GRAND COUNCIL CHAMBER,
MONTGOMERY, ALA., JUNE 17, 1867.

The Grand State Council of Alabama, U. L. A., to the Subordinate Councils in their charge, greeting:

The members of our order are hereby informed of the publication of a circular from the Head Quarters of the Third Military District, and a supplementary one from the Provisional Governor of Alabama, relative to appointments to vacancies occurring in the civil offices in Alabama.

For reasons obvious to all who are familiar with the character of appointments previous to the passage of the Military Reconstruction Acts, a special effort is now required of us to secure the conferring of public trust on loyal men. Strong recommendations numerously signed by loyal citizens, as such, presenting loyal candidates for every vacancy existing at present, or occurring in the future, should be prepared in duplicate and forwarded, one to the Provisional Governor and the other to John C. Keffer, Chairman of the Union Republican Executive Committee, Montgomery, Ala., to be available in case the first should be in any way miscarried.

JOHN C. KEFFER,
Grand Secretary.

TROS. O. GLASCOCK,
Grand President.

EXECUTIVE DEPT. STATE OF ALABAMA,

SIR: I send herewith for your information, the following circular, an official copy of which I received from the Military authorities. By this circular you will see that all vacancies in civil offices now existing, or which may hereafter occur, are required to be reported to the Governor. It will also be seen that it is the duty of the Governor to report these vacancies to the District Commander, accompanied with the names of such persons to fill the same as the Governor may think proper to recommend. To comply with this requirement, it will be necessary that applications for appointments to fill vacancies be forwarded to this Department, though no one need apply who is disqualified by the third section of the Constitutional Amendment.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

R. M. PATTON,
Governor of Alabama.

HEAD-QUARTERS 3D MILITARY DISTRICT,
ATLANTA, GA., JUNE 4, 1867.

The Major General Commanding directs that you will request the Governor of the State comprising your District, or the officer having charge of such matters at the seat of government of the State, to require that all vacancies in civil offices now existing, or which may occur hereafter, be reported by the proper officers to the Executive Department of the State in the customary manner: and that a list of such vacancies as it is absolutely necessary for the interests of the people should be filled, may be communicated to the District Commander in the State, accompanied with the names of such persons to fill these vacancies as the Governor may recommend, bearing in mind that the person so recommended must be exempt from the disqualifications under the provisions of the 3d section of the Constitutional Amendment.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, November 15, 1869.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 203.

I. Before a Military Commission which convened at Waco, Texas, on Thursday, the 21st day of October, 1869, pursuant to paragraph III of Special Orders No. 240, Headquarters Fifth Military District, dated Austin, Texas, October 12, 1869, and of which Brevet Lieutenant Colonel R. M. Morris, Major 6th Cavalry, is President, was arraigned and tried:

George W. Dodson, civilian.

CHARGE I—“Aggravated assault.”

Specification 1st—“In this, that George W. Dodson, of Belton, Bell county, Texas, did appear at the African Methodist Episcopal Church, at Belton, Texas, at the time the congregation of said church were holding religious worship; and did wilfully and deliberately assault and disperse the same by tearing boards off the building, and by pointing his revolver at the congregation, saying he would shoot the damned niggers if they did not leave—that he intended to break up that institution, as he had lost a number of negroes by the Yankees and that was the only way he had of getting even,” or words to that effect. This at or near Belton, Bell county, Texas, during or about the month of October, 1868.”

Specification 2d—“In this, that George W. Dodson, of Belton, Bell county, Texas, did appear at the African Methodist Episcopal Church, at Belton, Texas, during the time the congregation of said church were holding religious worship and a funeral service; and did violently and deliberately assault and disperse the same, by standing in the door of said church, with his revolver in his hand, and by pointing the same at the minister and at the congregation, did say, ‘Now, God damn you, get out of here; I am bound to break this institution up,’ or words to that effect. This at or near Belton, Bell county, Texas, on or about the 21st day of March, 1869.”

Specification 3d—“In this, that George W. Dodson, of Belton, Bell county, Texas, did appear at the building known as the Concrete Building, in the town of Belton, Texas, during a dance or ball, given by some colored people of the town for the purpose of innocent amusement; and did wilfully and deliberately attempt to break up and disperse the same by shooting his pistol into the building. This in the town of Belton, Bell county, Texas, during the month of February, 1869.”

