HEADQUARTERS

POST No. 327, DEPARTMENT OF N. Y., G. A. R.
JOHNSTON BUILDING, FULTON AND FLATBUSH AVE.

Brooklyn, January 9th, 1889.

POST ORDERS
No. 27.

I. The next Regular Encampment of this Post will be held at Headquarters, on Tuesday evening, January 14th, at 7:30 o'clock.

II. The installation of officers will take place in the Post room at 8 o'clock.
Comrades are requested to come in full uniform or evening dress.

III. Inclosed are two tickets admitting either lady or gentleman to the ceremonies.

IV. A postal card is also inclosed, which you are requested to return to the Adjutant at once, with the information as to whether you expect to go to Boston with the Post or not.

V. Comrades, one year ago I was installed as your Commander. It was the highest office you could confer upon a commander—one entirely unsought—and for the duties of which I felt myself but poorly equipped.

For the generous and hearty support given to me and my fellow-officers in our endeavors to carry out your expressed desires, and those objects which we deemed best for our organization, I return my sincere thanks.

We have, during the year, added to our Muster-roll the names of fifty-two comrades. In regard to their character, business, or social standing, or in their services to their country, their record is unexcelled. They have been recruited by the earnest efforts of a few of our comrades. May my successor have the honor of filling our roll to its limit of 350 with comrades equally good in every respect, and may they take as active an interest in our affairs as those who have recently joined us.

To Adjutant Herman P. Smith and his able assistant, Fred. E. Edgar, my warmest thanks are due, for their unselfish and faithful performance of every duty.

I request special attention to the Adjutant's report (herewith submitted), wherein mention is made of the prominent events that the Post has participated in during the year, and of our numerical growth and influence.

To Quartermaster Sandford H. Frankenburgh and Q. M. Sergeant Enoch Rutzler, the Post owes a debt of gratitude for the labors they have performed, in looking after our finances.

The financial exhibit (hereto annexed) is highly gratifying, and to them I tender my earnest thanks.

To Officer-of-the-Day Souville, to Chaplain Rev. Mason Gallagher, and to every other officer of the Post who has so faithfully performed the arduous duties allotted them, I can only say, in the name of the Post, I thank you.

Death has removed four of our comrades during the year. Their march of life is over. They have pitched their tents amid the silent bivouac of the dead. We mourn our loss.

Comrades, I have endeavored to fulfill the obligations I assumed and the promises I made one year ago. I have not accomplished all I meant to do, and if I have at any time failed or done anything which has injured the feelings of a commander, I ask his pardon.

If the same Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty is extended to my successor that you have given to me, this Post will continue to grow in its influence and in its power of doing good.

George A. Price
Commander.

Herman P. Smith
Adjutant.

Orders issued by Post Commander during the year .................................................. 27
Circulars and notices .................................................. 8

Important events during the year have been as follows:

JANUARY 11TH.—The public installation of officers.

MARCH 7TH.—A special encampment, at which Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard was received by transfer from Geo. H. Thomas Post, Department of California, and nine recruits were mustered. At the close of the muster an open camp-fire was held, at which there was a large attendance of Regular Army Officers, citizens and Grand Army Comrades. Interesting addresses were made by Gen'l Howard, Mayor Chapin, StClair McKelway and Comrades Rev. R. R. Meredith and Gen'l Christiansen.

MARCH 12TH.—The fraternal visit of H. B. Claflin Post No. 578, of New York City.

MARCH 26TH.—A lecture by Comrade B. F. Blair, in which he related his thrilling experience as a prisoner of war in Libby Prison, and an account of his escape to the Union lines. Ladies were invited.

APRIL 30TH.—The reception to Comrade Secretary of the Navy, Benjamin F. Tracy, and Comrade Commissioner of Pensions, James Tanner, given in the Post Rooms. Many distinguished guests were present, and addresses were made by Gen'l Horace Porter, Mayor Chapin, Secretary Tracy and Commissioner Tanner.

APRIL 30TH.—The Centennial Parade, in which the Post took part.

MAY 26TH.—Memorial Sunday. The Post attended service in the evening at the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church. The Pastor, Comrade Rev. Dr. R. R. Meredith preached an eloquent sermon.

MAY 30TH.—Memorial Day. Detail of the Post as Guard of Honor at the residence of the Hon. Joseph F. Knapp, on the occasion of the reception to his Excellency, the President of the United States, Benjamin J. Harrison, and Secretary of the Navy, Benjamin F. Tracy, 9 to 11 A.M.

