Head Qrs 1st Brigade
Corps Division November 25
1861 (Camp Casey)

I hereby solemnly pledge myself to abstain from the use of all intoxicating drinks as a beverage, without qualification or mental reservation.

H. W. Cook
I do hereby pledge my honor as a gentleman and my word as a Christian that from this moment henceforth I will totally abstain from the use of all intoxicating drinks whatever and in keeping this my resolution, may God help me.

J. B. McClellan

Witness

D. L. Eaton
I'm glad you decided to join me on this trip. It will be a great opportunity to see the sights and learn about the history of the country. I hope you enjoy yourself and find the experience rewarding.

Best,
[Name]

P.S. Please be sure to take lots of pictures and send them to me when you return.
I, Patrick Keegan, do hereby solemnly promise that I will not use intoxicating liquor as a beverage, and will not use the money I shall receive from General Howard for this purchase, any, until I shall receive the permission of General Howard to do so.

Patrick Keegan
Temperance pledge signed by
W. L. Black

Portland, Or., April 23, 1878

Attached to letter # 14492
I undersigned promise to Almighty God to abstain from intemperate liquor for the whole of my life.

Charles Sullivan

Taken before the Weihi插机.

Patrick Walsh.
Sullivan Charles.

His pledge for life.
from dane moncy on me
forgive me all my sins and make me fit for heaven
for christ s sake

My John Martin from his sister dizzie now in heaven.

I, John Martin, remembering my dear sister s prayer and desiring to meet her in heaven, hereby pledge myself to general 00 howard
United States army
This 11th day
of June 1876 in the city of Portland Oregon to abstain from strong drink until relieved from this promise by gen. howard himself
so help me god

(Duplicate) John Martin

[June 11, 1876]
D, William Shields, Private, Company B, 21st Regiment U.S. Infantry, do hereby most solemnly pledge myself to abstain from drinking any and all intoxicating liquors in any shape or form whatsoever, from this date for the remainder of the term of my natural existence.

And this abstention from the use of intoxicating liquors I do pledge myself to adhere to not only in the letter but in the spirit of these words, of my own free will and without evasion or any mental reservation on my part, and with one and only one exception, viz: When the drinking of intoxicating liquors by me is rendered necessary by my sickness and then only when it is only prescribed by an authorized physician.

I witness whereof I hereby subscribe my name, this fifteenth (15th) day of November, 1876.

William Shields
Private Company B, 21st Infantry

Witnesses

Harry M. Smith
Capt 21st Inf

Cassidy Co. A
Capt. 7th Alcorian

Duplicate. 21 Decem. 21 Inf.