e</sup>! We are told, y<sup>e</sup> people feared

men truly believe & fear of Law of God, that being Hell for sin, would ye dare to commit it, tho invited by pleasant Temptations?
W<sup>h</sup> person tho inflamed with Thirst would drink a Glass of cool Liquor, if he suspected y<sup>e</sup> deadly poison was mixt wth it? And if Men were persuaded y<sup>e</sup> sin is attended wth etern<sup>e</sup> Death, would ye drink in Iniquity like Water?
The De<sup>v</sup>l<sup>s</sup> y<sup>e</sup> selves are not able to conquer y<sup>e</sup> fear of Judgm<sup>t</sup> to come; ye believe & tremble, but yet how many will rush on in sin, wth
be y<sup>e</sup> portion of such as will not cut off y<sup>e</sup> right hand, & pluck out y<sup>e</sup> right eye, separate their dearest Corruptions fr<sup>o</sup> you.
 Astonishing ~~examples~~ <sup>examples</sup>! How many will not discern nor censure y<sup>e</sup> folly in y<sup>e</sup> subject wth ye will condemn in others for extreme madness? If one riotously launches away his estate, & for y<sup>e</sup> short pleasure of a Year, be reduced wth y<sup>e</sup> prodig<sup>e</sup> to extreme poverty, & imprisoned all his Life after, would he not be esteem'd to have been beside himself? yet this is a very tolerable Case in Comparison of exposing y<sup>e</sup> soul to etern<sup>e</sup> Torments, for y<sup>e</sup> pleasure of sin is such as but for a season.
1. In y<sup>e</sup> Consideration of y<sup>e</sup> punishment determined for sin, we may understand how dear our Sins are to y<sup>e</sup> S<sup>on</sup>. The Rector & Judge of y<sup>e</sup> world, would not release y<sup>e</sup> guilty wthout a Ransom; nor y<sup>e</sup> surety wthout satisfaction. And y<sup>e</sup> Son of y<sup>e</sup> most wthingly & compassionately, gave his precious blood, y<sup>e</sup> price of our Redemption. O y<sup>t</sup> we might feel our d<sup>r</sup> Obligations to him, who has deliv<sup>er</sup>d us fro y<sup>e</sup> work to come, & purchased for us a felicity perfect & without End. I would not open & disparage one work, to advance & extol another; but tis a Truth y<sup>t</sup> shines wth its own Light, & is declared by our savor, y<sup>t</sup> our Redemption fro Hell to Heaven, is a more excellent Benefit y<sup>e</sup> our Creation; inasmuch as our well being, is better y<sup>e</sup> our Being, & a tern<sup>e</sup> misery is infinitely worse y<sup>e</sup> mere not Being. Our savor speaks of Judas, it had been better for him, if he had never been born.

How engaging is y<sup>e</sup> Lear of 8, who raised us fro y<sup>e</sup> bottom of Hell to y<sup>e</sup> bosom of 8, y<sup>e</sup> Seat of Happiness. if his perfections were not most amiable & attractive, yet y<sup>t</sup> he died for us, should make him y<sup>e</sup> Object of our most ardent Affections. To those who believe he is precious. To those who have felt their undone Condition, & y<sup>t</sup> by his merits & mediation are restored to y<sup>e</sup> favor of 8, y<sup>e</sup> are freed fro tormenting fears, & revived wth y<sup>e</sup> sweetest Hopes, he is, & will be eminently & eternally precious. Blessing & Honor & glory, be to him y<sup>t</sup> sitteth upon y<sup>e</sup> Throne, and say Lamb for ever & ever

5 Let us steadfastly believe, & frequently confid<sup>e</sup>
may renounce it wth y<sup>e</sup> devout Abhorrence & forsake it forever. We are assured fro y<sup>e</sup> Wisdom & Compassion of our saviors y<sup>t</sup> tis a powerful means to mortifie y<sup>e</sup> Inclination to sin, & to induce us to prevent and resist all Temptations.