CHARGE II—“Arson.”
Specification—In this, that he, the said George W. Dodson, with malice aforesaid, with intent to destroy the same, did willfully and maliciously set fire to a public building, to wit, a school-house in the town of Belton, Bell county, Texas; whereby said public building was burned. This at or near Belton, Bell county, Texas, on or about the 18th day of June, 1869. To which charges and specifications the accused, George W. Dodson, civilian, pleaded "Not Guilty."

Finding:
The Commission, having maturely considered the evidence adduced, finds the accused, George W. Dodson, civilian, as follows:

Charge I.
Of the first specification, "Guilty," except the words 'he would shoot the damned niggers if they did not leave,' and the words 'that he had lost a number of negroes by the Yankees and that was the only way he had of getting even,' but do substitute the words 'Now pray on to your God, God damn you,' and the words 'Now sing the doxology, God damn you,' of which he is found guilty.

Of the third specification, "Not Guilty."
Of the charge, "Guilty."

Charge II.

No. 12.

It is with pleasure the announcement is made of the surrender of large numbers of Indians lately hostile, against whom military operations have been prosecuted for the past four months; and the assurance through the chiefs and headmen of these tribes of their desire and the desire of their people to conclude a permanent peace.

These propositions are made in the midst of a campaign in which they have been severely punished, and the Department Commander, believing in their sincerity, announces and hereby declares peace with the tribes referred to.

The basis of this peace is simply that these Indians shall cease plundering and murdering, remain upon their several reservations, and comply with the regulations made by the Government, through authorized agents, for them.

So long, therefore, as they remain true to their agreement, they will be protected by the Military of this Department in the enjoyment of all their rights under the law.

After a sufficient time shall have elapsed to enable the friends of any renegades still at large to bring them in upon their proper reservations, post commanders will use the troops at their command to pursue and force them in, and in case any such straggling bands continue to remain absent without proper authority, they will be forced to surrender or be destroyed.

General Orders,

No. 13.

The following memorandum of instructions is hereby published for the guidance of officers commanding troops stationed on the several Indian Reservations in this Department:

I. With a view to bringing the straggling bands and families still at large upon the reservations, and to serve as a nucleus for the establishment of civil government, a small number of the Indians recently used as scouts will be retained in service under existing laws, at each of the reservations hereafter specified.

Each of these detachments will be under the command of an officer, designated by the Department Commander, who will have charge, under the supervision of the commanding officer of the post, of their clothing and accounts; but the post commander may communicate with them direct, at any and all times.

These Indians will be selected from among the best of their several tribes, and will be liable to be mustered out for misconduct towards the Indians of their own or other tribes, or other good cause, and their places filled by others duly selected. They will constitute the police force of the reservations, and while required to attend regular musters and inspections will not only be allowed, but will be required to cultivate the soil and perform the various industries prescribed by the Indian Department, the same as other Indians.

They will be used, from time to time, upon the application of the agent, or the commanding officers' own motion, to preserve the peace, report and correct any irregularities that may occur among their own or other tribes in the vicinity.

II. Commanding officers will aid the duly authorized agents in instructing the Indians in, and establishing among them civil government in its simplest form, enabling them to settle their differences according to the usages of civilization, gradually showing them its benefits as contrasted with their own barbarous forms and customs.

To do this effectually will require different forms to suit the peculiarities of different tribes, and the agents of the several reservations are requested to meet the officers commanding the military on their respective reservations and agree upon the necessary forms, being careful not to make them too complicated at first for the comprehension of the tribes to which they are to be applied, leaving them to be enlarged with their capabilities, so that when the auxiliary force can be dispensed with, they will be capable of self-government and eventually become good citizens.

While they should not be judged harshly for acts which in civil codes would constitute minor offenses, care should also be taken that they do not succeed in deceiving their agents and the officers, in matters of greater import, being careful to treat them as children in ignorance, not in innocence.

Perfect harmony between the officers of the Indian and War Departments, on duty together, is absolutely necessary in treating Indians so lately hostile and so apparently incorrigible, and the Department Commander earnestly enjoins this harmony, and directs that in case of difference in matters where the line is not plainly marked, that officers carefully avoid such difference being made known to the Indians, and that they refrain from any overt act in the matter at issue, until instructions from these Headquarters shall have been received.
