This form must be signed by both the student and the student’s advisor(s) and submitted to the Library before uploading the thesis into Bowdoin Digital Commons.

The form has three parts:

I. Level of Access: The advisor(s) and student must discuss fair use and select the appropriate level of access.

II. Embargo: The advisor(s) and student must decide if a period of embargo should be assigned to the thesis. If an embargo is needed, the advisor(s) and student designate the period of time after which the thesis will become accessible.

III. Affirmation: The student must affirm that the work on the Honors thesis is their own.

See attached sheet, Thesis Access and Embargo Guidelines, for information about level of access and embargoes.