The Parade, from 11 to 1:30. The decoration of the tomb of Gen'l Grant, at Riverside, in the afternoon, with very impressive services; oration by the Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., and an eloquent and stirring address by Gen'l O. O. Howard.

JUNE 19TH.—The fraternal visit of Admiral Foote Post (about four hundred comrades). They were escorted from Fulton Ferry, via Culver's railroad, to Coney Island, dined at West Brighton Hotel, and entertained at a camp-fire in the Post Rooms in the evening.
OCTOBER 19TH.—The presentation of a national flag and staff to each public school of the city (81 schools). The presentation exercises were held in the Academy of Music, and was, without question, the most notable event of the year, and one of the most important events in the history of the Post. The oration was by Comrade Rev. R. R. Meredith, and the presentation address by Comrade O. O. Howard, President Joseph Hendrix, of the Board of Education, responded in behalf of the schools.

OCTOBER 30TH.—The parade on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the Memorial Arch which the City of Brooklyn is to erect to her soldiers and sailors who died for the preservation of the Union.

ADDITIONS TO HEADQUARTERS—ROOM FURNISHINGS AND DECORATIONS.

The donation of a Memorial Tablet (in frame) of Gen'l U. S. Grant, from Isaac Mason, Esq.

The donation of a Confederate flag from Comrade David G. McKelvey.

Engrossed resolutions in frame, from Admiral Foote Post No. 17, Dept' of Conn., G. A. R.

The donation of a section of a tree from the Chickamauga battlefield, containing a Confederate shell, from Joseph D. Huggins, Esq.

The presentation of a gavel made from a portion of the work-bench used by Ulysses S. Grant previous to the war, in a tannery, at Galena, III., from Comrade M. E. Erwin, of Dubuque, Iowa.

A handsome new Post flag, with picture of Gen'l U. S. Grant on one side, and the Grand Army badge on the other.

A new pool table, which has been the source of much enjoyment to the comrades, as well as a medium of much profit, the revenue having already exceeded the cost.

The year just closed has been one of unusual interest. The large increase in membership, and the great number of parades, receptions, camp-fires and other public exercises have marked this as one of the most active and eventful years in the history of the Post.

The arduous duties of the Adjutant have been materially lightened the past year by the efficient aid of Sergeant Major F. E. Edgar, and I desire to express to him my grateful thanks for his faithful service.

In retiring from the office of Adjutant, I desire to express through you my most sincere and hearty thanks to all the comrades of the Post. Their kindness and courtesy to me during the two years of my service as Adjutant has made the work one which I have enjoyed. It has been my desire and ambition to have the records, correspondence, and all the work of the department, faithfully kept and performed. If I have failed to meet your standard, or that of any of the comrades, I ask that the mantle of charity shall be cast over my imperfections. I feel much satisfaction in leaving the office in the hands of one so active and efficient.

With a deep sense of obligation, I desire to tender to you my heartfelt thanks for your patience with all my shortcomings. My service as your Adjutant has been a pleasant one. I shall hold dear to memory my association with you in the work for Grant Post.

Respectfully submitted,

HEMAN P. SMITH,

Adjutant.

POST No. 327, DEPARTMENT N. Y., G. A. R.
JOHNSON BUILDING, FULTON AND FLATBUSH AVE.

Brooklyn, April 25th, 1889.

Post Orders
No. 9

I. In obedience to orders from Department Headquarters and from the Grand Marshal of the Kings County G. A. R., this Post will parade on Tuesday, April 30th, 1889.

II. The assembly will be at Post Headquarters, at 7.30 A.M., leaving Post Room at 7.50 to take our position in the Kings County Division.

The early hour at which the parade will move in New York (10 A.M.), makes it absolutely necessary for every Comrade who intends to parade to be in line at the hour named.

III. The Commander would again urge upon each Comrade the desirability of procuring the necessary Uniform.

From Post By-Laws—Article VI:

Sec. 1. —  For street parade, all officers of the Post shall wear stiff brimmed high crowned army hat with gold cord, and wreath same as fatigue cap.

Sec. 8. — All post officers may continue to wear the Uniform of their past rank.

Sec. 9. — The Uniform of the rank and file shall be double-breasted blue coat to button close to neck, figures 327 on collar—ten buttons—three buttons on sleeves, blue trousers, stiff brimmed army hat 5½ inches deep by 2½ to 2½ brim, and gold cord, with gold wreath enclosing the G. A. R. monogram and figures 327 in silver.

Sec. 10. — On all occasions of parade or ceremony, white gloves shall be worn by every Comrade.

No Comrade of the Post shall be allowed to parade except in the prescribed Uniform.

