Post for determining the variation of the needle

Note - Data.

Long. of place of observation = 45° 35' 57"

By time = 3.11' 42' increasing partly B. in longitude 0.29

27 May 1853, found the noon

Dec. 21-26° 7'3.5

Height of Decl. 24.52

26.79

24.43

Notes:

\[
\frac{1}{2} (A + B) = 23° 29' 12.5'' \\
\frac{1}{2} (A - B) = 21° 20' 37''
\]

Respectfully submitted
Sant J. Reynolds, Capt. U.S. N.A.
EXTRACT from the Class and Conduct report of the MILITARY ACADEMY, for the month of March, 1854. Furnished for the information of Parents and Guardians.

FIRST CLASS, composed of 14 Members.

Cadets

War, in Engineering, 10th

Rhetoric and Moral Philosophy, 11th

Arithmetic, 11th

Mineralogy and Geology, 11th

His deficient for the month is, and since the commencement of the Academic year.

By Order of the Secretary of War.

The attention of parents, guardians, and friends of Cadets, is called, particularly, to the following Regulations, which are indispensable to the welfare of the Academy, and must be enforced strictly and literally in all cases. Every infraction inflicts a direct injury on the Cadet, and an indirect one on the Institution. The provision made for the Cadet by the Government is ample:

Regulations, par. 72. . . Any Cadet who shall at the examinations in June, and January, have an amount of demerit exceeding one hundred, for the previous six months, shall be declared deficient in conduct, and recommended to the War Department for discharge.

Regulations, par. 149. . . No Cadet shall apply for, or receive money, or any other supplies, from his parents, or from any person whatsoever, without permission from the Secretary of War, on the recommendation of the Superintendent; any infraction or violation of this regulation will be considered a positive disobedience of orders, and punished accordingly.
ENGINEER DEPARTMENT,

Washington, May 11, 1861

EXTRACT from the Class and Conduct reports of the MILITARY ACADEMY, for the month of April 1861, furnished for the information of Parents and Guardians.

FIRST CLASS, composed of

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cadet</th>
<th>Members</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Name</td>
<td>No.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

His status for the month is good and since the commencement of the Academic year 1861.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

[Signature]

The attention of parents, guardians, and friends of Cadets is called particularly to the following Regulations: which are indispensable to the welfare of the Academy, and must be enforced strictly and literally in all cases. Every infraction inflicts a direct injury on the Cadet, and an indirect one on the institution. The provision made for the Cadet by the Government is ample:

REGULATIONS, sec. 16. When any Cadet shall have a number expressing his demerit on the General Conduct Roll greater than 150 for the semester, such Cadet shall be declared deficient in conduct, and be recommended by the Academic Board to the War Department for discharge.

REGULATIONS, sec. 17. No Cadet shall apply for, or receive money, or any other supplies, from his parent, or from any person whatsoever, without permission from the Secretary of War, on recommendation of the Superintendent, for instruction or violation of which will be considered a positive disobedience of orders, and punished accordingly.

[Signature]
The order of the Secretary of War:

[Handwritten text not legible]