With Pres. Sec. and Treas. ex officio.

DEAR SIR:

The Executive Committee have selected February 16 for the Annual Dinner of the Association, to be held at the Riggs House, corner of Fifteenth and G Sts., at 7 p. m. As it is important that the names of those who will be able to attend be sent to the Secretary as early as practicable, you will confer a favor if you will immediately notify me of your intention.

President Chamberlain has signified his intention to be present, and Prof. A. S. Packard and other distinguished guests are also expected. It is hoped that every Bowdoin man in this vicinity will make an effort to be present to contribute to and share in the enjoyment of the evening.

Tickets $4.00, to be had of the Chairman of the Executive Committee, F. D. Sewall, Treasury Department, the Treasurer, J. N. Whitney, Bureau of Statistics, and of the Secretary,

JAMES C. STROUT, Secretary,