The subtle Tempter cannot present any motives, & to a rectified mind, will make him eligible. Let y<sup>e</sup> Scales be even, & put into
n<sup>l</sup>. Felicity; how light are y<sup>e</sup> against y<sup>e</sup>
If there were any possible Comparison between deluding transient Vanities, & y<sup>e</sup> Happiness y<sup>t</sup> is substantive & satisfying forever, & y<sup>e</sup> choice would be more difficult, & y<sup>e</sup> mistake less culpable; but y<sup>e</sup> vanish into nothing in
would any one chuse y<sup>e</sup> Enjoyment of y<sup>e</sup> most exquisite pleasures for a year, & afternot be content to burn in a furnace for a day; much

Try but y<sup>e</sup> firing wth a flame of y<sup>e</sup> Candle, & y<sup>e</sup> will discover y<sup>e</sup> weakness. W<sup>h</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Memm-brance of sens<sup>l</sup>. Delights, alleg<sup>y</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Torments of y<sup>e</sup> damned? W<sup>h</sup> can. Suits are most inflamed, & Objects are present, pain will extinguish y<sup>e</sup> Pleasure of y<sup>e</sup> senses. And if ac-tu<sup>l</sup>. Enjoyment cannot afford Delight, w<sup>h</sup>
up<sup>n</sup> past pleasures in y<sup>e</sup> Fancy & memory reflect y<sup>e</sup> damned in their extreme Torments? No. ~~The~~ The Remembrance, will infinitely increase their Anguish, y<sup>t</sup> for such fleeting & short pleasures, y<sup>e</sup> brot up<sup>n</sup>

To conclude. Consider, my Friends, whether ye are able to dwell in this devouring Fire, whether ye will make choice of this habitation, in etern. Flames? This Fire is prepared for y<sup>e</sup>. Dev. & his legions. Consider
and take part of y<sup>e</sup>. Dogs of their Chalice?
I tell thee there's no medium; either thou must forsake thy fins, or else thou must be given up a prey to this stern. Torment: When ye look to y<sup>e</sup>. Ocean, imagine with y<sup>e</sup>. flocks how long it would be before all y<sup>e</sup>. water would be carried away by a little Bird, coming there once in an hundred years. The Water would at length be carried away, & brot down land; but Eternity never will.
When Dives, was wrapt up in purple Flames, & lifted up his eyes in y<sup>e</sup>. fiery Lake, he having sine Brethren, pathetically intreated Aba-saram, to save him, lest ye should come into y<sup>e</sup>. place of Torment. But this he was denyed; and Aba- told him ye had Mesed y<sup>e</sup>. prophets, let ye hear ye. and this was his name. yea, & in these Last Days he has sent his own son y<sup>e</sup>. Prince of y<sup>e</sup>. prophets. and will ye hear him? In a word; Knowing
most high. O Remember twill be a most dreadfull thing to gad down Hell after such a clear Day of Purple Grace. To such, is reserved

Arise ye profane ones, ye ignorant ones, ye formal Hypocrites, & strangers to ye power of Grace; flee fro ye wrath to come. Arise ye old one & young one, ye great ones & small ones, lift up ye Eyes, & take a view of ye eternall State. Let not ye young adventure to delay any longer, nor ye old put off this work any more. Today if ye will hear his voice haideen not ye hearts; lest he swear in his wrath ye shall never enter into his Rest.
~~And some may say a deaf~~ And the same wicked standing wth I say may receive laterall in ye ways of their heart, & sight of their eyes; yet let ye remembre y<sup>e</sup> for all these things ye bring y<sup>e</sup> to Judgment. Take warning in Time; w<sup>ch</sup> ones of matter of ye change is an up & shut of door, ye may knock & cry, & cry, but ye will never get in. O think of a Time of waking; w<sup>ch</sup> certainly comes & grant it may be before ye eyes are closed by Death; for if not til ye, ye must hear y<sup>e</sup> Awful sentence at y<sup>e</sup> great cath<sup>ed</sup> should be a more fatal, w<sup>ch</sup> is e<sup>n</sup> to make y<sup>e</sup> joints to tremble, depart fro me ye carried into everlasting fire.