The Quartermaster will furnish new badge ribbons to all Comrades needing them, if applied for before Tuesday morning.
IV. As this brilliant parade is commemorative of the inauguration of George Washington, the first President of the United States, it is eminently fitting that the men who "saved the nation in its hour of peril" should take part in the pageant which ushers in our Nation's second century.

V. The duties which have been assigned to us in the past have ever been performed promptly, with fidelity and loyalty.

The Commander trusts that each Comrade will be animated by the spirit which heretofore has won for us the esteem and confidence of our fellow citizens. Remember, Comrades it was the services of the veterans of '61 to '65 which has made it possible to celebrate this Centennial Anniversary of our Nation's Birthday.

Let every Comrade in full Uniform answer to roll-call at 7:30 A. M., Tuesday, April 30th.

By order of

George H. Rice

HEMAN F. SMITH,

Adjoint.

JOHNSTON BUILDING, FULTON AND FLATBUSH AVE.

BROOKLYN, May 23rd, 1889.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY, MAY 26th.

I. Having received and accepted an invitation to attend divine service at the Tompkins Ave. Congregational Church on Memorial Sunday, May 26th, this Post will assemble at Headquarters at 6.30 P.M., in full uniform and white gloves, and proceed, via Elevated Railroad, to the place of worship, where we will listen to a sermon from our comrade, Rev. Dr. R. R. Meredith. The Grand Marshal and staff have accepted an invitation to accompany us. Let every comrade be present—he will be amply repaid.

POST ENCAMPMENT, TUESDAY, MAY 28th.

II. The next regular Encampment of this Post will be held at Headquarters on Tuesday, May 28th, at 8 o’clock.

III. The following application has been referred to Commitee:

IV. It is important that there be a full attendance at this Encampment, as final orders will be promulgated regarding the services we may be called upon to perform on “Memorial Day.” Tickets will be distributed to each comrade which will admit his friends to the exercises at Riverside.

MEMORIAL DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 30th.

V. Pursuant to orders from National and Department Headquarters, and in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, this Post will observe Thursday, May 30th, as Memorial Day.

VI. The assembly will be at Headquarters at 8 o'clock A. M. sharp, and will move via Willoughby St. cars to our place in line. Comrades failing to join the Post at Headquarters can do so at Division and Wythe Aves. at 10 o'clock.

VII. The Brooklyn part of the parade will be dismissed at Flatbush Ave. and Hanson Place. The Post will then proceed via Atlantic Ave. cars to South Ferry, where a boat will be in readiness to take the Post and invited guests to Riverside. Refreshments will be served on the boat.

VIII. The Rev. J. M. Buckley, D.D., LL.D., will deliver the oration at the Tomb of Gen’l Grant.

IX. We expect the President of the United States and members of his Cabinet, his Honor, Mayor Chapin, and many prominent citizens to accompany us, and the Commander trusts that the same “esprit du corps” which has animated the comrades of our Post in the past, and won for us the esteem of our fellow citizens, may be manifested on this occasion when we commemorate the bravery of “those who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes,” and may the services of this day deepen in our hearts “the memory of our brave and our beloved—the Grand Army of the Immortals.”

X. The Post By-Laws prescribe the uniform to be worn on all “occasions of parade or ceremony,” and as these were printed in Post Orders No. 9, it is unnecessary to repeat them here. Every comrade should see to it at once that his uniform is in perfect order. Our uniform hat presents a better appearance if worn without being creased in at the top.

There will be several other occasions this year when comrades will be called upon to parade, and the Commander would urge all who have not yet provided themselves with a uniform to do so at once. Comrades, let us have full ranks on Sunday and, especially, on “Memorial Day.” Our march will be short, and we should have in the ranks two hundred comrades. The measure of respect we pay to departed comrades may be vouchsafed to us when we shall have passed to the silent majority. Memorial Day is our day. Let us keep it sacred to the memory of those who lived a patriot’s life and died a patriot’s death.

III. The honor conferred upon us and the order which we represent, by the public spirited and patriotic citizens who have contributed to this end, should inspire every Comrade of the U.S. Grant Post with enthusiasm. Let every Comrade who is able be present on this occasion, and as the glorious Flag for whose defence and honor so many of our Comrades gave up their lives is transferred from our hands through our distinguished Comrade to the Youths of our City, may we not hope that it will kindle in them the same patriotic ardor to keep it as unsullied in the future as we have endeavored to do in the past.

Oh! Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot’s devotion,
A world offers homage to thee;

 Thy anthems make heroes assemble,
When Liberty’s form stands in view,
Thy banner makes tyranny tremble.
When borne by the Red, White and Blue.

