THE NATIONAL GREELEY MONUMENT.

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE.

To the People of the United States:

The Committee to raise a fund for the purpose of erecting a National Monument to the memory of the late Hon. HORACE GREELEY, has been fully organized by the appointment of the Hon. W. W. Niles, as Chairman; the Hon. Andrew H. Green, Comptroller of the City of New York, Treasurer, and Edmund C. Stedman, Esq., Secretary.

The members of the Committee, as far as appointed, are at work in earnest, and with a sure prospect of success. But they are conscious that it does not belong to them, nor to any limited number of men, to render adequate honor to one whose just fame belongs to the entire people. HORACE GREELEY was pre-eminently a man of the people; he rose from among their ranks by industry, frugality, and a life of blameless purity; his example, no less than his written words, will remain forever a precious legacy to the masses of working-men who are actuated by the same pure ambition as that which raised him from poverty and obscurity to the honorable and conspicuous position in which for many years he led the public opinion of the country. There is nothing in his character or career which mars the force of his beneficent influence. No young man can ponder the story of his life without profit. He is one of the few public men of our age who may be safely held up to the imitation of the young. It is, therefore, to the people at large that the committee confidently appeal. It is their privilege and duty to honor worthily the man who best represents the brain and the conscience of the masses.

This is in no sense a partisan enterprise. The Committee is composed of members of all parties, equally proud to do honor to one whose laborious life was passed in devotion to the general welfare.

All who believe with us that Mr. GREELEY's great efforts in behalf of freedom, of enlightenment, of economy, and of progress, have not been without beneficent results, are cordially invited to share in this tribute to his memory. The rich cannot better show their appreciation of the lessons of industry and order which he taught, and the poor, in giving what slight sums they can afford, will honor their own estate and aspirations. It is not doubted that every editor in the country will be willing to forward the work, either by an editorial endorsement or by receiving and forwarding such sums as may be raised in his locality. There is not a village in the land but contains some man who has profited by Mr. GREELEY's teachings. We hope there is not one where an effort will not be made to contribute to this expression of the national gratitude.

A memorial volume will be kept containing the name and residence of every contributor, and, upon the completion of the work, will be deposited in the Historical Society for preservation.

WILLIAM W. NILES, Chairman, New York. EDMUND C. STEADMAN, of New York, Secretary.

ANDREW H. GREEN, Comptroller of the city of New York, Treasurer.

GENERAL · SHERMAN · STATUE.

Resolved. By the Society of the Army of the Tennessee in annual meeting assembled at Chicago, October 8th, 1891.

That there should be some suitable and permanent expression of the respect, admiration and gratitude felt by the American people for the noble character, lofty patriotism, and invaluable services of General William T. Sherman.

That in our opinion there should be erected at the National Capital a statue to this great man, and we believe that it is only necessary to have this subject properly called to the attention of the country to secure the hearty approval and co-operation of the people.

To this end be it, further,

Resolved, That the President of the Society shall appoint a Committee of five persons to be known as the "General Sherman Statue Committee."

That said Committee is hereby authorized and directed to proceed in the name of this Society to obtain subscriptions from its own members, and to secure the co-operation of the public in general and of other societies and organizations for the purpose of raising funds for said work.

And said Committee shall memorialize the Congress of the United States, requesting the selection of a suitable site for said statue and an appropriation of money to aid in this work.

Resolved, Further, that said Committee is hereby authorized to appoint committees and to take such other steps as may be deemed necessary and proper to secure the end in view, and said Committee shall keep a record of its proceedings and report to this Society from time to time.

The following committee was appointed by the President:

COL. J. F. HOW, St. Louis, Mo.

GEN. J. W. NOBLE, Washington, D. C.

COL. D. B. HENDERSON, Dubuque, Iowa.

MAJOR S. E. BARRETT, Chicago, Ills.

COL. W. McCORRY, Minneapolis, Minn.

Upon motion of Col. How, the President was added to the committee as Chairman.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the "General Sherman Statue Committee," held at the Grand Pacific Hotel, on Monday, November 9, 1891, pursuant to the call of the Chairman, General G. M. Dodge, there were present General G. M. Dodge; Col. D. B. Henderson, of Dubuque; Col. J. F. How, of St. Louis; and Col. W. McCorry, of Minneapolis.

Letters of suggestion were read from Gen. A. Hickenlooper and Gen. J. W. Noble, and from Capt. Barrett, stating that he was absent from the city.

Upon motion of Col. How, Col. Cornelius Cadle, Recording Secretary of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, was elected Secretary of the Committee.

The following resolution, offered by Col. J. F. How, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Col. Henderson and Gen. Noble be appointed a committee on Congressional Legislation, and that they be requested to ask for an appropriation of $50,000, being the same amount appropriated for the site, pedestal and statue of Generals Hancock, Logan and Sheridan, and to be appropriated under the same conditions.

The following resolution, offered by Col. J. F. How, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee invite the Society of the Armies of the Ohio, Potomac and Cumberland, the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Society of the Grand Army of the Republic, through their chief officers, to join with us in raising the fund desired for the erection of the statue to General Sherman.

The following resolution, offered by Col. W. McCrory, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Committee invite the citizens of the several states and territories to contribute to the erection of the Sherman Statue, and that General Dodge, Chairman of the Committee, appoint Committees of five in each state to carry out this object, and that said Committees have power to appoint sub-committees to aid them in this work.

The following resolution, offered by Col. D. B. Henderson, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Col. James F. How be Treasurer of this Committee, and that he and Gen. G. M. Dodge, Chairman of this Committee, select a Trust Company, with which all funds collected for the Sherman Statue shall be deposited, and that no funds shall be drawn from said deposits, except upon checks drawn by the Treasurer, and countersigned by the Chairman of this Committee.

Circulars were adopted setting forth the plans of the Committee, addressed to the different army societies, the Grand Army of the Republic and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, asking their co-operation and assistance.

The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the Chairman.

GENERAL SHERMAN STATUE COMMITTEE

OF THE

SOCIETY OF THE ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, No. 1 BROADWAY,

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 11, 1891.

To the Members of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee:

At the recent meeting of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee held at Chicago, October 7th and 8th, the annexed resolutions were unanimously adopted appointing a committee to solicit funds for the erection of a statue in Washington to General W. T. Sherman.

No argument should be needed to convince any soldier of the Army of the Tennessee that no unnecessary delay should occur in acting on these resolutions, and in placing at the earliest possible time in the Capital of our country, an appropriate memorial to our old leader.

It is not anticipated that the members of the Society alone can raise a fund sufficient to erect such a statue as is desired, and as should be placed among those of the other great Generals of the war already in Washington, but we feel that every member of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee will desire to contribute according to his means, and we are most anxious that every member's name should go upon the subscription list. A sum sufficiently large should be obtained from our members to enable us to appeal to others for assistance in carrying on the work which we will inaugurate, and we call upon you for your subscription for the purpose named, satisfied that we will meet with such a response as you feel your means and other claims upon you will permit.

Please remit the amount you feel you are willing to subscribe to Col. James F. How, Treasurer of the Committee, Commercial Building, St. Louis, Mo.