Look diligently my friends, lest any of ye should fail of ye Grace of G: Least there be a profane person as Han, who for one morsel of meat sold his Birthright, & afterward, w<sup>ch</sup> he would have inherited of blessing, he was rejected.

The Question is asked, why a future life is not mentioned in the five Books of Moses, called the Pentateuch.

The fact does not exist, which is implied by the Question.

A future life is implied and in numerous passages, though this might not appear in casual reading, nor without comparing Scripture with Scripture.

The following train of thought will shew this.

1. ----- Passages in the Pentateuch must contain that meaning which is given them by the Holy Spirit in the New Testament. Otherwise, God is not true in the Bible, not from them.
2. ----- That meaning, in very numerous places, is declared to be the intimation of a future state. A person familiar with Scripture will, on reflection, recollect numerous instances [Proofs also are given below.]
3. It follows necessarily that the five books of Moses contain, not merely, temporal promises but declarations of a future life.
4. ----- The fact that such meaning does not lie on the surface but is obtained by investigation and by comparing Scripture with Scripture, is only the same fact that meets us in all the books of Scripture. For Example

The Gospels set forth a narrative of the life of Our Saviour & simply doctrines & duties, either previously given in the Old Testament (as the Unity of God, the duty of prayer &c) or subsequently given in the Epistles. These implied doctrines and duties are discovered in the same way.

The question is asked, why a future life is not

Columbus. —

It is a matter to be regretted & yet it is true that almost every great benefactor of the human race has been doomed to a temporary disgrace. The envy, malice & blind incredulity of less fortunate aspirants to immortality are sure to vent their spite upon him & subject him to all manner of abuse. You can scarcely find a great invention, which has received the honor, it merited, while the inventor was living: and fewer still are the great discoveries, which have contributed to the wealth or happiness of the discoverer. Perchance a few, a very few have been fully compensated for toil & study, and have basked in the sunshine of contemporary favor. But the ruling passion of mankind seems to be, at the moment when a man would expect a shower of honor, to reward him by a most ungenerous persecution. Perhaps this is well in the end. It may teach men to look <sup>for something</sup> above mere contemporary praise; to seek something more noble & more lasting than present favor. But hard, hard it must be for the man of proud spirit to be degraded & trampled upon by the very recipients of his favor, by those who are bound by all the ties of honor & gratitude to defend & support him! — to the realization of a grand conception. His youthful energy & his maturer strength had been exerted unsparingly towards that one object, ever, so near to his heart. He had cheerfully submitted to toil, privation & suffering in the hope of its attainment. He had staked, character, reputation & property upon it. The sneers & scoffs of his countrymen, the inconstancy & mutiny of his followers had alike failed to turn him from it. He had succeeded! He had discovered a new world! He had conferred wealth & power upon the Sovereigns, who had aided his enterprise, and imparted a new lustre & importance to the Spanish crown. — Now he has grown old in well-doing. The deeply furrowed brow, & the silvered locks bespeak both age & life-long care. Yet his step is firm & his form unbent. That natural majesty & conscious strength, which are the emblems of real superiority, discover themselves in every movement. Look upon him & say, is he not happy in the consciousness of the good he has done? Is he not beloved by his Sovereigns & his countrymen? How can they do less than recompense the hardships of his youth & manhood, by kindness & respect to him in age! But, Ah! Some natures are but seldom visited by kindness & gratitude: — Some hearts have never felt the glowing warmth of their presence! And even Columbus was not spared the misery of finding this too true!

A remarkable ~~victim~~ <sup>victim</sup> to this most (unwelcome) trait of human nature was Columbus, the discoverer of America.