When war waged its wide desolation,
And threatened our land to deform,
The ark then of freedom’s foundation,
Columbia rode safe through the storm.

May the service united never sever,
And hold to their colors, so true;
The Army and Navy for ever—
Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers, etc.

AMERICA.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing,
Land where our fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our father's God, to Thee
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light.
Protect us by Thy might.
Great God our King.

PRAYER, by Rev. Wesley Reed Davis, D. D.

SINGING, The Star-Spangled Banner.

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming;
And the rocket's red glare, the bomb's bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O, say does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

On the shore dimly seen through the mist of the deep
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
Till the star-spangled banner at last o'er us shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I. The next Regular Encampment of this Post will be held at Headquarters, on Tuesday evening, December 10th, at 8 o'clock.

II. Candidates awaiting muster in:

GEORGE SEWELL, Chief Engineer (Retired), U. S. Navy.
WILLIAM W. HEATON, Chief Engineer, U. S. N.

V. As at this Encampment the Comrades will choose new officers for the ensuing year, it gives the Commander great pleasure to lay the following communication before them:

BROOKLYN, Dec. 26, 1889.

Commander GEORGE A. PRICE.

Dear Sir and Comrade:

I request you to inform the Comrades of U. S. Grant Post, that it is my desire to perpetuate the harmony that has existed in the selection of Commander, and to prevent a contest that might create feeling, I hereby inform you and through you the members of the Post, that I would not serve as Commander the ensuing year if elected. My services in the post should attest my sincerity when I now affirm that I care more for the welfare and prestige of the Post than I do for office or personal preferment. I am proud to say that I am a charter member of Post 327, which has a record unequalled in the Grand Army of the Republic.

It is enough for me to feel that I have assisted in making the history of the Post. My future conduct may be read in the past. The obligation we voluntarily assume before the altar when we enter the order is often too easily forgotten when selfish interests interfere.

I am resolved to fulfill my obligation, and as a Comrade I shall vote for and support Comrade Collins for Commander.

Very respectfully in F. C. & L.,

[Signed.] JOHN H. JOHNSON,
Past Senior Vice-Commander,
U. S. Grant Post, 327.

VI. As Comrade Johnson has in such a frank and fraternal letter withdrawn from the contest, the Commander trusts that every member of the Post will emulate the spirit of Comradeship shown by him, and make the election of our next Commander unanimous.

Enclosed you will find ballots for all officers and delegates to be elected who have not withdrawn.

VII. The desirability of our Post visiting Boston at the National Encampment in August or September next will come before us, and the Commander trusts the Comrades will be prepared to vote on the question.

VIII. Comrades are especially requested to attend this Encampment in uniform.

George A. Price

POST No. 327, DEPARTMENT OF N. Y., G. A. R.
JOHNSON BUILDING, FULTON AND FLATBUSH AVES.

Brooklyn, January 23d, 1890.

Post Orders
No. 1

Called by a unanimous vote to the command of the Post, made more illustrious by each successive administration, while thanking the comrades for the honor conferred, I beg to assure you that I enter upon the discharge of my duties in the full assurance of that loyal and fraternal support which has been the good fortune of my predecessors to enjoy, and which has contributed in no small degree to the reputation and usefulness of the Post.

The year just closed has been one of marked prosperity. Large accessions to the membership have been made; the charitable work of the Post has been unceasing and liberal, and the spirit of fraternity and loyalty has shown itself, speaking volumes for the Order in greetings to distinguished comrades, and an object lesson in patriotism given, which, if nothing else had been done, would entitle the Post to the thanks of all who love their country and its flag.

Let us emulate the examples before us, and by our actions strengthen the ties that already exist. Numbers alone will not add to our efficiency; but about us are still many who bore their part in the great struggle for the nation’s existence, whose accession to our ranks would be a revelation, a new existence to themselves and a source of strength and help to the Post, and it is our duty where we can to add them to our ranks. Some of our comrades have distinguished themselves in the matter of recruiting, and may their example find many imitators.

For myself, I have only to add that I enter upon my duties with a full sense of the responsibility resting upon me. I shall do all in my power to advance the interests of our noble Association, and by impartiality, fairness and devotion merit your approval.
Years of fraternal intercourse assure me of that kind and charitable criticism which even the best-meaned efforts will often evoke.

Post Order

1. This Post will assemble at these Headquarters on Thursday evening, May 22nd, at 7.15 P. M. in full uniform, white gloves, officers and past officers without side-arms, to proceed to the Hanson Place M. E. Church to participate in the presentation of a flag to the Sunday School.

