

due west

This pole is gap to Rio Grande.

All settlers on the above Reservation <sup>having no title to the land</sup> ~~will~~ will be allowed six months to remove. No further improvements will be made without the authorization with the authority of the Secy. of Ind. Affairs or higher authority.

The ~~Sup~~ Commander of the District of New Mexico, the Supr. of Ind. Affairs for the same & such third person representing the present settlers interests are recommended as a board of appraisers to appraise the value of present improvements & submit the same to the President for his action consideration, action or recommendation to Congress in accordance with existing law.

W. H. Brown, Indian Agent,
Spec. Com. Indian Affairs

Cachise Camp west side Saguaro mts.
Office Superintendent of Indian Affairs,
Canada Alamo at Opt. Act
~~Santa Fe, N. M. Sept 7~~ 1872

In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of the Interior and subject to approval of the President I hereby set apart a section of Country lying along the Rio Grande N.M. as an Indian Reservation to be called the "Cachise Reservation" described as follows: the Rio Grande to be the eastern boundary - the northern line commencing at a point six miles on the Rio Grande north of the mouth of the Rio Carradero and running direct to the Summit of the South end of the Juncos Mateo Mountains, and thence westerly to include the springs known as Canada de Alamos, the western line to run from this point "Canada de Alamos" in a southerly direction along the summit of the mountains mts to a point known as "Mule Springs" or Oak Grove a point about 14 miles north of Fort Cummings. South line to run in an easterly direction to the Rio Grande just including Fort Shown or as sometimes called "Santa Barbara" Add to this the Sierra del Caballo; bounded as follows, Rio Grande on the west, the gap east of and opposite to Fort Shown on the south, 2nd north and south line west from principal meridian, on the East, running to South line of boundary of Fort McRae Reservation. Thence due west to Rio Grande.

All settlers on the above Reservation tract having no valid title to the land will be allowed six months to remove. No further improvements will be made without the authorization of the Commissioner of Indian affairs or higher authority. The Commander of the District of New Mexico, the Supt of Indian Affairs for the same and such third person representing the present settlers interests are recommended as a board of Appraisal, to Appraise the value of present improvements and submit the same to the President for his consideration, action or recommendation to Congress in accordance with existence law.

Brig Genl. U.S.A.
Special Comr Indian Affairs

2
Ketumia Copy

Office Superintendent of Indian Affairs,

Canada House,

Sept 16th 1872
Santa Fe, N. M.

For the special work of gathering the <sup>nomadic apaches</sup> Indians upon the "Cachin reservation" and of being their agent subsequently, subject to the regulations of the Indian Bureau, I hereby appoint Mr. Thomas J. Jeffers. He will report to the Superintendent of Indian Affairs for New Mexico & be under instruction from him & higher authority. Until otherwise ordered his compensation will be fixed at the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of the Interior.

O. O. Howard

Brig. Gen. U.S.A.

Special Commissioner

Indian Affairs

Office Superintendent of Indian Affairs

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

In this special work of gathering the Indians after the "winter season" and of seeing them again, especially before the winter, it is of great importance to appoint the "winter" officers and to see to the supervision of their affairs in the winter, so that they will be in a better condition. That is why the Commission will be paid at the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

An agreement with the Indians for the purpose of the winter

D. O. Johnson

Chief of the Commission

Indian Affairs

Copy
Dragoon Mountains A. T.

22
Oct. 11th 1872.

There is hereby set apart for an Indian Reservation the following described public lands, to be called the Chiricahua Reservation; viz. Beginning at Dragoon Springs near Dragoon Pass in Arizona, to run North Westly touching the North base of Chiricahua Mts. to a point on summit of Peloncillo Mts. or Steins Peak range; thence South Eastly along said range through Steins Peak to the New Mexican Boundary; thence due South to Mexican boundary; thence Westly along said boundary fifty five miles; thence Northly following substantially the Western base of the Dragoon Mountains to the place of beginning.

This general description will obtain till a careful locating of points and lines by Survey shall be made.

In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of the Interior and subject to the approval of the President.

(Signed)

O. O. Howard

Brig. Genl. U. S. A.

Spl. Comm. Ind. Affairs.