While, in the "new world," he is nobly conducting the affairs of his rightful government, quelling discord & insurrection, & striving by every possible means to promote the interests of his

of his Spanish rulers, envy & malice are busily at work with his character. All at once, without warning, without trial, & even without the slightest knowledge of the nature of his offence, he is thrown into irons & exposed to the most humiliating insults. When he learns that this is done by his Sovereigns' command he makes no resistance - he suffers no brother or follower to strike a blow for his deliverance. Crushed in spirit he bows his head, "whitened by age & anxious thought", in humble <sup>submission</sup>, & receives the heavy iron upon his weary limbs without a murmur. The execrations of the fickle crowd, the lying, false accusing tongue of the ambitious villain "pass unheeded by". He feels not these insults, only as they are indications of something else - something worse. It is ingratitude, the ingratitude of friends, of Sovereigns, that he feels: - this stings his very soul. From them, in whose service he had exhausted the vigor of his youth & the strength of his manhood, from them came this insult - this degradation! He shows no resentment, no anger, no sudden outburst of passion, but the natural bitterness of a heart deeply moved by the sense of wrong. Let your imagination picture to your mind an old man whose character is unswayed by a single crime, whose soul has stamped its greatness in every feature - an old man, whose whole life has been crowded by deeds grand & sublime, by actions untainted by selfishness or avarice; & tell me to whom could you point more deserving of reverence & love - less open to insult - less liable to abuse? Now follow this noble spirit: behold him under the galling chain - his soul stung with ingratitude & his body aching with pain - the song of hope, that sweet comforter, hushed within him - the past floating before him as something unreal, a dream, and the future dark & fearfully uncertain! Can you restrain a feeling of indignation? Can the heart or the head find the least palliating circumstance, the slightest excuse for such treatment?

Nothing is more unnatural or revolting to our feelings than the conduct of those who, through envy & avarice, subjected the old age of Columbus to such unwarranted abuse. - None ~~are more~~ are more deserving, or more likely to receive the execrations of posterity than those vile persecutors, who scrupled <sup>not</sup> to violate the most sacred shrine of Virtue, who showed no remorse, though humbling, & trampling upon one of earth's choicest spirits.

Columbus was a Christian. Revenge never mingled itself in his thoughts or in his actions. When he appeared at the court of Ferdinand & Isabella, the tear of sympathy which his appearance & the recollection of his recent suffering elicited quickly touched his heart & dissipated the bitterness of his soul. His pent up feelings could restrain themselves no longer. but, like the injured child, he burst into tears. He asked not revenge - he demanded no punishment; but to his rightful honor & his own good name he still clung with eagerness. - These he wished to bequeath to his children & his family as the wealth due to his service.

And these belong to him & are his. Though his lot was hard and his last moments were soothed by none of that favor from which his countrymen or his Sovereign, which gratitude & even decency demanded: yet he has reaped an ample reward in the regard of posterity: And the name of Columbus familiar to every child of every nation will ever be held in grateful remembrance; and his fame, untarnished by time, will descend to the latest generations of men! The parent will point to him as a noble example for emulation. — The hero will find in him the model of success. — The child of Fortune will imitate his stability, & decision of character. — And the Christian will discover in Columbus a spirit of self-denial generosity & forgiveness, worthy the source, whence flow all noble qualities in their purity — the Savior of mankind.

Examination Theme

March 22. 1850

The greatest & purest motive of the student, the motive which will lead him to forsake every thing else, to forego all the dissipating pleasures of society, to forget the smile of love and the voice of friendship for books, with an occasional draught of Nature's silent-beauty, is the love of knowledge itself. But human nature is such that this is seldom if ever the primary incentive to study. A selfishness is apt to be the corner-stone to all mental structure. Perchance you may laugh at this and say a poor foundation! Many a man, however, has been obliged, after a considerable structure building has been raised, to return and supplant his old foundation. - Many a student has proceeded far in his intellectual structure and, finding it weak and tottering, has been obliged to begin again, to dig up the old & lay a new foundation. One of the first motives to extend the education beyond the common track, beyond the narrow(minded) utilitarian principle, is ambition. Sometimes fame - the applause of men - is the mighty eminence for which the ambitious spirit will consume the midnight-oil. Sometimes the desire of power, and of influence (the stepping stone to power) will become a powerful incentive to mental application. And oftener far the mighty dollar will influence the restless spirit to make the intellect and all it can contain, subservient to the pocket. Low as it <sup>the motive</sup> is, riches or rather the desire of them will make man study night and day. The most intricate problem, he will fathom, the broad and arid field of metaphysics he will traverse, when money is to be his reward. Almost all mankind, in fine, are induced to explore the field of science for the purpose of gratifying ambitious motives. How often they reap the reward they seek, and are ready to say with another: What's ambition? 'tis a glorious cheat! But a few, thank fortune, by whatever motives they were induced to commence, forget or entirely lose sight of those motives, in the desire and interest which a little knowledge and the first dawnings of science awaken.