2. It is hoped no Comrade who can be present will absent himself on this great occasion. The column will move promptly at 7.45 P. M.

3. The Hanson Place M. E. Church has ever been to this Post a Sanctuary to which we might resort, and we never left there without a stimulus to our patriotism. Her doors have always been thrown open and her generous welcome accorded to the Veteran defender of the Union, while the responses for aid to the needy and destitute have shown that she is as generous now as in the days when she gave of the flower of her young manhood to our country in its hour of need.

4. Attention of Comrades is called to Article VI, Section 9, of By Laws, regarding uniforms. It is hoped that all who have not already done so, will equip themselves as therein directed.

Our parades have always been effective, but would be far more so were all the Comrades who are physically able, to appear in the very few parades they are called upon to make. The large accession to our ranks since Memorial Day, and the nearness of our next observance of that occasion so distinctively ours, prompts the Commander to urge upon the Comrades the duty of every one appearing to do honor to the memory of the heroic dead.

The Chairman of Memorial Committee asks that those who are making collections for our "Charity Fund" use extra exertions to secure as large and as many contributions as possible, as sickness has reduced some of our most effective collectors.

Post Order

No. 4.

1. This Post will assemble at Headquarters on Friday, the 30th inst., at 8 o'clock, A.M., in full uniform, white gloves, dress hats (not caps), Officers and past officers with side arms, for the purpose of participating in the Memorial Day Parade. The Transportation Committee will furnish transportation from Headquarters to the position in line assigned us.

Disabled Comrades will be provided with transportation for the entire route, and will notify the Quartermaster at once of their intention to participate.

2. The Commander-in-Chief, Gen'l R. A. Alger, the Governor of this Commonwealth, Hon. David B. Hill and Staff, Dep't Commander Floyd A. Clarkson and Staff, Rear Admiral D. L. Braine, U. S. N., and other distinguished guests will be with us.

3. Not only in honor of him whose grave we decorate, but of the countless host who died that the Nation might Live, that not one star should be erased from our National Emblem, and the unity and integrity of our Republic maintained, should every Comrade who is able join our gradually diminishing ranks.

4. At the dismissal of the parade, cars will be in readiness to move the Post at once to the boat, foot of Atlantic St., from whence we will be conveyed to Riverside.

It is expected that on this memorable occasion we will be joined by several New York Posts.

5. The Hon. Secretary of the Navy, Comrade B. F. Post Orders!
No. 23.

I. The next Encampment of this Post will be held at Headquarters, on Tuesday evening, January 9th, 1894, at 8 o'clock. Comrades will appear in uniform.

II. Pursuant to Rules and Regulations, the Installation of Officers will take place at this Encampment. Past Commander Noah Tebbets, Installing Officer. As the Installation will be purely a Post affair the Commander hopes that all comrades who are able to do so will be present.

III. In issuing this, my last order, I desire to thank you, my comrades, for the kindness and cordial support given me during the past year. It is with gratitude to God and an increased feeling of affection for my comrades that I lay down the gavel. Especially do I desire to express my thanks to our Adjutant, Philip S. Clark, and our faithful Sergeant-Major, George W. Keeler, for the services so faithfully performed by them. Without their aid and assistance the burdens of my administration would have been much heavier. And to our faithful Quartermaster, S. H. Frankenberg, I am greatly indebted, also to Quartermaster-Sergeant, Charles H. Walker (who has been sick for some time, and is still very poorly), for the manner in which they have looked after the interests of the Post in its finance department.

I wish to extend my thanks to all the officers for the cordial manner in which they have assisted me, always showing a willingness to support my administration, and I wish to especially thank the Officer of the Guard, John Hemp hill, for the assistance he has given me in visiting the sick, as it has been impossible at times for the Commander to visit all, for we have had much sickness amongst us during the past year.

During the year six of our number have been called to that Grand Army above, where we must all meet and report for roll call, and when our orders are received may we be ready.

Our Annual Memorial service was one of much interest. Ex-Gov. J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, delivered the address at the tomb of our Great Captain, at Riverside.

To our Comrade, Andrew Jacobs, much praise is due for the manner in which he discharged the duties of Chairman of the Memorial Day Committee, and as the result of his labors I refer to the report of the Quartermaster.

My Comrades, I trust that you will extend the same good will and support to my successor which you have shown to me; and, for myself, I trust to follow the example set by the majority of the Past Commanders of our Post—To be always present for duty.

ENOCH RUTZLER,
Commander.