The Maker of the Universe has made man with a soul. It was evidently his intention that that soul should render to Him its highest, its gratuitous homage. All the beauty and excellence of the material Universe would be evidently useless without the soul to delight in it and appreciate its value. But the soul without any special cultivation, either soul moral or intellectual, the soul as it exists in <sup>the</sup> savage (tribes, where even the light of history dawns upon it only through vague tradition,) cannot possibly render to God, as the source of its existence, the highest homage of which the human soul is capable. Hence another pure and noble motive to study; not only that we ourselves may better understand the workmanship of creation and more highly appreciate the rich blessings we enjoy; but that through us the less enlightened & less privileged portion of mankind may have an avenue to the untold enjoyments of "high intellectual & moral endowments."

You say perchance study nature, and that will suffice. Does the savage - does the ignorant mind study nature? Does the indolent, sluggish intellect study nature? Who can better study & comprehend the study of nature than he who studies metaphysics - than he who investigates the laws of the human mind and is able to trace there the workings of Supreme Intelligence - the perfection of every art?

"The Bible belongs to ages past. It was written in a language that the most do not understand. Care you not whether it be true or false? Is it of no importance to throw all the light you can around it, so that it may be studied & believed? It is true that God has power to make conviction strike the heart at once; but this is not his will. Human agency begins & completes almost every design. Men translated the Bible and still translates it from language to language. Does any one suppose that this could be done with limited <sup>study</sup>? Such a work must certainly require education, seclusion and labor. Then we may safely conclude that the highest & purest motives that ever actuate man, will lead him first to the pursuit of knowledge, as the only medium through which he can render truly grateful praise to the Author of his existence.

Let us now before leaving this part of our subject briefly review the motives which may induce a man to become a scholar. Firstly & generally it is ambition be-st for fame, power influence or wealth: Secondly the love of knowledge & of truth, which is often, though not essentially consequent <sup>upon</sup> to ambition. Thirdly the expansion and cultivation <sup>of the mind</sup> as something especially necessary to the highest homage of the heart (which is) due to a great & beneficent Being. Fourthly a correct understanding of the Scriptures, and the obligation, we are under to Divine Providence to carry out His designs by the translation & transmission of them.

Are not the above sufficient motives to induce us to cultivate the intellect to the greatest extent in our power? If you are selfish, you may attain your wishes through the medium of study! If you are ambitious of power, mankind bow with ready submission to the learned: - or if it is your wish to be fully able to appreciate the beautiful workmanship of Creation & make your soul truly grateful for the bountiful bestowment of your numerous blessings, there is scarcely any limit to the knowledge you must ~~attain~~ acquire. If you wish to become a benefactor to the human race and transmit to posterity something useful & interesting, become a scholar! In fine

purest kind, that enjoyment, which needs no excitement to keep it alive; seek it in deep & continued study.

It is not absolutely necessary (should my introduction appear to suggest this opinion), I say, it is not absolutely necessary for the scholar to make books his only study. In fact the most skillful philosopher, as he pursues his studies & investigations, keeps the book of nature constantly open before him, to which he may refer for the most striking illustrations and the strongest confirmations of truth. Nor is it essential or even expedient for the student to shun all intercourse with his fellow men.

The study of human <sup>nature</sup> lays open one of the most interesting and fruitful sources of thought and is surely a prerequisite to any good degree of mental cultivation.
Yet the scholar must submit to a certain degree of reclusion. He is not at liberty to pursue this & that at pleasure. Would he originate anything in any department of science - would he confer a benefit on the world by the discovery of some new & great principle, he must make himself acquainted, thoroughly acquainted, with all the existing knowledge on the subject, upon which he purposes to throw new light. Notice for a moment the science of mathematics. Can any one suppose that he could add anything new & interesting to this department of knowledge without deep & continued investigation? This science has not yet reached its utmost limit-perfection. Thousands of new discoveries are yet to be made: Thousands of useful and essential improvements are consequent upon every discovery. Think you the giddy, thoughtless mind, the superficial scholar competent to tastes like these? Must not the common pleasures of life, the passing & delusive enjoyments of society be renounced? It is true that "man cannot serve God & Mammon". - It is equally true that the scholar cannot serve two masters. if he is subservient to passion and corrupt desire, the love of truth & knowledge will be far from his soul! And, moreover, as the love of the true God, once implanted in the Christian's <sup>soul</sup> heart, utterly excludes the God of wealth; so the love of truth and its investigation will supersede and ultimately eradicate from the student's heart the desire of transient pleasure - The Ball-room, the Glee-club or the Gambling-galoon could afford but poor satisfaction to the man, whose desires, whose will and, in fine, whose whole intellect, were absorbed in the pursuit of knowledge. He would not, with the stern moralist say that it is wrong for the young &

A Messrs

Mr President:

Amid the numerous excitements & the all absorbing events incident to College life, I fear we have been crudely unmindful of the departure of one of our most-respected members - one who, for a whole year was so conspicuous in our midst. Permit me, now, in my humble way, to call your attention & direct it to him whom you saw fit to exalt with distinguished honor & who so faithfully & satisfactorily performed the many arduous, responsible duties which <sup>usually</sup> devolve upon the third of Whose's standing Committee. Before ~~presenting~~ presenting the numberless good qualities, which characterized him while with us, & which have bound him to us by many a continuous link of gratitude & love, let us take a brief retrospective view of the rise & progress of this distinguished individual - from the promising, intelligent child of anomalous birth, to the refined & popular young student. The first faint-glimmerings of consciousness, which gave him knowledge of the external world, taught him that the longings of his tender

Heart could never be soothed by the sweet kind voice of maternal love; Imbedded in the lap of maiden aunt he looked in vain for the smile of affection - he listened in vain to catch the soft-humming accents, by which the <sup>gentle</sup> "mother" lulled to sleep her restless infant. But nature had given him too big a heart - to be easily crushed. soon emerging from the happy state of unconscious infantile bliss, his first step in a philanthropic course, spoke volumes for his virtuous greatness. What was it? Astonishment! Although but 10 yrs of age our lamented brother immediately undertook the <sup>almost</sup> superhuman work of regenerating the ~~world~~. He succeeded! & in time the purity of his life & character won him the power from on high. Not only of regenerating the <sup>souls of</sup> ~~world~~ of men, but of directing his own energetic mind to the true source of wisdom - a college education.

Here then we find him poor & friendless - yet humble & submissive, gentle & forbearing - obliging to his classmates & beloved by them - respectful to his instructors & ever ready to do their slightest bidding.
Is it strange that he acquired such a strong overpowering influence? Is it strange that the Professors took him under their more immediate protection - & granted him so many facilities for acquiring with untold rapidity the Latin & the Greek - that they encouraged his healthful exercise by loaning their noble to Steeds? Is it strange that his mates felt the his superiority & acknowledged it, by acting the parts of Butlers & Minions - now pouring for him the cup of wine - now supporting him weak & dizzy, so as to quicken the functions of Nature?

I need not enlarge upon his character, for I have but to mention him & a thousand cherished remembrances rush upon the mind, a thousand benevolent acts imprint his welcome image upon the grateful heart. Dear to every Sophomore is the name of Pop! Time's effacing finger will never blot him from remembrance. When in the days of his prime he shall become the fascinating orator of the Land - when his praise shall be sung upon every lip & his touching eloquence shall swell every heart - then, Brothers Sophomores, then will you rejoice, that God, in his Providence was pleased to grant you such a classmate!
Then will the respect & the reverence which you here extended to your classmate recur to your minds & fill your hearts with gladness. Now, brothers, let us prolong & swell the sad lament, that cruel circumstance should so uncerimoniously snatch from our midst, one who was so much beloved - so much honored, & one who would adorn any class - any society!
